

WORD	MEANING	EXAMPLE	CATEGOTY
arcade	a covered area with shops on both sides	Lili is looking wide-eyed at an arcade filled with video games.	Groups Of Shops food court	a group of food shops in a shopping centre with a central area where you can sit at tables and eat your food	They got sandwiches in the cavernous food court.	Groups Of Shops mall	a large building with a lot of shops, restaurants, and sometimes a cinema	I like going there"–it's more exciting than the stores at the mall.	Groups Of Shops parade	a row of shops in a street. This word is often used in the names of streets.	Auntie Idris asks, and I'm supposing she means about the parades tomorrow.	Groups Of Shops pedestrian precinct	a street with shops, where vehicles are not allowed		Groups Of Shops plaza	an area in a city where there are several shops and businesses	"The plaza's empty...so's the rock garden...the shoreline and the bridge are harder to see, but as far as I can tell they seem deserted."	Groups Of Shops retail park	an area where there are several large shops together in one place, especially furniture shops and electrical shops		Groups Of Shops shopping centre	an area where a group of different shops and businesses such as banks and restaurants are all built next to each other	"–Actually, I want to go to the shopping centre first, Dad,' she said.	Groups Of Shops shopping mall	a mall	I reached the promenade, a big shopping mall that took up the whole middle of the ship, and I stopped cold.	Groups Of Shops shopping precinct	an area in a town that contains many different shops and where cars cannot go		Groups Of Shops strip mall	a row of shops contained in one long building with its own car park	My breath fogged up the window as we left that neighborhood behind and sped toward another strip mall.	Groups Of Shops advance guard	a small group of people, especially soldiers, that is sent to a place before other people to start the work that needs to be done there		Groups Of Soldiers battalion	a large group of soldiers that consists of three or more smaller groups called companies	Sure enough, lumbering after the centaurs was a battalion of one-eyed ogres, both male and female, each about ten feet tall, wearing armor cobbled out of junkyard metal.	Groups Of Soldiers brigade	a large group of soldiers, larger than a battalion	These are two very good brigades; you built them yourself.	Groups Of Soldiers cavalry	used in the names of some groups in modern armies		Groups Of Soldiers command	a section of the armed forces that does a particular job and has its own leader		Groups Of Soldiers company	a group of soldiers that is usually divided into two or more smaller groups called platoons: can be followed by a singular or plural verb	I can't tell her the rest, that I'm hungry for more"–that these people seem to be keeping me company now that the birds are gone.	Groups Of Soldiers contingent	a group of soldiers, police, vehicles etc from a particular place, forming part of a larger group	A contingent of Howards then went to see Mrs. Turner, the mother of Will Turner and Little Bob, to ask for a truce.	Groups Of Soldiers corps	a part of an army that has particular responsibilities	The kitchen sink area, where they kept their fruit bowl, was dotted with tiny, feathery fruit-fly corpses.	Groups Of Soldiers corps	a part of an army that consists of at least two divisions (=large units)		Groups Of Soldiers detachment	a group of soldiers sent to perform a special job separately from the rest of their group	By the beginning of 1968, another larger ANC detachment had entered Rhodesia and fought not only the Rhodesian army but South African policemen who had been posted to Rhodesia.	Groups Of Soldiers detail	a group of soldiers or police officers given a particular job	At New Delhi, he bought for $15 a peg-in travel chess set with a beautifully detailed design that was made of fragrant sandalwood"–but he felt guilty about paying so little for it.	Groups Of Soldiers division	a large section in a military force that consists of several smaller units	We appreciate the abstruse concept of equations breaking down through an example, division by zero, which we can understand for ourselves in either of two ways.	Groups Of Soldiers expeditionary force	a group of soldiers who go to fight in a foreign country		Groups Of Soldiers the fallen	the soldiers who have been killed in a war		Groups Of Soldiers firing squad	a group of soldiers who shoot and kill someone as a punishment	The firing squad was coming up behind him.	Groups Of Soldiers force	a group of people doing military or police work	She forced herself to look up at him, and felt at that moment the intensity of the attention that Florence fixed on her, as though she were trying to shout a warning.	Groups Of Soldiers garrison	a group of soldiers living in and defending a particular place	The soldiers set up their garrison in another unfinished brick house, and there they socialized separate from the civilians.	Groups Of Soldiers general staff	a group of military officers of middle rank who are under a commanding officer (=an officer of high rank)	The facts Oppenheimer favored disclosing publicly "are of the greatest significance to the general staff of an enemy."	Groups Of Soldiers guard	a unit of soldiers or police officers, especially one that has a particular job	The line of police parted, and the Governor stepped out in front of them, flanked by the armed guards of his estate.	Groups Of Soldiers guard of honour	a group of soldiers who stand or march together at an important official occasion		Groups Of Soldiers Guards	used in the names of some units in an army, especially the British army		Groups Of Soldiers headquarters	used for referring to the people in charge of a military operation: can be followed by a singular or plural verb	"Begging pardon, sir, but I've not been informed as to the whereabouts of Washington's headquarters. If I was to be given that information, I could pursue my obligations with greater speed."	Groups Of Soldiers impi	a group of warriors, especially Zulu warriors	After about a year, though, he concluded that the amount of time he was spending practicing the accordion was impinging on his chess studies.	Groups Of Soldiers legion	a large group of soldiers who are part of an army, especially a Roman army in ancient times	The first time Hazel had seen the legion assemble, she'd been so intimidated, she'd almost slunk back to the barracks to hide.	Groups Of Soldiers legionary	relating to a legion of soldiers		Groups Of Soldiers line	a row of soldiers, ships, or weapons facing an enemy	So James Cook sent Minty out to inspect his trap lines.	Groups Of Soldiers militia	a group of ordinary people who are trained as soldiers to fight in an emergency	Townsend also added to his cover by joining a Tory militia and writing anti-Patriot articles for the Royal Gazette, a pro-Tory newspaper.	Groups Of Soldiers mujahedin	soldiers belonging to an Islamic armed group	The ISI also worked closely with the CIA on organizing the mujahedin against the Soviets.	Groups Of Soldiers muster	a group of people brought together in one place, especially soldiers	Basically, both Bloom and Sherri Pope were talented, educated, sensitive people who, before their marriage, had been so completely versed as social beings that neither could muster the guts to face up to anything.	Groups Of Soldiers paratroops	soldiers who are paratroopers	The paratroops were not sent to separate Jews and Arabs.	Groups Of Soldiers picket	a soldier or group of soldiers who are guarding a place	They tore down Mr. Fenchel's white picket fence and burned the front out of his house.	Groups Of Soldiers platoon	a small group of soldiers that a lieutenant is in charge of	We strolled down the barely lit street, gossiping about the antics of our platoons.	Groups Of Soldiers presence	a group of people, especially soldiers or police, who are in a place for a particular purpose	"Your presence," I said haltingly, "means a lot to us. There is a rare gentleness in you, the sweeter for its brief appearances."	Groups Of Soldiers rank	a line of people, especially soldiers	I jumped into their ranks before the three girls noticed, and hurried back to the Hotel Excalibur.	Groups Of Soldiers rearguard	the part of an army that is responsible for preventing it from being attacked from behind	The cart moved off with Matthias positioned on the back providing a rearguard.	Groups Of Soldiers regiment	a group of soldiers that can be divided into smaller groups called battalions and whose leader is called a colonel	Tucker was now preoccupied with lining up a pepper shaker cavalry across from a hostile regiment of saltshaker footmen.	Groups Of Soldiers reinforcements	extra soldiers or police officers who go to help an existing group of soldiers or police officers	"They'll radio down reinforcements for sure. I don't want to be trapped into fighting on that river."	Groups Of Soldiers reserve	a soldier or a group of soldiers who are not fighting but who are available to fight	I was exhausted"â€œfighting undersea monsters had used up what little reserves I had left.	Groups Of Soldiers scouting party	a few members of a large group who are sent to get information about an area or about an enemy's movements or position		Groups Of Soldiers soldiery	soldiers	My gaze was fixed without object upon the encampment, the dim figures who, an arm or a cheek caught in the distinguishing gesture of flame, huddled or moved about the mob of soldiery.	Groups Of Soldiers squad	a small group of soldiers who do a particular job	By playing in white tennis tournaments I got to meet Keith Breb- nor, coach of one of South Africa's crack junior tennis squads.	Groups Of Soldiers squadron	a particular section of the armed forces, especially of the air force	"I don't want this out of this room," the squadron leader said, and everybody looked blank, shrugging with innocence and indifference.	Groups Of Soldiers task force	a group of people chosen from the armed forces to deal with a particular military situation	Nationally, narcotics task forces make up about 40 percent of all Byrne grant funding, but in some states as much as 90 percent of all Byrne grant funds go toward specialized narcotics task forces.	Groups Of Soldiers troop	a group of soldiers	The "feast" presented to Caesar and his troops consisted of spoiled grain served on chipped pottery.	Groups Of Soldiers troops	soldiers, especially in large numbers	"Maybe they always had troops stationed in the harbor. I don't know."	Groups Of Soldiers vanguard	the part of an army or navy that leads a battle	Nettles were everywhere, the vanguard of the army.	Groups Of Soldiers brace	a pair of game birds (=birds killed for sport and then eaten)		Groups Of Specific Living Things colony	a group of animals or birds of the same type that live in the same area		Groups Of Specific Living Things community	a group of animals that live in the same place	The fractious archaeological community embraced his ideas with rare unanimity; they rapidly became the standard model for the peopling of the Americas.	Groups Of Specific Living Things drove	a large number of animals, especially cows	She drove him to school, and he got there early every single day, even though it was a forty-five minute drive.	Groups Of Specific Living Things flight	a group of birds flying together	There were dolls lying over the flight line, but he let it go.	Groups Of Specific Living Things flock	a group of birds, sheep, or goats	Then, out of nowhere, a flock of birds flew by the window, extremely fast and incredibly close.	Groups Of Specific Living Things gaggle	a group of geese	"There's also a great gaggle of bakers, butchers, and greengrocers clamoring to be heard."	Groups Of Specific Living Things herd	a large group of animals of the same type that live and move about together	The drovers they brought here to oversee the Negro patrols and fortify the border think the Negroes in your part of town should be taking all the risk to herd the dead, not them.	Groups Of Specific Living Things hive	all the bees that live in a hive	He shrank back, his skin hot and prickly, like the onset of hives.	Groups Of Specific Living Things litter	a group of baby cats, dogs, or other animals that are born at the same time	I went back to school in the fall: a dry, gorgeous September, you wouldn't believe how beautiful the trees were that year: clear skies, littered groves, people whispering whenever I walked by.	Groups Of Specific Living Things mob	a large group of animals	"Sure, it's acting like a mob," the big black brother said.	Groups Of Specific Living Things pack	a group of wild animals that live and hunt together, especially wolves	All the food in the cellar and on the ground was gone, and her pack was not in sight.	Groups Of Specific Living Things plague	an uncontrolled and usually harmful increase in the numbers of an animal or insect	He dashes out the elevator so fast you'd think I had the plague.	Groups Of Specific Living Things pod	a small group of sea animals such as dolphins	Barrels of glowing green stasis gel dot between every four pods, a reminder they can still be used if necessary.	Groups Of Specific Living Things pride	a group of lions	"I can smell defiance, I can smell pride, I can smell disobedience. I catch a whiff of any such stinks, you'll answer for it. When I sniff you, all I want to smell is fear."	Groups Of Specific Living Things school	a large group of fish, dolphins, whales etc		Groups Of Specific Living Things shoal	a group of fish that swim together	Pale green flags drooped from fire - squat corner towers, each emblazoned with a shoal of silvery fish.	Groups Of Specific Living Things swarm	a large group of insects flying or moving together	The train yard swarmed with vehicles, officers, and people with luggage.	Groups Of Specific Living Things team	two or more animals that pull a vehicle or a piece of farm equipment: can be followed by a singular or plural verb	In the Corps barbershops, the heads of the entire base were handcrafted for the edification of visiting generals and inspection teams.	Groups Of Specific Living Things troop	a group of animals	Creeks and rivers overflow their banks from the recent rains, drenching the troops at every crossing.	Groups Of Specific Living Things traffic	aircraft, ships, and trains that travel from one place to another	Clearly the traffic got so bad, people turned around on the road and tried to go the other way, hoping that backtracking would actually cut their losses.	Groups Of Vehicles fleet	a group of vehicles, planes, boats, or trains, especially when they are owned by one organization or person	I held out my hand, and he shook it, though it was loose and fleeting and felt kind of weird.	Groups Of Vehicles convoy	a group of vehicles or ships travelling together, often with other vehicles or ships providing protection for them	He may be stern; he may be exacting; he may be ambitious yet; but his is the sternness of the warrior Greatheart, who guards his pilgrim convoy from the onslaught of Apollyon.	Groups Of Vehicles motorcade	a group of cars travelling with someone very important	Each day afterward, the motorcade ride to Sidwell Friends felt a little more routine.	Groups Of Vehicles flotilla	a group of small boats or ships	Navy destroyer and two coast guard cutters had taken up positions among the usual flotilla of yachts, sailboats, launches, dinghies, and canoes assembling near the finish line.	Groups Of Vehicles pack	a group of military vehicles, especially planes or submarines, that travel and fight together	We packed our belongings and left Santa Maria in September, the week school started.	Groups Of Vehicles traffic	the vehicles that are travelling in an area at a particular time		Groups Of Vehicles car pool	a group of cars owned by a company that can be used by people who work for the company	Thousands used the car pool each day, and thousands more walked to work and school and the downtown stores.	Groups Of Vehicles come under fire	to be attacked with guns		Gunfire And Shooting cover	protection from attack, especially from someone with a gun	The surface was covered in overlapping rebozos of different colors.	Gunfire And Shooting crossfire	bullets coming from two directions, fired by two people or armies who are shooting at each other	Jimmie got into a foxhole, but was trapped in the crossfire.	Gunfire And Shooting discharge	the act of firing a weapon	A couple of people who I already can't remember were discharged a few days ago.	Gunfire And Shooting drive-by	used for describing a situation in which someone is shot from a moving car	One of his sons was killed in a gang drive-by shooting in Los Angeles.	Gunfire And Shooting drive-by	the act of shooting someone from a moving car		Gunfire And Shooting exchange	a situation in which someone shoots at another person and the other person shoots back	In exchange, Le Duc Tho agreed to a cease-fire and the return of American prisoners of war.	Gunfire And Shooting fire	shots from a gun	I couldn't hear it, but I saw a fire truck race by the store, a yellow blip, and disappear.	Gunfire And Shooting fire fight	a fight in which guns are used, involving soldiers or the police	So distressed was I that I was on the verge of lending my efforts to the fire fighters, even at the risk of being recognized.	Gunfire And Shooting friendly fire	shots fired at you accidentally by soldiers from your own army	I didn't want to hear it if she did, but I wasn't eager to leave the lighted room where my family sat around the friendly fire.	Gunfire And Shooting fusillade	a series of shots fired from several guns at the same time	That points to something wider: while the fusillade of insults moves its object out of the embrace of the community, it seeks to move its speaker closer to the center.	Gunfire And Shooting gun control	laws that prevent people from keeping and using guns	In the statewide newsletter "NEWS from KLANSVILLE," Klansmen learned of nefarious plots against whites such as fluoridation and gun control.	Gunfire And Shooting gunfight	a fight between people using guns	When I had earned my place as the center of attention, I launched into the tale of Grandpa's gunfight.	Gunfire And Shooting gunfire	shots from guns	Sporadic gunfire was heard on several nights, although no injuries were reported.	Gunfire And Shooting gunfire	the sound made by guns being shot		Gunfire And Shooting gunshot	the sound that is made when someone fires a gun	Gunshots suddenly boomed from the south"â€many gunshots.	Gunfire And Shooting in the line of fire	in a position where you will be hurt if someone shoots a gun		Gunfire And Shooting marksmanship	the ability to shoot skilfully	His eyes are both intense and vague; he hardly seems to realize when he misses targets in marksmanship.	Gunfire And Shooting misfire	an occasion when a gun or an engine does not work in the right way	Four times he pulled the trigger, and four times the gun misfired.	Gunfire And Shooting the NRA	the National Rifle Association: an organization in the US that supports owning guns		Gunfire And Shooting point-blank	with the gun held very close to the person who is shot	Especially not Genie, who had just had a gun aimed point-blank at his head.	Gunfire And Shooting range	an open area of land where people can practise firing guns	In fact, judges, prosecutors, and defense attorneys may not even be aware of the full range of collateral consequences for a felony conviction.	Gunfire And Shooting recoil	the sudden backwards movement of a gun when it is fired	Washington sympathized with whites who recoiled at "the incoming of those of foreign birth and strange tongue and habits..."	Gunfire And Shooting report	a sudden loud noise caused by a gun or an explosion	In such a manner did that rumor, that happy report of Gotama the Buddha, the wise man from the race of Sakya, travel through the country.	Gunfire And Shooting rifle range	a place where people practise shooting with a rifle	He in turn described the parade ground, the rifle range, the drills, the "bull," the barracks.	Gunfire And Shooting Russian roulette	a game in which people shoot themselves with a gun that can hold six bullets but has only one in it, so that they do not know if they will be killed	No one ever liked being sent back to the agency, of course, entering into the Russian roulette of a brand-new home.	Gunfire And Shooting salvo	an act of firing a number of guns or other weapons at the same time	From the starting gun to the final salvo, they had rowed as if they could keep going at the same pace for another two miles or ten.	Gunfire And Shooting shooting	an occasion when someone is attacked by a person with a gun	We released our grips at the same time, hands shooting down to our sides.	Gunfire And Shooting shooting gallery	a place where you can practise shooting objects with a gun	On Friday night the shooting gallery was mobbed.	Gunfire And Shooting shooting match	a fight or competition using guns		Gunfire And Shooting shoot-out	a fight using guns		Gunfire And Shooting shot	an act of firing a gun	With quick wing pumps he shot up and out of sight of Frightful and the eyases.	Gunfire And Shooting shot	a sound of a gun being fired		Gunfire And Shooting shot	used for referring to someone who regularly shoots, especially relating to how well or how badly they do it		Gunfire And Shooting volley	a lot of shots from guns at the same time	The crash of scraping metal was followed immediately by a volley of Spanish hurled at me from all directions.	Gunfire And Shooting acrobatic	involving balancing, jumping, or turning your body with great skill	Link and Marty were doing like acrobatics in the entryway, fighting invisible demons.	Gymnastics And Yoga acrobatics	the skills or movements of an acrobat	"ËœFrightening my customers and breaking up my crocks with your acrobatics!"	Gymnastics And Yoga asana	a yoga position	For Valentine's Day, the Oaxaca-based mezcal company Gem & Bolt hosted a "heart and hip opening" party at a Los Angeles yoga studio where women sipped mezcal between asanas and crystal readings.	Gymnastics And Yoga cartwheel	a circular movement in which you throw yourself sideways with your hands on the floor, swing your legs over your head, and then come back with your feet on the floor	It was half boutique, half workshop"â€and a paradise to Horace, who practically cartwheeled inside, crying, "I'm in Heaven!"	Gymnastics And Yoga chakra	any of the seven main areas of spiritual energy in your body, according to a yoga theory		Gymnastics And Yoga gymnast	someone who does gymnastics as a sport, especially someone who takes part in competitions	I get afraid when I see the gymnasts at a circus, sailing from bar to bar high above the ground, with no net to save them if they fall.	Gymnastics And Yoga gymnastic	relating to gymnastics	Now, suddenly, Mom realized that recreational gymnastics might be the perfect outlet for her daughters"â€œespecially for me, her little bouncing bean who jumped and climbed on everything nonstop.	Gymnastics And Yoga gymnastics	a sport involving difficult physical exercises designed to increase your strength and ability to bend and balance	After gymnastics practice that day, she approached Jackie in the parking lot.	Gymnastics And Yoga handstand	a movement in which you put your hands on the ground and balance your body and legs in the air	He pushes up into the handstand with his usual effortless grace.	Gymnastics And Yoga headstand	a position in which you are upside down with your head and hands on the floor and your legs in the air	This one told her to perform headstands, that one to chant Vedic verses at specified intervals throughout the day.	Gymnastics And Yoga horse	a piece of equipment shaped like a large box that is used in gymnastics	After Seabiscuit's extraordinarily easy win in Tijuana, the Bay Meadows racing secretary had proposed assigning him 136 pounds, but Howard had intercepted him and charmed 3 pounds off of his horse's impost.	Gymnastics And Yoga the lotus position	a yoga position in which you sit on the floor with your legs crossed		Gymnastics And Yoga parallel bars	two bars on posts that are parallel to each other, used in the sport of gymnastics	Lithe gymnasts twirled on parallel bars and uneven bars and took long running leaps at pommel horses, trying to time their precise movements to coincide with the slow roll of the ship.	Gymnastics And Yoga Pilates	a form of exercise in which you develop the muscles in your abdomen in order to control your body movement and protect your back. It is similar to yoga.		Gymnastics And Yoga position	a way of placing your body in ballet or yoga	Despite his indignation at the position into which he had been placed, he still rather felt for the shrunken-looking man sitting opposite him.	Gymnastics And Yoga side split	a physical movement that involves spreading both your legs sideways while sitting on the ground		Gymnastics And Yoga slacklining	the sport of walking or balancing on a piece of flat nylon rope stretched above the ground		Gymnastics And Yoga somersault	a movement in which you form your body into a ball and roll forwards or backwards on the ground	Mr. Lemoncello sprinted to the center of the Rotunda Reading Room, leapt up, and somersaulted over the librarian's desk.	Gymnastics And Yoga somersault	a somersault performed in the air, for example when diving into water		Gymnastics And Yoga somersault	to perform a somersault on the ground or in the air		Gymnastics And Yoga the splits	a position in which you rest on the floor with your legs spread wide in opposite directions		Gymnastics And Yoga springboard	a strong board used for helping you to jump high in sports such as diving (=jumping into water) and gymnastics	I watched a gymnast do a back handspring skill on the vault, and I immediately wanted to try out the same move on the kiddie springboard.	Gymnastics And Yoga tumble	to do gymnastic movements in which you roll your body over on the floor	I tumbled through the branches, struck my head, and fell into darkness.	Gymnastics And Yoga tumbler	someone who does a particular type of gymnastics on the floor	"I am told you had a remarkable breed of tumblers. Could you commission any friend of yours to bring me a pair, if you've no further use for 'em?"	Gymnastics And Yoga yoga	an activity that involves doing physical and breathing exercises to make you stronger and make your mind and body relax	Jordie refers to Pamela's designer yoga pants as leggings, and she storms out, ripping one of the chains under construction right down the middle.	Gymnastics And Yoga yogi	someone who knows a lot about yoga	Planting her palms on either side of her crossed legs, she lifted herself up, like a yogi levitating, and scooted over to make room for me.	Gymnastics And Yoga habit	something that you do often or regularly, often without thinking about it	"This emperor has a habit of making the impossible happen."	Habits And Habitual Behaviour routine	your usual way of doing things, especially when you do them in a fixed order at the same time	In the routine of checking the reports, McShane came across the description.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour daily life	all the things that happen or that you do regularly		Habits And Habitual Behaviour custom	something that a particular person regularly does	We both knew that with the list in Hoagland's care I had been finally taken off, that there was no official prerogative anymore, no high man or custom to heed.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour tendency	an attitude, habit, or situation that is starting to develop in a particular way	I had a tendency to walk knock-kneed, which made my hips sway and my back end twitch.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour ritual	something that you do regularly and always in the same way	Actors reenacted the same stories in grand pageants and ritual celebrations.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour way of life	if something is a way of life, it is considered to be what people normally do or have	Fear proved a way of life for most people of color in the Deep South during the post-World War II era.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour common practice	something that is done a lot and is considered normal		Habits And Habitual Behaviour as is someone's wont	used for saying that someone has a habit of doing a particular thing		Habits And Habitual Behaviour proclivity	a tendency to want to do a particular thing, especially something bad		Habits And Habitual Behaviour a creature of habit	someone who likes to do the same thing at the same time every day		Habits And Habitual Behaviour a professional...	someone who always behaves in a particular way		Habits And Habitual Behaviour as a matter of routine	done as a habit or as the usual way of doing things		Habits And Habitual Behaviour be apt to do something	to have a tendency to do something		Habits And Habitual Behaviour be wont to do something	to have a habit of doing something		Habits And Habitual Behaviour chronic	doing something again and again, especially something harmful that you are unable or unwilling to stop doing	Farmers using arsenic dusts over long periods have been afflicted with chronic arsenic poisoning; livestock have been poisoned by crop sprays or weed killers containing arsenic.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour (come) rain or shine	used for saying that something always happens or someone always does something in spite of bad weather or difficult conditions		Habits And Habitual Behaviour compulsion	a very strong feeling of wanting to do something, especially a feeling that you cannot control	"I really need to learn that sometimes it's best if I just listen. It's a compulsion of mine, always wanting to be involved."	Habits And Habitual Behaviour compulsive	used about people who have a habit they cannot control	"Celia trapped him into that marriage, telling him she was pregnant. I guess she was a compulsive liar even back then."	Habits And Habitual Behaviour confirmed	always living in a particular way, having a particular belief, or behaving in a particular way	As I cling to a stretch of trunk no wider than a sapling, swaying back and forth in the humid breeze, my suspicions are confirmed.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour customary	usual for a particular person	He held the hand of a ten-year-old Mexican ballerina and was followed by scores of men and women in the customary clothing of their native cultures.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour diet	the things that a person regularly sees or experiences, especially when these are of poor quality	"Not you specifically. It's part of the specialized diet. Some of our residents can't digest rich things the way they used to."	Habits And Habitual Behaviour err towards in favour of something	to have a slight preference for or tendency towards one thing over another		Habits And Habitual Behaviour fare	used for referring to what someone or something usually does or has	He had hardly saved the Ring from the proud grasp of Boromir, and how he would fare now among so many men, warlike and strong, he did not know.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour fixture	used about a person considered to be permanently established in a job, place etc	The walls, the paneling, the pervasive heaviness of nearly new fixtures, the colossal fireplaces, the walk-in fireplaces of bright new stone referred back through the centuries to a time of lonely castles in mute forests.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour good old	used before the name of someone or something that always does what you want or expect	Or worse yet, some of those good old boys that was sipping Dr Peppers might follow us in trucks and see what they could do.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour go through	to perform a set of actions that you regularly perform	No one could go through the brush in the dusk without making a sound, except someone who had lived in it for a long time.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour habit	something that you often do without intending to or without realizing that you are doing it, which can annoy other people		Habits And Habitual Behaviour habit-forming	hard to stop doing because of being very enjoyable	This effect could be true even if the bursts are not addictive, and merely just habit-forming.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour habitual	usually or often done by someone	Then the candor of the woman's whole existence, which every one might read, and which formed so striking a contrast to her own habitual reserve"â€this might have furnished a link.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour habitual	used for describing a person who has a particular bad habit		Habits And Habitual Behaviour have a history of something	to be well known for doing something because you have often done it in the past		Habits And Habitual Behaviour have a nasty habit	used for talking about people or things that often behave or surprise you in an unpleasant way		Habits And Habitual Behaviour have a trick of doing something	to have a habit of doing a particular thing		Habits And Habitual Behaviour have a way of doing something	to have a special habit, especially an annoying one		Habits And Habitual Behaviour institution	someone or something that has been in a particular job or place for such a long time that you cannot remember a time when they were not there	It was the kind used in every mental institution in every movie and television show ever.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour inveterate	always doing a particular thing, especially something bad, and unlikely to change	At the very core of the revolutionary legacy, however, was a virulent hatred of monarchy and an inveterate suspicion of any consolidated version of political authority.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour knack	used when someone often does the wrong thing	He had a knack for looking at an animal and guessing what was on its mind.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour make a career out of (doing) something	to do something regularly, often something wrong or silly, so that you get a reputation for it		Habits And Habitual Behaviour make it a rule to do something	to always try to do something		Habits And Habitual Behaviour meat and drink to someone	something that someone enjoys doing or can do very easily, usually because they do it often		Habits And Habitual Behaviour nail-biter	someone who has the habit of biting their fingernails		Habits And Habitual Behaviour never fail to do something	used for emphasizing that someone or something always does something that you expect them to do		Habits And Habitual Behaviour not make a habit of doing something	used for saying that you do not usually do something that you have just done		Habits And Habitual Behaviour old habits die hard	used for saying that it is difficult to change a way of behaving that someone has had for many years		Habits And Habitual Behaviour ritualised	a British spelling of ritualized	Everything is sharply defined, in sleek monochrome, relieved only by Krapp's red socks "â€œ a clownish touch "â€œ and the banana he swallows in ritualised movements.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour ritualistic	always happening or done in a particular way	Granny made it imperative, however, that I attend certain all- night ritualistic prayer meetings.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour ritualized	always happening or done in the same, often formal, way	Emotions and ritualized behavior patterns are built deeply into us.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour serial	doing something or happening several times in the same way	Last Friend has been an incredible resource over the past two years, since its prototype stage, but she'll forever be horrified by the eleven Last Friend serial killings last summer.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour staple diet	the things that someone uses or receives most regularly		Habits And Habitual Behaviour stock	a stock answer is one that someone always gives when they are asked a particular question	"You mean in my stocking feet?" said Stuart.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour stock-in-trade	something that someone very often says or does, especially as part of their job	Joy is Swiss Lips' emotional stock-in-trade, or rather, euphoria undercut by the knowledge that it is transient.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour take to	to start doing something as a habit		Habits And Habitual Behaviour take up	to start doing something regularly as a habit, job, or interest	I immediately agreed to take up his case.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour tend	to usually do a particular thing	Chemistry was, generally speaking, a science for businesspeople, for those who worked with coal and potash and dyes, and not gentlemen, who tended to be drawn to geology, natural history, and physics.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour there someone goes again	used when someone has just said or done the same annoying thing that they have often said or done before		Habits And Habitual Behaviour trademark	something that you wear, do, or say that is typical of you	But she just sits there, silently watching as Vanessa adjusts her trademark racing glasses, rolls her shoulders and neck, shakes out her legs, and finally gets down in the blocks.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour trust someone (to do something)	used for saying that someone has done something that you think is typical of them, especially something that annoys you		Habits And Habitual Behaviour unaccustomed to something	not used to something, or not in the habit of doing something		Habits And Habitual Behaviour up to your old	to be doing the same annoying or bad things that you usually do		Habits And Habitual Behaviour vice	a bad habit or personal quality	I was too nervous to bother explaining that one of my father's vices had been his propensity for dirty limericks.	Habits And Habitual Behaviour you can't teach an old dog new tricks	used for saying that it is very difficult to make someone do something in a new way when they have been doing it their own way for a long time		Habits And Habitual Behaviour afraid	1. filled with fear or apprehension	I was afraid the holy water would burn my fingers.	Halloween afterlife	1. an existence after death	Does this mean I'll have a severed head in the afterlife, I wonder stupidly.	Halloween alarming	1. causing people to feel danger or alarm or to be worried or frightened	It looked alarming, with sharp ashen-gray spikes, a gate made of spearheads just waiting to impale anyone who tried to clamber over.	Halloween alien	1. belonging or relating to another person, place, or thing : strange	You get nowhere appealing to commonplaces alien to your audience.*	Halloween angel	1. a spiritual being serving as a divine messenger and intermediary and often as a special protector of an individual or nation; especially : one in the lowest rank in the celestial hierarchy	And Gran would've told me that maybe I was there as an angel before I chose to become Mom and Dad's kid.	Halloween apparition	1. an unusual or unexpected sight : phenomenon	The girl's lips tremble, her face is yellow in the light, looking very much like an apparition.	Halloween astronaut	1. a person whose profession is to travel beyond the earth's atmosphere; broadly : any person who travels beyond the earth's atmosphere	But before he made it through two complete rotations, Laura Friendly burst into the room wearing a reflective jogging suit that made her look like a small astronaut.	Halloween autumn	1. the season between summer and winter comprising in the northern hemisphere usually the months of September, October, and November or as reckoned astronomically extending from the September equinox to the December solstice "called also fall	It was an overcast autumn afternoon, and there was no one about except for a group of donors clustered under the overhanging roof of the recreation building.	Halloween ballerina	1. a woman who is a ballet dancer : danseuse	As we walk, snowflakes twirl like ballerinas and land on the ground, creating a soft pillow to walk on.	Halloween bat	1. a stout solid stick : club	Nina batted at her hair and clothes as she lurched through the snow, trying not to retch.	Halloween beast	1. a four-footed mammal as distinguished from a human being, a lower vertebrate, and an invertebrate	"So here I am between these two drunk beasts who look crazy enough to head-butt me, or bite me, or something wild like that. The kinda dudes who don't play by no rules."	Halloween bizarre	1. strikingly out of the ordinary: such as	Hermione looked utterly bewildered, but to Harry's enormous relief she accepted the bizarre turn of events without comment.	Halloween black	1. having the very dark color of the night sky or the eye's pupil : of the color black	Their uniforms were black, and two of them hadn't taken their caps off, which Malcolm knew was bad manners, apart from anything else.	Halloween blood	1. the fluid that circulates in the heart, arteries, capillaries, and veins of a vertebrate animal carrying nourishment and oxygen to and bringing away waste products from all parts of the body	And beside the sagebush there would be a naked, eyeless skull, a few picked bones, a spot of black dried blood and a few rags of golden fur.	Halloween bloodcurdling	1. arousing fright or horror	A piercing, bloodcurdling shriek split the silence "the book was screaming!	Halloween bogeyman	1. a monstrous imaginary figure used in threatening children	"What a time to be a bogeyman," muttered Arm.	Halloween bone	1. one of the hard parts of the skeleton of a vertebrate	Or it could be bones and teeth from an owl pellet, which only Fred would have thought was cool.	Halloween boo	1. "used to express contempt or disapproval or to startle or frighten	The crowds booed and the press picked at Smith and Howard.	Halloween broomstick	1. the long thin handle of a broom	She took a deep breath, then lifted the broomstick in both hands and brought it down across her knee.	Halloween cackle	1. to make the sharp broken noise or cry characteristic of a hen especially after laying	The raven gave a cackling scream, but the Old Bear smiled through the grey of his beard.	Halloween cadaver	1. a dead body; especially : one intended for dissection	I climbed up and took my place on the table as if I were one of Mr. Huffer's cadavers.	Halloween candy	1. crystallized sugar formed by boiling down sugar syrup	They liked to line up their candy along the low handrail that ran along the far side of the sloping porch.	Halloween cape	1. a point or extension of land jutting out into water as a peninsula or as a projecting point	Mr. Lemoncello wore a bright red and blue Revolutionary War outfit with a ruffled collar and a cape.	Halloween carve	1. to cut with care or precision	The colonial powers carved up Africa, put the black man to work, and did not properly educate him.	Halloween casket	1. a small chest or box (as for jewels)	I noticed right away that the screws on the casket had been tightened and that there were four men wearing black in the room.	Halloween cat	1. a carnivorous mammal (Felis catus) long domesticated as a pet and for catching rats and mice	As soon as he disappeared from the window, she slipped off the bed like that stupid cat and put her bra and shoes on in the dark.	Halloween cauldron	1. a large kettle or boiler	This cauldron he filled partly full of water, dipping it with a half gourd from an earthen jar that stood near, but he dipped cautiously, for water was precious.	Halloween cemetery	1. a burial ground	"If I want to watch men dig holes to fall into, I'll find myself a cemetery."	Halloween chilling	1. gravely disturbing or frightening	The chilling prospect of enduring Francis throughout the remaining years of his tenure as the Cavendish Professor was too much to ask of Bragg or anyone with a normal set of nerves.	Halloween cloak	1. a loose outer garment	She ducks into her room for a cloak, then takes my hand and pulls me to the back of the house.	Halloween clown	1. farmer, countryman	I was the acne-ridden clown with duck feet in floppy shoes.	Halloween cobweb	1. the network spread by a spider : spiderweb	You feel a cobweb clinging to your face and then comes a mild sting, and after that you don't feel anything.	Halloween coffin	1. a box or chest for burying a corpse	When I asked August why May was coming through the front door in her coffin, she said, "We're going to sit with her till she's buried."	Halloween corpse	1. a human or animal body whether living or dead	Mama Brunelle was closest, legs splayed, her corpse sprawled halfway into a ditch.	Halloween costume	1. the prevailing fashion in coiffure, jewelry, and apparel of a period, country, or class	"You know, there's still time to dig that fern costume out of the garage, if you're up for it."	Halloween cowboy	1. one who tends cattle or horses; especially : a usually mounted cattle-ranch hand	He dressed in his church clothes"â€black pants and a button-down shirt, a brown belt, his cowboy boots"â€and walked into store after store, asking for applications.	Halloween cowgirl	1. a girl or woman who tends cattle or horses	"Besides, he owes me. He almost got squashed in a closet today"â€isn't that right, cowgirl?"	Halloween creepy	1. producing a nervous shivery apprehension; also : eerie	Don't get me wrong, it wasn't creepy or nothing like that.	Halloween

crown	1. a reward of victory or mark of honor; especially : the title representing the championship in a sport		Halloween
crypt	1. a chamber (such as a vault) wholly or partly underground; especially : a vault under the main floor of a church	"But I believe that he's left money in the crypt, for food for the boy."	Halloween dark	1. devoid or partially devoid of light : not receiving, reflecting, transmitting, or radiating light	His nose was large and hooked, his hair thin, dark.	Halloween darkness	1. the quality or state of being dark: such as	Then she looked outside again, where the snow was still falling as darkness fell.	Halloween dead	1. deprived of life : no longer alive	I was careful to keep them alive, because otter will not eat anything that is dead, and left them in the pool.	Halloween death	1. a permanent cessation of all vital functions : the end of life	But in spite of Doctor Nolan's reassurances, I was scared to death.	Halloween demon	1. an evil spirit	He saw that demons made sport of us and killed us and ate our bodies.	Halloween devil	1. the personal supreme spirit of evil often represented in Christian belief as the tempter of humankind, the leader of all apostate angels, and the ruler of hell "usually used with the" often used as an interjection, an intensive, or a generalized term of abuse	Now I go only at night when all is plainer: plain-lit shapes inside, his face and radio ringed with bright devil halos in kerosene-lantern light.	Halloween devilish	1. resembling or befitting a devil: such as	Characteristically, as always, the devilish white man lacks the moral strength and courage to cast off his arrogance.	Halloween disguise	1. to change the customary dress or appearance of	There would be no way of disguising its meaning.	Halloween dreadful	1. inspiring dread : causing great and oppressive fear	"Well," my dreadful smile stretching across my face, "thanks most awfully once again, it's been so ripping..." using words I had never used before.	Halloween dress-up	1. a time or occasion for which fancy or formal clothing is worn	"It's like Trip said. This is just to celebrate Lexie. We're going to get dressed up and have a little girls' morning out."	Halloween eerie	1. so mysterious, strange, or unexpected as to send a chill up the spine; also : seemingly not of earthly origin	The mask's long crooked nose gave him an eerie birdlike appearance.	Halloween elf	1. a small often mischievous fairy	Harry's voice was still saying, "Dobby...Dobby..." even though he knew that the elf had gone where he could not call him back.	Halloween enchant	1. to influence by or as if by charms and incantation : bewitch	All went down, in haste, away from the enchanted place.	Halloween evil	1. morally reprehensible : sinful, wicked	There were a couple long seconds of silence, then, "In the name of Jesus, I remove you evil spirit of rage and send you to the Cross."	Halloween eyeballs	1. the more or less globular capsule of the vertebrate eye formed by the sclera and cornea together with their contained structures	Little eyeballs blinked at him from the cobblestones.	Halloween face paint	1. colorful makeup for drawing pictures on children's faces	"I mean, underneath all that war paint. Your pictures didn't even show you well."	Halloween fairy	1. a mythical being of folklore and romance usually having diminutive human form and magic powers	But in concocting the elixir the Fairy Queen described and giving it to the fairies, she would certainly be performing magic.	Halloween fall	1. to descend freely by the force of gravity	This is what it felt like, this is what it looked like, the edges of the world crumbling away and Conor holding on to her hands, feeling them slip from his grasp, feeling her fall"â€	Halloween fangs	1. a member of a Bantu-speaking people of northern Gabon, mainland Equatorial Guinea, and southern Cameroon	That snake mouth had snapped shut on his nose, driving the fangs in so deep that it was a full minute before he could sling the bloody head loose.	Halloween fantasy	1. the power or process of creating especially unrealistic or improbable mental images in response to psychological need; also : a mental image or a series of mental images (such as a daydream) so created	Rather than practicing my irregular verbs or trying to make sense of my day, I pass the time by replaying one of my current, ongoing fantasies.	Halloween fear	1. an unpleasant often strong emotion caused by anticipation or awareness of danger	Meggie bit her lip to stop herself from shaking, but she knew the fear showed in her eyes, and she knew that Capricorn saw it.	Halloween firefighter	1. a person who fights fires : fireman	The firefighters ran after her, and for a moment, Chess, Emma, and Finn were left alone.	Halloween flashlight	1. a small battery-operated portable electric light	When I looked back, I saw him moving through the gambling boat and shining a flashlight.	Halloween fog	1. vapor condensed to fine particles of water suspended in the lower atmosphere that differs from cloud only in being near the ground	Around us, the countryside lay veiled and mysterious, silent in the night and fog.	Halloween fright	1. fear excited by sudden danger : alarm	"It's not the fashion, but it's becoming, and I can't afford to make a fright of myself," she used to say, when advised to frizzle, puff, or braid, as the latest style commanded.	Halloween frighten	1. to make afraid : terrify	I don't even know whether there's anything to be frightened of.	Halloween frightening	1. causing fear	His anger was always more frightening in his broken English.	Halloween frightful	1. causing intense fear or alarm : terrifying	That face of hers was the most frightful and frightening thing I have ever seen.	Halloween genie	1. jinni	"One package, many thoughts. If you have mastered the material, then the proper phrase will conjure it"â€like the magic words that coax a genie from a bottle. Do you see?"	Halloween ghastly	1. terrifyingly horrible to the senses : frightening	If you don't, she'll end up as one of those timid maidservants who scarcely dare to raise their heads and whose only purpose is to clean and cook for their ghastly master.	Halloween ghost	1. the seat of life or intelligence : soul	But First Wife turned out to be a living ghost, no threat to Second Wife, who had her strong spirit intact.	Halloween ghostly	1. of or relating to the soul : spiritual	He made his voice sound ghostly, shrugged, then ate a mozzarella stick.	Halloween ghoul	1. a legendary evil being that robs graves and feeds on corpses	"I don't remember anything about the days before I was a ghoul," said the famous writer Victor Hugo.	Halloween ghoulish	1. resembling, suggesting, or appropriate to a ghoul	A short, pleasurable, if somewhat ghoulish, guffaw sounded behind the curtain.	Halloween goblin	1. an ugly or grotesque sprite that is usually mischievous and sometimes evil and malicious	And there on the mountaintop between the two kingdoms, beneath their one moon, elf and goblin shook hands.	Halloween goodies	1. something that is particularly attractive, pleasurable, good, or desirable	"Also, I need three of your best breakfast goodies for our upstairs neighbor."	Halloween gory	1. covered with gore : bloodstained	I didn't get into all the gory stuff, but I did tell him that R.C.	Halloween gown	1. a loose flowing outer garment formerly worn by men	Mrs Compson watched her, holding the dressing gown under her chin.	Halloween grave	1. an excavation for burial of a body; broadly : a burial place	When I was little, I used to think that we visited my mom's grave because she was somehow there"â€like we were really going to spend time with her ghost or something like that.	Halloween gravestone	1. a burial monument	Liyana noticed there were no words on any of the white gravestones.	Halloween grim	1. fierce in disposition or action : savage	It was a grim smile with no humor in it.	Halloween Grim Reaper	1. death especially when personified as a man or skeleton with a scythe	I jammed the flashlight into my back pocket and walked quietly behind the garage, where I had a bag with my Grim Reaper costume.	Halloween grisly	1. inspiring horror or intense fear	Black Ears rode on both sides of him, their grisly necklaces looped about their throats, while Bronn went in front to clear the way.	Halloween gruesome	1. inspiring horror or repulsion : grisly	The living room walls were decorated with a bunch of gruesome hunting trophies"â€stuffed deer and dragon heads, a gun case, a sword display, and a bow with a quiver.	Halloween hair-raising	1. causing terror, excitement, or astonishment	So one thing I do not want is to live at a hair-raising distance from my job, assuming, of course, that I get a job.	Halloween Halloween	1. October 31 observed especially with dressing up in disguise, trick-or-treating, and displaying jack-o'-lanterns during the evening	Pearl, still wary after the Halloween party, sighed.	Halloween hat	1. a covering for the head usually having a shaped crown and brim	But just to see Bear's sack and hat in one corner moved me greatly.	Halloween haunt	1. to visit often : frequent	He was five years old when it happened, a charity boy at Zemonan Abbey, and he'd snuck away to the old orchard that was the haunt of nightwings and lacewings to play by himself.	Halloween hayride	1. a pleasure ride usually at night by a group in a wagon, sleigh, or open truck partly filled with straw or hay	And his dad, a leather duffel still hanging off one shoulder, looking harried and exhausted.	Halloween headstone	1. a memorial stone at the head of a grave	Luna was arranging sea lavender in a jam jar beside the headstone.	Halloween hobgoblin	1. a mischievous goblin	Except it's not the Goldengrove anymore, because the hobgoblin king and queen have captured the fairy princess whose laughter makes the sun rise.	Halloween hocus pocus	1. sleight of hand	"Right. But this stuff is all, like... mystical. What we were talking about on the phone today? I was talking about reality, real people, not a bunch of hocus-pocus."	Halloween horrible	1. marked by or arousing painful and intense fear, dread, dismay, or aversion : marked by or arousing horror	Turning my back to the horrible sight, I closed my eyes.	Halloween horrify	1. to cause to feel horror	I untag myself, horrified that it's already received so many likes and comments.	Halloween howl	1. to emit a loud sustained doleful sound characteristic of members of the dog family	The bridge fell away into the chasm, and the Cyclops howled with delight, because he was standing right next to us.	Halloween imp	1. a small demon : fiend	A burst of darkness momentarily eclipsed the steady luminance of the lanterns, and suddenly, in the midst of where all the imps were focusing their attention, a new human-sized imp sprouted up.	Halloween jack-o'-lantern	1. a lantern made of a pumpkin usually cut to resemble a human face	Now he had such a huge smile it almost seemed too big for his face, like the smile on a jack-o'-lantern.	Halloween jumpsuit	1. a one-piece garment consisting of a blouse or shirt with attached trousers or shorts	Strands of escaping hair tickle my cheek, and my jumpsuit lumps in spots.	Halloween kimono	1. a long robe with wide sleeves traditionally worn with a broad sash as an outer garment by the Japanese	"The kimono, the sheet music"â€”you must take those things?"	Halloween king	1. a male monarch of a major territorial unit; especially : one whose position is hereditary and who rules for life	"Better the butcher than the meat. All kings are butchers. Are queens so different?"	Halloween lantern	1. a usually portable protective case for a light with transparent openings	Kneeling on solid ground, I set the lantern down beside me and pulled back the bolt securing the panel in place.	Halloween macabre	1. having death as a subject : comprising or including a personalized representation of death	It sounds macabre, but when Mother realized that after she's dead, she won't be able to tell me what to wear anymore, she came up with this ingenious postmortem system.	Halloween magic	1. the use of means (such as charms or spells) believed to have supernatural power over natural forces	"The magic square? You had me stumped with the flamingo theater. I was like, what in the world is a"â€”Emily's brain caught up with her rambling mouth.	Halloween magic wand	1. a stick that is used to make magic things happen â€”sometimes used figuratively	He seems arrogant, but I notice that his fingers tremble when he moves them.	Halloween make-believe	1. a pretending that what is not real is real	Throughout the entire day at Ellis Park I had been existing in a different world, a sort of make-believe world.	Halloween make-up	1. the way in which the parts or ingredients of something are put together : composition	Of course, I was a little behind, but Ms. Harris had all the teachers create make-up assignments for me so that I could catch up on the work I missed.	Halloween mask	1. a cover or partial cover for the face used for disguise	Gas mask, tin hat, ration coupons, and an umbrella.	Halloween masquerade	1. a social gathering of persons wearing masks and often fantastic costumes	"So behave yourselves and pretend you're the good, proper citizens you masquerade as when you out and about on the boulevard, okay?"	Halloween mausoleum	1. a large tomb; especially : a usually stone building with places for entombment of the dead above ground	She followed her parents into the house, which shone and gleamed and had the vague air of a mausoleum, thanks to all the marble.	Halloween midnight	1. the middle of the night; specifically : 12 o'clock at night	"But if the gatehouse is the threshold, where are we supposed to stand to see anything an hour after midnight?"	Halloween mist	1. water in the form of particles floating or falling in the atmosphere at or near the surface of the earth and approaching the form of rain	All the magic of dawn had gone now, and in its place was a gray early morning, distinguished only by a summers mist which was sure to burn off soon.	Halloween monster	1. an animal of strange or terrifying shape	I could see him freaking out and starting to cry while we were trying to sneak past a monster or something.	Halloween moon	1. the earth's natural satellite that shines by the sun's reflected light, revolves about the earth from west to east in about 29 1/2 days with reference to the sun or about 27 1/3 days with reference to the stars, and has a diameter of 2160 miles (3475 kilometers), a mean distance from the earth of about 238,900 miles (384,400 kilometers), and a mass about one eightieth that of the earth â€”usually used with the	I got a nice letter from Charles Lindbergh, who thought that my flight around the moon by myself must have been similar to his solo flight across the Atlantic Ocean.	Halloween moonlight	1. the light of the moon	There's barely any light, only moonlight that reaches through the small window.	Halloween moonlit	1. lighted by the moon	A mockingbird trilled a note from where it perched upon the hand of the moonlit Founder, flipping its moon-mad tail above the head of the eternally kneeling slave.	Halloween morbid	1. of, relating to, or characteristic of disease	It is the first day of November, nearly dusk, and he is speaking in morbid riddles again.	Halloween mummy	1. a body embalmed or treated for burial with preservatives in the manner of the ancient Egyptians	The mummies spoke through female mediums who represented the panaqa s surviving courtiers or their descendants.	Halloween mysterious	1. of, relating to, or constituting mystery	There is scarcely an instance of hypothermic death that isn't in some measure mysterious and improbable.	Halloween night	1. the time from dusk to dawn when no sunlight is visible	It was his failures that haunted him at night, though.	Halloween nightmare	1. an evil spirit formerly thought to oppress people during sleep	But at night some of us would wake up from nightmares, sweating, screaming, and punching our own heads to drive out the images that continued to torment us even when we were no longer asleep.	Halloween ninja	1. a person trained in ancient Japanese martial arts and employed especially for espionage and assassinations	She took a piece of green chalk from him, crouched, and sketched a girl in a ninja outfit.	Halloween October	1. the 10th month of the Gregorian calendar	It's October, and so far things have been going pretty good, better than I ever expected.	Halloween ogre	1. a hideous giant of fairy tales and folklore that feeds on human beings : monster	"You're a long mile prettier than a grape or a squash, and you needed a long mile less rescuing. I never caught an ogre so neatly before."	Halloween orange	1. a globose berry with a yellowish to reddish-orange rind and a sweet edible pulp	The prickly poppy had white petals with orange and red in the middle.	Halloween otherworldly	1. of, relating to, or resembling that of a world other than the actual world	The Cusp looked more otherworldly even than by daylight, aglow as though lit from within.	Halloween owl	1. any of an order (Strigiformes) of chiefly nocturnal birds of prey with a large head and eyes, short hooked bill, strong talons, and soft fluffy often brown-mottled plumage	And so with the disappearance of the deer, the hoot of the owl, the cold land began to create new life.	Halloween party	1. a person or group taking one side of a question, dispute, or contest	They were having a big old party every night, compliments of their pal Bel.	Halloween petrify	1. to convert (organic matter) into stone or a substance of stony hardness by the infiltration of water and the deposition of dissolved mineral matter	The neighbor's cat is climbing awkwardly on a high branch, its claws gripping the wood as if it's petrified.	Halloween phantasm	1. a product of fantasy: such as	"It is impossible to perform any act of kindness toward you two. Always the same phantasm! I merely kept all dials at equilibrium in accordance with the will of the Master."	Halloween phantom	1. something apparent to sense but with no substantial existence : apparition	She would attribute it to measureless wellsprings of piety or stewardship of the phantom herds that bled out the milk of human kindness.	Halloween pirate	1. one who commits or practices piracy	Finally Percy went aboard the pirate ship and opened the flood valves.	Halloween pitchfork	1. a long-handled fork that has two or three long somewhat curved prongs and is used especially in pitching hay	He had been enjoying a reign of terror since they brought him to Detroit, trying to take big chunks out of the grooms, and no one wanted to go within a pitchfork's length of him.	Halloween poltergeist	1. a noisy usually mischievous ghost held to be responsible for unexplained noises (such as rappings)	His lips are slightly parted, and he looks as though he's sighted a poltergeist.	Halloween potion	1. a mixture of liquids (such as liquor or medicine)	Lord Hoster sucked at the thick white potion as eager as a babe at the breast, and Catelyn could see peace settle over him once more.	Halloween prank	1. trick:	That was how our home movies ended, with a prank on my birthday.	Halloween pretend	1. to give a false appearance of being, possessing, or performing	"Yeah, well, he'll hate us more if we keep pretending he doesn't exist," the Colonel answered.	Halloween prince	1. monarch, king	In the actions of all men, and especially of princes, where there is no tribunal to which to appeal, one must consider the final result.	Halloween princess	1. a woman having sovereign power	He's being paired with the princess of Norway on our coffee table's magazine, for crying out loud.	Halloween pumpkin	1. a fruit of any of various cultivars of herbaceous plants (Cucurbita pepo, C. maxima, C. moschata, and C. mixta synonym C. argyrosperma) of the gourd family that is typically round and orange but may be another color or shape, that has a hard usually smooth skin with shallow longitudinal grooves, and that is grown for ornamental use or for its fibrous pale flesh used especially in baking or as feed for livestock	For instance, most stores buy yellow and black crepe paper and black paper cats, masks and papier-mâché pumpkins in October.	Halloween queen	1. the wife or widow of a king	The king and queen nod at Du Barry.	Halloween repulsive	1. serving or able to repulse	The next morning, however, as I took apart a particularly repulsive backbone-centered molecule, I decided that no harm could come from spending a few days building backbone-out models.	Halloween revolting	1. extremely offensive	I find that substance revolting, yet he eats it eagerly, as if it were candy.	Halloween RIP	1. to tear or split apart or open	Prince Jones was a one of one, and they had destroyed his body, scorched his shoulders and arms, ripped open his back, mangled lung, kidney, and liver.	Halloween robe	1. a long flowing outer garment; especially : one used for ceremonial occasions or as a symbol of office or profession	He fingered the collar of his order,- a heavy chain worn tight around the neck beneath his robe, each link forged from a different metal.	Halloween robot	1. a machine that resembles a living creature in being capable of moving independently (as by walking or rolling on wheels) and performing complex actions (such as grasping and moving objects); often : such a machine built to resemble a human being or animal in appearance and behavior "often used before another noun	It didn't look like any robot she had ever seen.	Halloween scare	1. to frighten especially suddenly : alarm	An agent took a shot, missing the animal though scaring it enough that it veered off course and retreated back down the hill.	Halloween scarecrow	1. an object usually suggesting a human figure that is set up to frighten birds away from crops	As to what I dare, I'm a old bird now, as has dared all manner of traps since first he was fledged, and I'm not afeerd to perch upon a scarecrow.	Halloween scary	1. causing fright : alarming	"Wow, that sounds so small and far away. And scary."	Halloween scream	1. to voice a sudden sharp loud cry	Some old farmer dragged me and Philbert out of his yard by the elbows, so screaming mad we thought he was going to kill us dead.	Halloween shadow	1. the dark figure cast upon a surface by a body intercepting the rays from a source of light	Tree-ear turned away, feeling guilt like a shadow across his brow, and hoped fervently that he had not offended her.	Halloween shadowy	1. of the nature of or resembling a shadow	A shadowy figure, a shy woman, she seemed to slip behind her husband before the camera clicked, or had her face masked by a floppy hat brim.	Halloween shock	1. a sudden or violent mental or emotional disturbance	He looked surprised but not shocked, as if I'd asked something stupidly obvious.	Halloween shocking	1. extremely startling, distressing, or offensive	Mary Anne enjoyed shocking Ben about religious matters.	Halloween skeleton	1. a usually rigid supportive or protective structure or framework of an organism; especially : the bony or more or less cartilaginous framework supporting the soft tissues and protecting the internal organs of a vertebrate	The Museum still has portions of his brain, most of his skeleton, and his spleen.	Halloween skull	1. the skeleton of the head of a vertebrate forming a bony or cartilaginous case that encloses and protects the brain and chief sense organs and supports the jaws	The light was dim and came from gas jets hidden behind skulls mounted on the walls.	Halloween soldier	1. one engaged in military service and especially in the army	The soldier crumples, clutching frantically at his mask.	Halloween specter	1. a visible disembodied spirit : ghost	"I" must say yes. But the specter" "Just answer the questions, knave!" the ghost said.	Halloween spell	1. to name the letters of in order; also : to write or print the letters of in order	He'd meant it as a compliment, but his words ruined the spell of the dance for her, ruined its very memory.	Halloween spider	1. any of an order (Araneae synonym Araneida) of arachnids having a short, usually unsegmented abdomen linked to the cephalothorax by the pedicel, chelicerae modified into poison fangs, and two or more pairs of spinnerets at the posterior end of the abdomen for spinning threads of silk for various uses (as in making cocoons for their eggs or webs to catch prey)	There was no adult among them, except, some distance away, in front of a cage filled with playful spider monkeys, a tall wiry white man with silver-rimmed glasses stood bemused.	Halloween spider web	1. the network of silken thread spun by most spiders and used as a resting place and as a trap for small prey	They came with the wind that blows in August, thin as a spider web and barely noticed.	Halloween spine-chilling	1. alarmingly or eerily frightening	I'm sure she wouldn't have appreciated Vonetta sprinkling "black" into her poem like pepper, but the crowd loved it, and we went along, following Vonetta's lead, throwing in the word black as she had.	Halloween spirit	1. an animating or vital principle held to give life to physical organisms	Go to Durham and see the cooperative spirit among Negroes at its best.	Halloween spook	1. ghost, specter	Hazel didn't understand why he looked so spooked.	Halloween spooky	1. relating to, resembling, or suggesting spooks	The countryside itself seemed spooky" shadows and tunnels and incense burning in the dark.	Halloween startling	1. causing momentary fright, surprise, or astonishment	The children banged on the glass and pointed at the types in a disrespectful fashion, startling them as they pretended to fuss with sailor's knots.	Halloween strange	1. different from what is usual, ordinary, or expected : odd	At midday, Zeitoun heard something strange: the sound of buses at the bus station.	Halloween superhero	1. a fictional hero having extraordinary or superhuman powers; also : an exceptionally skillful or successful person	He'd smile there, to give his superiors the full effect of his charm.	Halloween supernatural	1. of or relating to an order of existence beyond the visible observable universe; especially : of or relating to God or a god, demigod, spirit, or devil	The most startling thing about the face was its supernatural conglomeration of bright colors.	Halloween superstition	1. a belief or practice resulting from ignorance, fear of the unknown, trust in magic or chance, or a false conception of causation	And gradually the idea took root that magic was merely an old country superstition.	Halloween sweets	1. something that is sweet to the taste: such as	When Father sent me away to East Prussia, they sneaked over the night before and brought me sweets and gifts.	Halloween

tarantula	1. any of various large, typically ground-dwelling, hairy, mygalomorph spiders (family Theraphosidae) of warm regions that possess venomous fangs used to subdue and kill prey (such as insects, centipedes, frogs, and mice) caught by ambush or chase and that construct silk-lined burrows but do not build webs to trap food	William Thomas wiped his forehead and felt the touch of his son's hand on his arm, like a young tarantula, thrilled.	Halloween terrible	1. extremely bad: such as	"Oh, my heavens, what a terrible thing!" his wife said, hands on her cheeks, gaping at the fire.	Halloween terrify	1. to drive or impel by menacing : scare	As they waited, hearts pounding from their flight from the monastery and the strange, terrifying encounter they had had there, Jeanne looked at Michelangelo.	Halloween thrilling	1. causing a feeling of great excitement or happiness	Smith was an eccentric rebel who surrounded himself with people interested in the progressive issues of the day, and Elizabeth found the environment at his home a thrilling contrast to her father's safe, conservative household.	Halloween tiara	1. a 3-tiered crown worn by the pope	Then Chicho places a tiara on my head, my first ever, with sparkly crystals.	Halloween toga	1. the loose outer garment worn in public by citizens of ancient Rome; also : a similar loose wrap or a professional, official, or academic gown	One of the Ebgard girls dressed up as Victory, a huge flag wrapped around her like a toga.	Halloween tomb	1. an excavation in which a corpse is buried : grave	"You were the first to find the tomb's hiding place, so we owe you our gratitude for leading us to it."	Halloween tombstone	1. gravestone	A cigarette in bed was the tombstone marking each day's end and the reed through which she breathed herself back to life each morning.	Halloween treat	1. to deal with in speech or writing : expound	No one could ever get too annoyed with her, though, because she usually came bearing her prize jalebis, the twisted, sticky orange treats that would lure anyone to the door.	Halloween treats	1. to deal with in speech or writing : expound	Mr. Linga took particularly good care of the mules and Mrs. Linga would often go with her husband down into the mine to help groom the mules and feed them treats and clean their stalls.	Halloween trick	1. a crafty procedure or practice meant to deceive or defraud	Through her tears, Hazel explained how she had switched the physician's cure for an illusion - a trick of the Mist - so that Leo could keep the real vial.	Halloween trick-or-treat	1. a Halloween practice in which children wearing costumes go from door to door in a neighborhood saying "trick or treat" when a door is opened to ask for treats with the implied threat of playing tricks on those who refuse	I will knock and say "trick or treat" like a song, and Madge will play it on the trombone"â€A, A, F"â€quietly, she says, with a glance at my muffs.	Halloween troll	1. a dwarf or giant in Scandinavian folklore inhabiting caves or hills	Kabuo remembered trolling for cutthroat with Carl"â€ they were twelve years old, long before the war"â€in a borrowed, weathered rowboat.	Halloween tutu	1. a short projecting skirt worn by a ballerina	I didn't know if Diego was joking about the dress code, but I would have worn clown shoes and a tutu to get out of my house.	Halloween unearthly	1. not earthly: such as	His agony was terrifying, the piercing, unearthly howl with which he split the moonlit dark vibrating in its own impact for seconds afterward like a devastating shock.	Halloween unnerving	1. to deprive of courage, strength, or steadiness	Late in the night, the furor finally began to relent, replaced by more unnerving sounds.	Halloween vampire	1. the reanimated body of a dead person believed to come from the grave at night and suck the blood of persons asleep	It was a relief, that one small entry, the one myth among hundreds that claimed the existence of good vampires.	Halloween vanish	1. to pass quickly from sight : disappear	The green butterfly vanishes on the breeze when Trub reaches the tent.	Halloween wand	1. a slender staff carried in a procession : verge	"Unlike Dumbledore, he was still carrying a wand...and he seems to have learned a few tricks from his master."	Halloween warlock	1. a man practicing the black arts : sorcerer	"There is a saying in Qarth. A warlock's house is built of bones and lies."	Halloween web	1. a fabric on a loom or in process of being removed from a loom	Hollister led them to a round table decorated for Halloween with a giant paper spider, a witch's cauldron, and cotton-strewn webs.	Halloween weird	1. of strange or extraordinary character : odd, fantastic	"It's weird, being this near, but not going to visit," said Ron.	Halloween werewolf	1. a person transformed into a wolf or capable of assuming a wolf's form	He knew who this was: Fenrir Greyback, the werewolf who was permitted to wear Death Eater robes in return for his hired savagery.	Halloween wicked	1. morally very bad : evil	He sat back in his leather aviator jacket, his black T-shirt and jeans, that wicked silver skull ring on his finger, and the Stygian sword at his side.	Halloween wig	1. a manufactured covering of natural or synthetic hair for the head	Wearing a wavy blond wig and orange lipstick, she lifted the license of one Dakota Pleasance, five foot two.	Halloween witch	1. a person (especially a woman) who is credited with having usually malignant supernatural powers	One by one, wizards and witches in dressing gowns and slippers descended from the upper floors to leave the bus.	Halloween witchcraft	1. the use of sorcery or magic	"If by witchcraft, you mean the arcane practice of reading. Your commander said we'd be tried for our crimes. I want you to tell me just what crime I've committed."	Halloween wizard	1. one skilled in magic : sorcerer	"'EoeThe words of this wizard stand on their heads,' he growled, gripping the handle of his axe.	Halloween wizardry	1. the art or practices of a wizard : sorcery	For none of them, for all their clever tricks, had saved a village by wizardry.	Halloween wraith	1. the exact likeness of a living person seen usually just before death as an apparition	Then he climbed the steps, silent as a wraith.	Halloween zombie	1. a will-less and speechless human (as in voodoo belief and in fictional stories) held to have died and been supernaturally reanimated	"You two are zombies, you know that? You're both being so weird."	Halloween adore	1. to worship or honor as a deity or as divine	They were obsolete, last year's weather, but Cora adored the old almanacs for containing the entire world.	Happiness affable	1. being pleasant and at ease in talking to others	Yet Franklin fit neither model: she was neither affable housewife nor cauldron-stirrer in a boiled wool robe, neither Madonna nor witch.	Happiness agreeable	1. pleasing to the mind or senses especially as according well with one's tastes or needs	As Palmer saw it, the pigeon was a most agreeable bird.	Happiness amiable	1. friendly, sociable, and congenial	What word is a synonym of "amiable"? Ans.	Happiness amusing	1. giving amusement : diverting	I wonder if he watched the tower the whole time during his luncheon, waiting for the amusing spectacle of me jumping to my death.	Happiness animated	1. endowed with life or the qualities of life : alive	His phone chirps and I see the animated pill bottle appear on his screen.	Happiness appealing	1. having appeal : pleasing	The process of appealing his guilty verdict took a lot longer than I expected"â€œyears instead of months.	Happiness as happy as a clam	1. very happy	It was auspicious, his arrival, a day after she put up her blog and a week after she resigned.	Happiness beaming	1. to emit in beams or as a beam	Me with terribly flushed cheeks, beaming as the lead singer winked at me while we played.	Happiness beatific	1. of, possessing, or imparting beatitude	A beatific smile crosses her face, but before she can take another step, two guards are on her.	Happiness beautiful	1. having qualities of beauty : exciting aesthetic pleasure	He had decided to live there because the view was so beautiful, because, from his vantage point, he seemed to be looking out on to the incarnation of a divine being.	Happiness bliss	1. complete happiness	When she climbed astride, he would hold her hips and stare up at the night sky and, for those moments, be sure of the meaning of bliss.	Happiness blissful	1. full of, marked by, or causing complete happiness	It was blissful and it was terrifying at the same time.	Happiness blithe	1. lacking due thought or consideration : casual, heedless	In the year she knew him, before they were married, she discovered a little magic in herself, and for a while felt like a blithe genie released from her lamp.	Happiness bowl over	1. to take unawares	When I finally am able to push the thudding to the back of my head, I'm bowled over by the colors and smells and unadulterated joy around me.	Happiness buoyant	1. having buoyancy : such as	Philbert sits across from me on his visit, his usual buoyant energy rendered nervous and quiet by our surroundings.	Happiness carefree	1. free from care: such as	"And it feels weird because I don't know if it's the same with him. He always comes off as so carefree whenever we hang out, and I'm always a nervous wreck."	Happiness charming	1. extremely pleasing or delightful : entrancing	Young bonobos were mischievous and charming, but the adults were a different story.	Happiness cheerful	1. full of good spirits : merry	And now the villagers were choosing partners, forming lines, and moving in time to the cheerful melody.	Happiness cheeriness	1. marked by cheerfulness or good spirits	A big reason for chariness with a U.B.I. is that, so far, the program lives in people's heads, untried on a national scale.	Happiness cheery	1. marked by cheerfulness or good spirits	Tom Devin, the other brigade commander, arrived with a cheery grin.	Happiness chipper	1. one that chips	"You got it," Chuck replied, his voice chipper, as if thrilled to be needed.	Happiness chirpy	1. cheerfully lively	Mrs. Kahn answered in her usual chirpy hide-the-bruises sort of way, and when I asked if I could talk to Charlie, she told me he was out.	Happiness content	1. something contained “usually used in plural	The doctors cut them open, letting their bacteria-laden contents flow out of Garfield's body.	Happiness contented	1. feeling or showing satisfaction with one's possessions, status, or situation	It would have been impossible to find three more contented animals that night.	Happiness delight	1. a high degree of gratification or pleasure : joy; also : extreme satisfaction	Despite the pain and the blood, Roza took in the icy-eyed man's expression of frozen, stony horror and reveled in it, delighted in it.	Happiness delighted	1. delightful	She delighted in his wily mind, his shrewdness and his cunning; she was always forward to help him.	Happiness delightful	1. highly pleasing	She tosses her hair in a familiar, delightful way.	Happiness diverting	1. providing amusement or entertainment	But to a generation of writers after Wharton that structure “the lives and mores of the rich, the wellborn, and the climbers” proved endlessly diverting.	Happiness droll	1. having a humorous, whimsical, or odd quality	They were fuzzy, droll little creatures who grew at a tremendous rate.	Happiness ebullient	1. boiling, agitated	Donders's writing at the time shows an ebullient quality, such as when he describes the challenges of quantifying mental processing.	Happiness ecstasy	1. a state of overwhelming emotion; especially : rapturous delight	The fire was inside her, an agony, an ecstasy, filling her, searing her, transforming her.	Happiness ecstatic	1. of, relating to, or marked by ecstasy	Then the instant was gone as he was surrounded by the ecstatic Garikayi clan.	Happiness elated	1. marked by high spirits : exultant	I was elated to be on speaking terms with a tiger.	Happiness elation	1. the quality or state of being elated	In my elation at the photo shoot today, I forgot to mention that today June 19th was my deceased mom's birthday.	Happiness enchanting	1. powerfully pleasing, appealing, or delightful : charming	It was enchanting, like nothing I had ever seen.	Happiness endearing	1. arousing feelings of affection or admiration	He had kicked off his tennis shoes but still had on his white tube socks, and she found this oddly endearing.	Happiness energized	1. to make energetic, vigorous, or active		Happiness engaging	1. tending to draw favorable attention or interest : attractive	Lawrences precocious talent for experimentation and his engaging character were already attracting attention from recruiters in academia and industry.	Happiness enjoyable	1. to have a good time	Instead, he was a problem to be dealt with, and an interesting problem at that, and people like Joe were why Kyril Montana found his work enjoyable.	Happiness entertaining	1. providing entertainment : diverting	Not long ago Mrs. van D. was entertaining us with some bit of nonsense or another.	Happiness euphoria	1. a feeling of well-being or elation	But the euphoria proved to be short lived.	Happiness euphoric	1. marked by a feeling of great happiness and excitement : characterized by, based on, or producing euphoria	Listening to the magnified sound of my own breath is peaceful and strangely euphoric.	Happiness excited	1. having, showing, or characterized by a heightened state of energy, enthusiasm, eagerness, etc. : feeling or showing excitement	When he talks, he speaks about power and peace, and he gets the church all excited.	Happiness exhilarated	1. very happy and excited or elated	Strange to say, if you do not stamp yourself with the words exhilarated or terrified, those two things feel exactly the same in a body.	Happiness exuberance	1. the quality or state of being exuberant	His exuberance almost matched the moment when he had hatched the cyclotron idea itself.	Happiness exultant	1. filled with or expressing great joy or triumph : jubilant	"Why, of course!" cried Biddy, with an exultant face.	Happiness exultation	1. the act of exulting : the state of being exultant	In himself there was this new exultation which he was ashamed to make articulate even to his own heart, "This woman of mine likes me well enough!"	Happiness favorable	1. disposed to favor : partial	Now, the moment Nishina walked into Kawabe's office, the general demanded, "Could you build an atom bomb in six months? In favorable circumstances we might be able to hold out that long."	Happiness fine	1. all right	"No secrets in our house, Zuri. You like him, fine. As long as he likes you too, and most important, he respects you."	Happiness friendly	1. of, relating to, or befitting a friend: such as	He smiled at me, his manner easy, friendly.	Happiness fulfilled	1. feeling happiness and satisfaction : feeling that one's abilities and talents are being fully used	My promise fulfilled, the monster would depart for ever.	Happiness fun	1. what provides amusement or enjoyment; specifically : playful often boisterous action or speech	Although everybody, including me, made fun of him, I was pretty certain he was some sort of a genius.	Happiness funny	1. affording light mirth and laughter : amusing	"Of course I am! Shawn is so, so, so"â€funny."	Happiness genial	1. marked by or freely expressing sympathy or friendliness	His blue eyes were genial and closely set, with one magnified by a golden monocle.	Happiness get a kick out of	1. a blow or sudden forceful thrust with the foot; specifically : a sudden propelling of a ball with the foot	He talked out of the side of his mouth, which made it seem like he was half smiling.	Happiness glad	1. experiencing pleasure, joy, or delight : made happy	"I'm glad you're not invisible, Ally. Because this class wouldn't be the same without you."	Happiness gladden	1. to be glad	"In Westeros you will be the lost child who returns to gladden her father's heart. Your people will cheer when you ride by, and all good men will love you."	Happiness glee	1. exultant high-spirited joy : merriment	He joined the glee club and relished the opportunity it gave him to sing and perform in plays and make music.	Happiness glorious	1. possessing or deserving glory : illustrious	The mud dried and the spring flowers came out: yellow coltsfoot, and white wood anemones in profusion"â€and the wall being built around Asgard was a glorious, imposing thing.	Happiness glory	1. praise, honor, or distinction extended by common consent : renown	I wanted to jump out of the truck and run, run down the hills dipping into sandy valleys in front of familiar houses bordered with passion fruit and morning glory.	Happiness glory in	1. to feel or show great joy or pleasure because of (something)	In 1992, citizen activism led to an investigation, which revealed that eight out of every ten people of color in the entire city were on the list of criminal suspects.	Happiness good	1. of a favorable character or tendency	In a memo, Agent Burger noted of his prized informant, "If he is not bumped off too soon he can do us a lot of good."	Happiness good humored	1. good-natured, cheerful	Usually, plays on his name were much less good-humored.	Happiness good natured	1. of a pleasant and cooperative disposition	Their faces were as a rule good-natured rather than beautiful, broad, bright-eyed, red-cheeked, with mouths apt to laughter, and to eating and drinking.	Happiness grateful	1. appreciative of benefits received	She is almost grateful when Gina arrives and pounds on the door.	Happiness gratified	1. to be a source of or give pleasure or satisfaction to	He looked gratified and held it out to me.	Happiness gratify	1. to be a source of or give pleasure or satisfaction to	"Yes!" said I. And although my sister instantly boxed my ears, it was highly gratifying to me to see that the answer spoilt his joke, and brought him to a dead stop.	Happiness gratifying	1. giving pleasure or satisfaction : pleasing	"Yes!" said I. And although my sister instantly boxed my ears, it was highly gratifying to me to see that the answer spoilt his joke, and brought him to a dead stop.	Happiness great	1. notably large in size : huge	The boat's draw was greater than I would wish, and with but three of us, the water lapped high on the gunwales, threatening to spill over.	Happiness grinning	1. to draw back the lips so as to show the teeth especially in amusement or laughter; broadly : smile	When Milton got to the end of the song, he lowered his instrument and leaned out the window, grinning.	Happiness happiness	1. a state of well-being and contentment : joy	Then, oh happiness, she saw her mother give Spoon Man ten pennies for that purple glass bracelet, which Mama then quickly tucked into her apron pocket.	Happiness happy	1. favored by luck or fortune : fortunate	Fathers were often too tired for much happy interaction with their families.	Happiness happy as a clam	1. very happy	Negative inotropic agents include hypoxia, acidosis, hyperkalemia, and a variety of synthetic drugs.	Happiness heartening	1. to give heart to : cheer	"EœAnd he had the use of his wits, and of his legs too. That is heartening. We do not pursue in vain."	Happiness heartwarming	1. inspiring sympathetic feeling : cheering	But mostly it was a heartwarmingly plain, sincere machine, promising good fun and few breakdowns; the sort of car that, especially in soft yellow, looked like nothing so much as a bar of soap.	Happiness heavenly	1. of or relating to heaven or the heavens : celestial	"You're positive about a movie theater in the afterlife but not if you'll have your glasses? Seems like an oversight in your heavenly blueprint."	Happiness high	1. rising or extending upward a great distance : taller than average, usual, or expected	Flying so high that not even the clouds could keep up.	Happiness high spirits	1. very happy and excited	Tidbit chased the dog merrily, his high spirits returned, and they all seemed to relax as they made their way slowly through the cool, dark night.	Happiness hilarious	1. marked by or causing hilarity : extremely funny	Their banter might be hilarious were it not so confounding and, often, scary.	Happiness hopeful	1. having qualities which inspire hope	I nodded, but I had no reason to feel hopeful.	Happiness in seventh heaven	1. very happy	Hornet was in seventh heaven as she listened to these lies.	Happiness invigorated	1. to give life and energy to : animate; also : stimulate	She puts down the phone, invigorated by the sound of her brother's voice.	Happiness jocular	1. said or done as a joke : characterized by jesting : playful	Caesar said, only half jocularly, "In a respectful way, I hope."	Happiness joie de vivre	1. keen or buoyant enjoyment of life	Solid, monumental like his grandfathers, but with a joie de vivre and an irresistible good humor that they did not have, Aureliano Segundo scarcely had time to look after his animals.	Happiness jollity	1. the quality or state of being jolly : merriment	Oh, along at first I missed being a night owl"â€the tunes, the jollity.	Happiness joy	1. the emotion evoked by well-being, success, or good fortune or by the prospect of possessing what one desires : delight	With some there was great joy at the sight of Frank Churchill; others took it very composedly; but there was a very general distress and disturbance on Miss Fairfax's disappearance being explained.	Happiness joyfulness	1. experiencing, causing, or showing joy : happy	When the crowd exploded in applause, clapping and whistling, the man could not clap, because he was holding his sons legs, and so he just smiled and smiled, his face suddenly young with joyfulness.	Happiness joyous	1. joyful	But I could still hear him as I walked away, the hard twang of his answer, almost joyous, When and where, Harry, when and where.	Happiness jubilation	1. an act of rejoicing : the state of being jubilant	The priest's vestments shone with the white and gold jubilation of the church celebrating the birth of its redeemer.	Happiness lighthearted	1. free from care, anxiety, or seriousness : happy-go-lucky	Moniek could actually make him feel lighthearted, and it was helping him.	Happiness likable	1. having qualities that bring about a favorable regard : pleasant, agreeable	He would be likable, cooperative, and as good a worker as he could be.	Happiness lovable	1. having qualities that attract affection	He was a wonderful student, a great kid, lovable, personable, a good athlete.	Happiness lovely	1. delightful for beauty, harmony, or grace : attractive	"Yes, of course. You have that lovely pink nightgown with the bow on the bosom."	Happiness lucky	1. having good luck	I think about what's going on down the road and I think about how lucky I am, how I got everything that I wanted.	Happiness merriment	1. lighthearted gaiety or fun-making : hilarity	The little cousins, come forward to join the laughter, eager to be a part of the adult merriment.	Happiness merry	1. full of gaiety or high spirits : mirthful	In just a little while the merry sound of the bells was gone, and Christmas was over.	Happiness mirth	1. gladness or gaiety as shown by or accompanied with laughter	Jane and Michael, though they did not want to miss the crumpets and the cakes, couldn't help laughing too, because Mr. Wigg's mirth was so infectious.	Happiness mirthful	1. gladness or gaiety as shown by or accompanied with laughter	Barack said to me one day as we sat at breakfast, his eyes mirthful.	Happiness nice	1. polite, kind	Even though the weather has turned pretty chilly, I made sure Mom put a really nice outfit on me"â€cute jeans and no sweats.	Happiness obliging	1. willing to do favors : helpful	I tried the number again while the obliging proprietor dug up his two coldest ones from the bottom of the deep freeze.	Happiness on cloud nine	1. very happy	"I passed those out to the kids at the end of the day, and they were on cloud nine," Rooney said.	Happiness on top of the world	1. the highest point, level, or part of something : summit, crown	The end of the world started when a pegasus landed on the hood of my car.	Happiness open	1. having no enclosing or confining barrier : accessible on all or nearly all sides	He opened the closet, and there was a library card catalogue inside.	Happiness opportune	1. suitable or convenient for a particular occurrence	She did not wait for an opportune moment as she had the first time.	Happiness optimistic	1. of, relating to, or characterized by optimism : feeling or showing hope for the future	Americans, constitutionally optimistic, are disinclined to see themselves as stuck.	Happiness over the moon	1. the earth's natural satellite that shines by the sun's reflected light, revolves about the earth from west to east in about 291/2 days with reference to the sun or about 271/3 days with reference to the stars, and has a diameter of 2160 miles (3475 kilometers), a mean distance from the earth of about 238,900 miles (384,400 kilometers), and a mass about one eightieth that of the earth â€usually used with the	The truth had been too overwhelming to bear.	Happiness overjoyed	1. feeling great joy	She was overjoyed, but she was also confused.	Happiness paradise	1. eden	How come you couldn't stick with your original idea of paradise?	Happiness perkiness	1. briskly self-assured : cocky	We had nearly completed the first part of our adventure, so there was a certain home-stretch perkiness in our steps.	Happiness perky	1. briskly self-assured : cocky	Diego was talking to a short girl, perky with pink glasses and a blue stripe in her blond hair.	Happiness pleasant	1. having qualities that tend to give pleasure : agreeable	He was in luck this time, for there could not have been pleasanter people or a more welcoming house for miles around.	Happiness pleased	1. to afford or give pleasure or satisfaction	Rowan and Citra were pleased to see that his opinion carried a great deal of weight.	Happiness pleasure	1. desire, inclination	His voice made it clear it was anything but a pleasure.	Happiness precious	1. of great value or high price	To save precious time, they decided that instead of dragging the heavy canoes over land, they would let them run down the river empty.	Happiness radiant	1. radiating rays or reflecting beams of light	Even the still ones, who slumbered soulfully, who curled up neatly, even they disturbed her; she could feel their radiant presence, against which she had to stand guard.	Happiness rapture	1. an expression or manifestation of ecstasy or passion	For a moment, Mary Lou was forgotten as the girls fell into raptures about the simple pleasure of a real shower.	Happiness rapturous	1. an expression or manifestation of ecstasy or passion	The two plain ones were smiling, but the beautiful one was rapturous.	Happiness relaxed	1. freed from or lacking in precision or stringency	After a long time she relaxed and her wonder at the miraculous airship changed to curiosity.	Happiness relish	1. characteristic flavor; especially : pleasing or zestful flavor	Twenty minutes later, when I yield, she doesn't bother to relish the victory.	Happiness revel in	1. to enjoy (something) very much	It wasn't so different from what any mother would do, confronted with a shocking revelation about her teenage daughter.	Happiness satisfied	1. pleased or content with what has been experienced or received	Miig sat, satisfied that we were all at attention, that we were listening with every cell.	Happiness savor	1. the taste or smell of something	But despite knowing for many years that this day would eventually come, and having done everything within her power to bring it about, the victory she savored as the memo circulated was tempered with disappointment.	Happiness seventh heaven	1. a state of extreme joy	I'm aware that Rosa is in seventh heaven; that random strangers are talking to her and treating her like a friend.	Happiness simpatico	1. agreeable, likable	She smiled suddenly at him, a smile that invited sympathy.	Happiness smiling	1. to have, produce, or exhibit a smile	It was a lovely sight to see him smiling as he was led away by the police.	Happiness sparkle	1. to throw out sparks	Around me the moonlight glittered on the pebbles of the llano, and in the night sky a million stars sparkled.	Happiness stimulated	1. to excite to activity or growth or to greater activity : animate, arouse	These tales stimulated my childish imagination, and usually contained some moral lesson.	Happiness sunniness	1. marked by brilliant sunlight : full of sunshine	She loved him, and the spirited easy life he gave her, and yet she often fought the urge to create rough edges, to squash his sunniness, even if just a little.	Happiness sunny	1. marked by brilliant sunlight : full of sunshine	People all around us were fleeing to America: we heard tales of oranges the size of baking potatoes; fields of grain waving under sunny skies; clean, dry timber houses with indoor plumbing and electricity.	Happiness sweet	1. being, inducing, or marked by the one of the five basic taste sensations that is usually pleasing to the taste and typically induced by sugars (as sucrose or glucose)	It was so small she could almost hide it in her palm, and overripe too, but when she took the first bite, the flesh was so sweet she almost cried.	Happiness take pleasure in	1. to enjoy	The funeral, such as it was, took place on the third day of the New Year.	Happiness thrill	1. to cause (someone) to experience a strong feeling of enjoyable excitement	Reading the letters, I was alternately thrilled that so many people had bothered to write and sunk low by such overwhelming evidence of Britain's stupidity and indifference.	Happiness thrilled	1. extremely pleased and excited	I didn't know whether to be thrilled or terrified.	Happiness tickled pink	1. very happy or amused	When I told Bertha I was going to his house the next day, she was tickled pink.	Happiness touching	1. capable of arousing emotions of tenderness or compassion	The agent jumped easily from person to person, apparently through touching and sexual contact.	Happiness treat	1. to deal with in speech or writing : expound	Even Hopkins, which did treat black patients, segregated them in colored wards, and had colored-only fountains.	Happiness triumph	1. a victory or conquest by or as if by military force	When he saw Kingshaw's body, upside down in the water, Hooper thought suddenly, it was because of me, I did that, it was because of me, and a spurt of triumph went through him.	Happiness untroubled	1. not given trouble : not made uneasy	At noon they came to a village untroubled by Specters.	Happiness upbeat	1. an unaccented beat or portion of a beat in a musical measure; specifically : the last beat of the measure	Suddenly he falls into a Capitol accent as he mimics Effie Trinket, the maniacally upbeat woman who arrives once a year to read out the names at the leaping.	Happiness uplifting	1. to lift up : elevate; especially : to cause (a portion of the earth's surface) to rise above adjacent areas	Counterpoint, to Bach, was the ultimate set of laws in music; obeying these laws was for him something beautiful, uplifting and reassuring.	Happiness vitalized	1. to endow with vitality : animate	The Financial Times's Jackie Wullschlager countered, "Although neither definitive nor offering new insights, this show is a very good recapitulation of how Picasso as a god of forms vitalized portraiture after photography."	Happiness vivacity	1. the quality or state of being vivacious	Not that Trabb's boy was of a malignant nature, but that he had too much spare vivacity, and that it was in his constitution to want variety and excitement at anybody's expense.	Happiness walking on air	1. feeling very happy	It was still perfect timing, though, because I felt like I was walking on air and he was the only person I could really talk to about it.	Happiness welcoming	1. to greet hospitably and with courtesy or cordiality	They are not overly intimidating, but they are definitely not welcoming.	Happiness willing	1. inclined or favorably disposed in mind : ready	"You've done your homework and I don't doubt you will take great care of her, but I do need to make sure your family is also willing to have her be part of your household."	Happiness wondrous	1. that is to be marveled at : extraordinary	Her heart thrilled to see these wondrous oxen of the north.	Happiness zest for life	1. a feeling of enjoyment and enthusiasm for life	The tenure of the nkele may be best compared to an estate for life.	Happiness heavy lifting	difficult work that needs a lot of effort	I don't know where they moved the couches, but I do know they did a lot of heavy lifting to set this up for me, and that I should be more appreciative than I am.	Hard Word And Effort ask	something you think is going to be very difficult to achieve or succeed in	Ifemelu said she wanted a medium kinky twist and asked how much it was.	Hard Word And Effort work	activity that involves physical or mental effort	The work was tedious and difficult; it was not strenuous enough to keep us warm but it was demanding enough to make all our muscles ache.	Hard Word And Effort care	effort and attention	Sitting on the bench in the middle of the last regular season game against San Angelo, he had said he could care less if he played anymore.	Hard Word And Effort challenge	something that needs a lot of skill, energy, and determination to deal with or achieve, especially something you have never done before and will enjoy doing		Hard Word And Effort war	a determined and organized effort to control or stop something, for example a disease or crime	Even before the war, his father's kindness was well known throughout the county.	Hard Word And Effort effort	physical or mental energy needed to do something	Tehlu bent and with great effort lifted one edge of the wheel and set it leaning against a tree that grew nearby.	Hard Word And Effort labour	work, especially hard physical work	The Fall had partly disrupted this perfect arrangement, forcing human beings to labour to survive; but the original architecture of the universe was still visible for all to see.	Hard Word And Effort undertaking	something difficult or complicated that you do	Intoxicated by the evidence of the miracle, he forgot at that moment about the frustration of his delirious undertakings and Melquãfâ-ades' body, abandoned to the appetite of the squids.	Hard Word And Effort pursuit	the process of trying to achieve something	How I lied about the mission, how I jeopardized everyone in pursuit of revenge.	Hard Word And Effort a long pull	a lot of effort to achieve something over a long period of time		Hard Word And Effort application	hard work and determination that you put into something for a long period	The application of Orff and Dalcroze activities in preschool children: Do they affect the level of rhythmic ability?	Hard Word And Effort blitz	a special effort to finish a job or to deal with a problem quickly and thoroughly	The intestine was blitzed, completely full of uncoagulated, runny blood, and at the same time the monkey had had massive blood clotting in the intestinal muscles.	Hard Word And Effort blood, sweat, and tears	a lot of effort and hard work		Hard Word And Effort crusade	an effort over a long time to achieve something that you strongly believe is morally right	They are the martyred heroines of a holy crusade for freedom and human dignity.	Hard Word And Effort dedication	the large amount of time and effort that someone spends on something	I finished an article about a Torah dedication and began another about a play at the Maxwell Street theater.	Hard Word And Effort devotion	the process of spending a lot of time or energy on an activity	"Lancel loved me. He was half a boy, but I never doubted his devotion to me or my son."	Hard Word And Effort diligence	the attitude or behaviour of someone who works very hard and very carefully	So I labored with diligence at my music, in which a court lady must be accomplished.	Hard Word And Effort drive	a big effort to achieve something, especially by a company or government		Hard Word And Effort effort	the activities of people who are working together to achieve a particular aim	His conservation efforts also saved the buffalo from extinction.	Hard Word And Effort exertion	great physical or mental effort	Sleep she did: Kate was so tired from her night's exertions that she slept through the wake-up announcement and was late getting ready for breakfast.	Hard Word And Effort forced labour	hard physical work that someone is forced to do		Hard Word And Effort graft	effort needed for doing hard work	I explained that I had gotten it when I was three, and that I'd been in the hospital for six weeks getting skin grafts, and that was why I never wore a bikini.	Hard Word And Effort grind	something that is hard work, boring, and tiring because it takes a lot of your time and energy	"It's how they digest their food. The rocks grind up the food in their guts."	Hard Word And Effort industry	hard work and effort	It is also an era dominated by industry, in which the right to make a dollar at whatever cost is seldom challenged.	Hard Word And Effort labor	the American spelling of labour	Loyalists forced immigrants to join the labor squads, maintaining control with the occasional massacre.	Hard Word And Effort long haul	a long period of hard work	Only the most shortsighted, however, failed to recognize that electronic computers were around for the long haul.	Hard Word And Effort marathon	an activity that takes a long time to complete and needs a lot of energy and determination	Kirk eventually earned an MBA from Auburn University, became a seasoned chess player, a vegetarian, and a marathon runner.	Hard Word And Effort overwork	more work than is good for someone	It had a pitch, a note they heard only when they visited stubborn old folks who would not budge from their front yards and overworked fields to come to the City.	Hard Word And Effort paper chase	an attempt to do something that involves reading and writing a lot of documents, and that takes a long time	Yet an old-fashioned paper chase remains far more telegenic, as TLC's "Who Do You Think You Are?" demonstrates once again when it returns for a new season on Sunday.	Hard Word And Effort slave labour	hard work that is done by people who are forced to work for no money or for very little money		Hard Word And Effort slog	something that is difficult or boring and seems to take a long time	There was nothing for it but to carry on with my chores, pulling my overcoat even tighter about me as I slogged to the barn.	Hard Word And Effort spadework	preparation and hard work that has to be done at the beginning of a project	Dwarf feet are designed for spadework, not for the delicate intricacies of ballet dancing or balancing on wooden steps.	Hard Word And Effort strain	physical effort or pressure	Then, suddenly, when she'd almost stopped straining her eyes with looking at it, the door opened, and people began to come off the motor lounge into the airport.	Hard Word And Effort sweat	hard work	How they toiled and sweated to get the hay in!	Hard Word And Effort sweated labour	hard work that people are paid very little for, or the people who do this type of work		Hard Word And Effort toil	difficult and tiring work, especially physical work	He believed a man should work hard with his hands, that toil and sweat were evidence of a virtuous life.	Hard Word And Effort

yakka	work		Hard Word And Effort your level best	if you do your level best, you try to do something as well as you can		Hard Word And Effort zeal	great energy, effort, and enthusiasm	In my mind's eye, I pictured her aiming her incredible zeal and energy exclusively at the Electrons.	Hard Word And Effort balaclava	1. a knit cap for the head and neck "called also balaclava helmet	There's a man in a balaclava sitting at the table, eating a meat pie with sauce.	Hat Vocab Balmoral	1. a laced boot or shoe	Back to the present, and Andrew and Fergie have until recently been holed up with the Queen at Balmoral.	Hat Vocab baseball cap	1. a cap of the kind worn by baseball players that has a rounded crown and a long visor	An older man and a younger man, both wearing green vests and baseball caps, stood behind the counter, chitchatting.	Hat Vocab beanie	1. a small round tight-fitting skullcap	He's about eighteen, and he's got on baggy blue jeans and a snowboard sweater and a beanie, and I'm watching him.	Hat Vocab beret	1. a visorless usually woolen cap with a tight headband and a soft full flat top	For all I knew, he was one of those in the black berets and Afros who'd come knocking on Cecile's door last night.	Hat Vocab bicorne	1. cocked hat	Napoleon's famous bicorne hat was sold at auction in 2014 to a South Korean bidder for 1.9 million euros, nearly five times the asking price.	Hat Vocab biretta	1. a square cap with three ridges on top worn by clergymen especially of the Roman Catholic Church	The climactic Act I Te Deum comes complete with choirboys and birettas, maniples and chasubles.	Hat Vocab boater	1. one who travels in a boat	"We could put up signs and warn boaters that they are killing sea lions."	Hat Vocab bonnet	1. a man's or boy's cap	"Oh, did she?" and Mr. Dashwood gave Jo a quick look, which seemed to take note of everything she had on, from the bow in her bonnet to the buttons on her boots.	Hat Vocab bowler	1. a person who bowls; specifically : the player who delivers the ball to the batsman in cricket	He tipped his bowler and sprang away, jumping from table to table.	Hat Vocab cap	1. a head covering especially with a visor and no brim	Sandy removed a paper from the inside of his cap and placed it on the desk.	Hat Vocab chapeau	1. hat	James Bond would know in advance to be on the lookout for Odd Job's deadly chapeau because Q would have seen one of these hats for sale, dirt cheap on eBay.	Hat Vocab cloche	1. a bell- or dome-shaped cover:	A black feather boa was wrapped around her shoulders, and on her head was a cloche hat that dangled onyx pendants over her plucked eyebrows.	Hat Vocab cowboy hat	1. a wide-brimmed hat with a large soft crown "called also ten-gallon hat	On its back, a grim-looking mustached man in a cowboy hat brandished an old-fashioned blunderbuss, its wide metal mouth extending back over a wooden handle.	Hat Vocab

crown	1. a reward of victory or mark of honor; especially : the title representing the championship in a sport	She had to don her crown again and return to her ebon bench and the arms of her noble husband.	Hat Vocab deerstalker	1. a close-fitting hat with a visor at the front and the back and with earflaps that may be worn up or down "called also deerstalker cap, deerstalker hat	If he was a Hasid, he had exchanged his fur shtreimel for a deerstalker cap and traded in his somber frock coat for a green Norfolk jacket.	Hat Vocab derby	1. any of several horse races held annually and usually restricted to three-year-olds	"Yes, just look at him!" an old fellow in a derby called out as though answering a preacher in church.	Hat Vocab dunce cap	1. a conical cap formerly used as a punishment for slow learners at school "called also dunce's cap	Instead, Fake Leo put the top of the dunce cap to his mouth like a megaphone and yelled, "CUT!"	Hat Vocab fedora	1. a low soft felt hat with the crown creased lengthwise	On the balcony Goebbels, dressed in a light-colored trench coat and a fedora, applauded theatrically, almost clownishly, as each German boat crossed the line.	Hat Vocab fez	1. a brimless cylindrical or somewhat cone-shaped hat with a flat top that usually has a tassel, is typically made of red felt, and is worn especially by men in eastern Mediterranean countries	Crescents, stars, moons and suns were in goldthread embroidery on the small fez that Elijah Muhammad wore.	Hat Vocab glengarry	1. a woolen cap of Scottish origin "called also glengarry bonnet	As in the recent revival of Glengarry Glen Ross with Al Pacino, the actors all seem to be inhabiting different plays, to say nothing of different regions.	Hat Vocab hard hat	1. a protective hat made of rigid material (such as metal or fiberglass) and worn especially by construction workers	The light from his hard hat lit up an astonishing scene.	Hat Vocab hat	1. a covering for the head usually having a shaped crown and brim	She sits next to me on the bed, takes the hat, and sets it down.	Hat Vocab headdress	1. an often elaborate covering for the head	Tall men with lean faces sat before the largest tent, wearing black cloaks and headdresses, stitching tarps together with huge needles.	Hat Vocab helmet	1. a covering or enclosing headpiece of ancient or medieval armor	By necessity, and because it was SOP, they all carried steel helmets that weighed 5 pounds including the liner and camouflage cover.	Hat Vocab homburg	1. a felt hat with a stiff curled brim and a high crown creased lengthwise	A man wearing a silk suit and a homburg came out of the shadow of an adjoining doorway for a moment to see whether the girls had gone.	Hat Vocab miter	1. a surface forming a beveled end or edge where a joint is made by cutting two pieces of material (such as wood) at an angle and fitting them together "often used before another noun	"For the miter saw. I brought a generator, too, so we can get power to these tools. Given any thought yet to electricity for your house?"	Hat Vocab mortarboard	1. an academic cap consisting of a closely fitting headpiece with a broad flat projecting square top	At eighteen, Belky wears a blue gown and mortarboard for her high school graduation.	Hat Vocab nightcap	1. a cloth cap worn with nightclothes	As she opened the door, I caught glimpse of the master pacing frantically, his nightcap still on his head.	Hat Vocab Panama hat	1. a light hat with a broad brim that is made from straw	Her husband emerges from the light and comes toward her, taller than the palms, walking on water in his white summer suit and Panama hat.	Hat Vocab pith helmet	1. topee	She was tall, dressed in white, wearing a pith helmet with veils that floated across her face, settled around her shoulders, and trailed down her back.	Hat Vocab pork pie	1. a hat with a low telescoped crown, flat top, and flexible brim	"I saw him eat a pork pie," Toad said, smirking.	Hat Vocab skull cap	1. a close-fitting cap; especially : a light brimless cap for indoor wear	I took the skullcap and put it on.	Hat Vocab snood	1. a fillet or band for a woman's hair	They looked very well in their simple suits, Meg's in silvery drab, with a blue velvet snood, lace frills, and the pearl pin.	Hat Vocab sombrero	1. an often high-crowned hat of felt or straw with a very wide brim worn especially in the Southwest and Mexico	I fetched a straw sombrero Grandma had given us in Arizona.	Hat Vocab straw hat	1. of, relating to, or being summer theater	Captain Smith finds me and hands me a straw hat and a hatchet and tells me to get to work.	Hat Vocab sun bonnet	1. a woman's bonnet with a wide brim framing the face and usually having a ruffle at the back to protect the neck from the sun	When their curls were done, Ma tied their sunbonnets under their chins.	Hat Vocab sun hat	1. a hat that is worn to protect the head and neck from the sun	She then collected her tennis things"â€racket, hand towel, and sun hat"â€and followed Selena.	Hat Vocab tam	1. tam-o'-shanter	Her tam did, in fact, from Zoey's vantage point, appear not unlike a dab of paint.	Hat Vocab tam o'shanter	1. the hero of Burns's poem Tam o' Shanter	Several pretty candle-shades, two doll tam-o'-shanter caps, and three calendars in water-colours were laid aside finished, as the result of that afternoon's work.	Hat Vocab ten-gallon hat	1. cowboy hat	He wore a white ten-gallon hat and black cowboy boots decorated with swastikas and stars.	Hat Vocab tiara	1. a 3-tiered crown worn by the pope	There I picked daisies and wove the flowers into a garland to replace Lucinda's tiara.	Hat Vocab top hat	1. a tall-crowned hat usually of beaver or silk	He grins as he lowers the bull hook, and removes his top hat.	Hat Vocab

toque	1. a woman's small hat without a brim made in any of various soft close-fitting shapes	A very small expensive black toque was hideously unbecoming to the yellow, toad-like face beneath it.	Hat Vocab tricorne	1. cocked hat	Figures in tricornered hats walked through the streets, gathering by carriages with curtains closed, and the smell of the docks hung over the squares.	Hat Vocab turban	1. a headdress worn chiefly in countries of the eastern Mediterranean and southern Asia consisting of a long cloth that is wrapped around a cap (as by Muslims) or directly around the head (as by Sikhs and Hindus)	It included an embroidered robe and a tall white turban topped with peacock feathers.	Hat Vocab visor	1. the front piece of a helmet; especially : a movable upper piece	On Sundays she sometimes wore the visor to church, mistaking it for a hat.	Hat Vocab watch cap	1. a knitted close-fitting usually navy-blue cap worn especially by enlisted men in the U.S. navy in cold or stormy weather	Butler strolled over to the men, his eyes shadowed beneath the brim of a watch cap.	Hat Vocab yarmulke	1. a skullcap worn especially by Orthodox and Conservative Jewish males in the synagogue and the home	A Hasidic Jewish guy, complete with the white pants, yarmulke, tassels hanging off him, braided hair, and sandals, dashes down the hall toward me.	Hat Vocab zucchetto	1. a small round skullcap worn by Roman Catholic ecclesiastics in colors that vary according to the rank of the wearer	They were merely tinkering in a technological society.	Hat Vocab balacava	a warm hat that covers your head, neck, and usually all of your face except your eyes	"All right, Harry?" he said, pulling up the balacava so he could speak.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head bandanna	a piece of coloured cloth worn around your head or neck	Sheryl saunters out in a bandanna, oversized goggles, a face mask, and yellow dishwashing gloves.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head baseball cap	a hat that fits close to your head, with a flat curved part that sticks out over your eyes	She gave George a baseball cap and sunglasses to wear and took pictures until George couldn't take it anymore and begged her to stop.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head beanie	a small round hat that fits tightly to your head	"When you do the thing" "You know, the mitzvah," I ask, "are they going to make you wear that little beanie hat?"	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head bearskin	a tall black fur hat that some British soldiers wear as part of their uniform for special ceremonies	At our head marched our fine grenadiers in their brave red coats, their bearskin shakoes.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head beret	a round flat soft hat that fits tightly round the top of the head	The two young Guardians salute us, raising three fingers to the rims of their berets.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head biretta	a stiff square hat worn by a Roman Catholic priest	The climactic Act I Te Deum comes complete with choirboys and birettas, maniples and chasubles.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head boater	a circular hat with a low flat top and a wide brim, usually made of straw (=dried stems of wheat) for wearing in sunny weather	"The rough seas warning is being extended another forty-eight hours. You know, the warning that kept all the boaters off the water last night. At least the ones with any brains."	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head bobble hat	a hat with a bobble on the top		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head bonnet	a hat that ties under your chin	She stood long enough to tie her bonnet properly and catch her breath before asking another.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head bowler	a bowler hat	His expression brightens, and he dons his hat once more, settling the bowler into place.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head bowler hat	a hard round black hat, worn especially by businessmen in the past	"Be off with you, you silly things," said Tristran, his face burning, and, having nothing else to hand, he threw his bowler hat at them.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head busby	a bearskin hat	Every time she ate the head off one soldier, another grew up in its place, with a green military coat and a yellow busby.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head cap	a soft hat with a stiff part called a peak that comes out over your eyes	When Johnny felt that she was comforted, he set her down and went into the shack where he had either an eye opener or a night cap.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head cap	a soft hat that people wear as part of a uniform		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head cap	a soft hat that you wear to protect or cover your hair		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head chunni	a long scarf that a woman wears around her head or shoulders		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head cloche	a hat shaped like a bell that fits tightly on the head	A black feather boa was wrapped around her shoulders, and on her head was a cloche hat that dangled onyx pendants over her plucked eyebrows.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head cloth cap	a man's flat cap made from cloth or wool with a hard curved front part. It is sometimes considered to be typical of working-class men.	Sitting on the large stone that marked this spot was a thin, white-haired man in a cloth cap, smoking his pipe.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head cocked hat	a hat with three sides and a brim (=bottom part) that is turned straight up, worn in the 18th century	One small painting, called "The Master and the Student," appears to be a pendant to "Juif Lisant": It shows the same bearded man in the same cocked hat standing at the same lectern.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head coronet	a small crown	Every single badge and sash and coronet was thrown off at once and trampled contemptuously underfoot, to be forgotten in a moment.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head cowboy hat	a high hat with a wide brim (=the flat part that surrounds a hat)	She tried on hats with plumes, straw hats, knit caps, even a cowboy hat from Miss Lilian's riding days.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head cowl	a part of a piece of clothing that covers the head and shoulders, worn especially by monks	I could catch a glimpse of a deep cowl like some priests wear, but underneath the shadows were so deep it was like looking down a well at midnight.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head crash helmet	a hard round hat that you wear to protect your head while driving a motorcycle or racing car	The plane returned at so low a level she could see the men in the cockpit, their coat collars pulled up around their necks, their crash helmets and goggles gleaming.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head crown	a circular decoration that a king or queen wears on their head as a symbol of power, often decorated with jewels	The Doge and the Senate, delighted, offered to give Galileo tenure in his post at the University of Pisa for life, with his salary doubled to 1000 crowns a year.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head crown	a decoration for your head shaped like a crown		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head deerstalker	a hat with pieces that cover your ears	In the original Sherlock Holmes stories Sherlock Holmes is never described as wearing a deerstalker hat, which is what he is always wearing in pictures and cartoons.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head derby	a bowler hat	He clapped on his derby hat and walked quickly to the railroad station.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head doek	a headscarf worn especially by African women		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head dupatta	a long scarf that a woman wears around her head or shoulders		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head earmuffs	a pair of round pieces of cloth or fur connected by a band that you wear over your ears to keep them warm	He was dressed in his heavy coat and boots and gloves and had his green earmuffs on.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head fascinator	a small, decorative item worn instead of a hat at special social occasions such as weddings		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head fedora	a hat with a wide brim and the top and sides pushed in	Instead of wearing sweatpants and sneakers like most coaches, one day Sam showed up in what looked like a pink zoot suit"â€pink slacks, pink shirt, pink fedora, and pink alligator shoes.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head fez	a small round red hat with a flat top and no brim that men wear in some Muslim countries	Crescents, stars, moons and suns were in goldthread embroidery on the small fez that Elijah Muhammad wore.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head flat cap	a cloth hat with a narrow brim at the front	No one noticed the moon-faced boy in the flat cap, or the honeybee that drifted from his mouth, tested the sooty air, then dove back from whence it came.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head garland	a ring of flowers, leaves etc that you wear around your head or neck or use for decorating something	The walls of the Hall had all been covered in sparkling silver frost, with hundreds of garlands of mistletoe and ivy crossing the starry black ceiling.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head hard hat	a hat that workers on building sites wear to protect their heads	I'd found a hard hat in the shop, but Dad took that, too.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head hat	a piece of clothing that you wear on your head	When the band played the final note of the song, I took off my Mar'fA-achi hat and, like Selena with her candy necklace, tossed it into the crowd.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head headband	a narrow piece of cloth that you wear around your head to keep hair or sweat (=liquid from your skin) out of your eyes	She was wearing her hair in a perfect flip with a pink headband.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head headdress	a decorated piece of clothing that someone wears on their head	Tall men with lean faces sat before the largest tent, wearing black cloaks and headdresses, stitching tarps together with huge needles.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head headphones	a piece of equipment that you wear over your ears to listen to something without other people hearing it	I nod, press the headphones into my ears, and look out the window.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head headpiece	something that you wear on your head for decoration or protection	The suits had clear visors in the headpiece through which the wearers could see, but the glare and distance made it impossible for Mark to make out their faces.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head headscarf	a piece of cloth worn as a head covering	His mother would peel it for him, its juicy insides the same color as her headscarf.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head helmet	a hard hat that you wear to protect your head	At the game, in the bleachers, probably wearing a homemade soccer ball helmet.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head homburg	a soft hat that has a stiff brim	Two men in suits climb out, carrying briefcases and scanning the scene from under homburgs.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head hood	the part of a coat or jacket that covers your head	Whenever she introduced her private thoughts into their rubbings or goings, they hooded their eyes.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head hood	a piece of cloth that can be pulled over a person's head and face		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head kerchief	a piece of cloth that you wear around your neck or head	Four husky sailors in blue jackets and bright kerchiefs had hurried forward to man the capstan bars.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head kipphah	a round cap worn by Jewish men		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head makarapa	a decorated miner's helmet, worn by South African supporters at sporting events, especially football		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head mitre	a tall hat worn by a bishop	She'd put out our best tumblers for drinks and folded up paper serviettes into them so that each one stood up over the glass rim like a mitre, our school emblem.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head mortarboard	a hat with a stiff square top, worn as a sign of academic achievement. Mortarboards were traditionally worn by teachers.	That summer of 1983, I graduated from high school at the age of twenty, by far the oldest senior tossing his mortarboard on the football field that day.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head panama	a type of hat made from straw, usually worn in hot weather	Her husband emerges from the light and comes toward her, taller than the palms, walking on water in his white summer suit and Panama hat.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head pillbox	a small round hat with a flat top	That had been weeks before, and now the pillbox was under way, no longer an idea in the backyard but a reality in the dining room.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head pith helmet	a large hard round hat worn in hot countries to keep the sun off your head, especially in the past		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head shawl	a large piece of material that is worn across the shoulders or on the head	Maria stands in the doorway in her robe, holding her shawl across her mouth, saying nothing in protest.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head shower cap	a plastic hat that you wear when you shower so that your hair does not get wet	I stretched the shower cap over my head and then pulled the hood of the suit down over the shower cap.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head skullcap	a small hat sometimes worn by Jewish men and Roman Catholic priests	For the fever we put ice on his face and chest; for the pain we gave him lobelia, blue vervain and skullcap.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head sombrero	a Mexican hat for men that is tall and has a very wide brim	Then he led us out to this other old Mexican dude wearing a sombrero, said something in Spanish, and they both nodded.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head sou'wester	a hat that protects your face and neck from the wind and rain	The men's unaccompanied voices offer up shanties that are salted with both sea and tears; when they rub their sou'westers, you can see the wind rising ominously.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head stetson	a tall hat with a wide brim, usually worn by people in the western part of the US	So it may be that by the mid-1940s, when Stetson Kennedy was trying to bust up the Klan, it didn't really need to use as much violence.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head straw boater	an old-fashioned hat made of straw with a flat top and a band around it		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head sun bonnet	a cotton hat for babies that protects the baby's head and face from the sun		Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head sun hat	a hat with a wide brim (=edge) that you wear to protect your head and face from the sun	In one, I was wearing my mom's big-brimmed straw sun hat so I would not get sunburned on the top of my head.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head sweatband	a piece of cloth that sports players wear around their wrists or head to stop sweat going onto their hands or into their eyes	Then I wipe the corners of my eyes with my sweatband.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head swimming cap	a thin rubber or plastic hat that keeps your hair dry when you swim	When the fleeing figures disappear, a hulking, muscular man wearing only red swimming trunks, a swimming cap and goggles steps onto the stage.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head tam-o'-shanter	a Scottish hat made of cloth. It has a flat top with a ball of wool called a pompom in the middle.	Several pretty candle-shades, two doll tam-o'-shanter caps, and three calendars in water-colours were laid aside finished, as the result of that afternoon's work.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head ten-gallon hat	a tall hat with a wide brim sometimes worn in the western US	He wore a white ten-gallon hat and black cowboy boots decorated with swastikas and stars.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head topee	another spelling of topi	He had on a white topee, and was accompanied by three or four men dressed like him in shorts.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head top hat	a tall hat shaped like a tube with a narrow brim, traditionally worn by men on formal occasions	Men are donning House of Bijoux top hats, indented with chambers to display pearls and rubies and sapphires.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head topi	a light hard hat with a brim that is worn in hot countries to protect you from the sun	He wore a topi, so I knew he was Muslim, but how did he know we were Hindu?	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head toque	a small round knitted hat that fits tightly on your head	Two baseball caps are stacked on top of the toque, and the fedora wobbles at the top as Ambrose laughs.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head trilby	a hat worn with the top part pressed down along the middle	Most of my companions wore hard bowler hats, and a few like me wore soft trilbys, but not one of us on that train in the year of 1934 went bareheaded.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head turban	a hat worn by women that is similar to this	His turban, he told them, had been given to him by an African prince as a thank-you for getting rid of a troublesome zombie, but they weren't sure they believed this story.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head veil	a thin piece of cloth worn over the head and often partly over the face	To drink it, the priestess had to remove her veil, and Selmy was reminded of just how old she was.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head visor	a curved piece of plastic or other material on a band that you wear on your head to protect your eyes from the sun	Then he left, smiled in the direction of the 'visor scanner, still playing away"â€waved to the reporters, and shouted, "We'll have something for you tomorrow, boys. No kidding."	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head wreath	a circle of flowers or leaves that someone wears on their head	He walked slowly, as part of a great procession, though only the puppy could be seen, slowly forward carrying the queen's wreath to the sacred grove.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head yarmulke	a small round hat worn by Jewish men	They were talking about the Armenian sector and the best music stations on the radio when a Jewish man in a yarmulke walking by the shop addressed Liyana loudly in Hebrew.	Hats And Other Things Worn On The Head opinionated	someone who is opinionated has very strong opinions that they refuse to change even when they are clearly unreasonable	Other people see him as an opinionated man"â€too opinionated, maybe"â€but he's also loving.	Having And Expressing Strong Opinions loud	expressing an opinion very often or very clearly	The Dursleys, who had listened to all of this with looks of utter incomprehension on their faces, jumped as a loud voice screeched, "Hurry up!"	Having And Expressing Strong Opinions single-minded	not allowing yourself to be influenced by other people	With Tom, she might have been able to linger at the door on some excuse and hear what Yoren was saying, but Desmond was too single-minded to trick.	Having And Expressing Strong Opinions vocal	someone who is vocal expresses their opinion frequently and strongly	"What he said. Not much high school cachet to be had in being a female who has, you know, vocal opinions about anything."	Having And Expressing Strong Opinions spirited	expressing opinions or intentions in a determined way	His father spirited Krishna away, not stopping until he arrived at a river swollen in flood.	Having And Expressing Strong Opinions rabid	expressing your opinions in a very strong way, or behaving in an unreasonable way in order to make a change	"Yes, Officer, yes. 68 Quiet Moon. Apartment 132. No, he's not attacking anyone. He's eating dog food. Dog chow, actually. Not the wet kind. Kids, stay away. He could be rabid."	Having And Expressing Strong Opinions didactic	behaving like a teacher, often in a way that is annoying	She sent this didactic gem to several markets, but it found no purchaser, and she was inclined to agree with Mr. Dashwood that morals didn't sell.	Having And Expressing Strong Opinions tub-thumping	loud and determined in the way that you express your opinions		Having And Expressing Strong Opinions violently	in a way that involves very strong and angry emotions or opinions	The branches of the willow began to sway violently.	Having And Expressing Strong Opinions gobby	tending to give your opinions in a loud and very direct way		Having And Expressing Strong Opinions violent	showing very strong and angry emotions or opinions	In the previous fifteen years, violent crime had risen 80 percent.	Having And Expressing Strong Opinions inexperienced	lacking experience	But here, finding themselves in an even more open place, they settled into a kind of static panic, like that which sometimes comes upon inexperienced climbers exposed on a sheer face.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education uneducated	not having had much education	I can tell he's trying to make me look uneducated and useless, though I don't really need his help.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education untrained	not trained to do a particular job	"And the only help my mother had was a succession of untrained maids, mostly girls from the country."	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education unqualified	not having the education or experience to do a particular job	But she finally accepted it as an unqualified fact because no one shared her doubts.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education illiterate	someone who is illiterate cannot read or write	It's down-to-earth, it's simple, it's untrue, and it's familiar enough and trivial enough to be understood and loved by our greedy, nervous, illiterate sponsors."	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education uninitiated	lacking knowledge or experience of something	But no job is as easy as it looks to the uninitiated.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education unskilled	working at a job that does not need much education, training, or experience	The first thing I discovered is that no job, no matter how lowly, is truly "unskilled."	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education untried	with no experience of a particular kind of work and therefore possibly not very good	She saw mourning doves peck at carrion on her doorstep and visited the botanicas for untried potions.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education be unused to (doing) something	to not have much experience of something and not be sure about how to react or behave		Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education scholar	if someone is not a scholar or is no scholar, they have not studied much in their lives	For these reasons, some scholars dismiss the chronicles entirely.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education armchair	interested in a subject or activity, but lacking any practical experience of it	Paul Marshall sat back in the armchair, watching her closely over the steeple he made with his hands in front of his face.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education callow	young and not experienced in life	"And I'm sick of being thought a callow boy wherever I go, because I'm forced to shave my beard."	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education dewy-eyed	lacking in experience about life	We were a smitten, dewy-eyed couple who planned to spend our lives together.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education fledgling	without much experience of a job or situation because you are new to it	On the day a committee of men decided to murder the fledgling Congo, what do you suppose Mama Mwanza was doing?	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education (flying) by the seat of your pants	using only your judgment and skill, when you are doing something new and you cannot use your previous experience		Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education green	not experienced, especially because of being young	She is in an earlier phase, or a later one: the soft green tweeds and tailored blouses of her good- taste background, which now appear matronly on her, because she has put on weight.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education greenness	lack of experience	If real, why is it that I can recall in all that island of greenness no fountain but one that was broken, corroded and dry?	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education impressionable	someone who is impressionable is easily impressed and influenced by other people, usually because they are young and lack experience in life	Dread and distrust had already become a daily part of my being and my memory grew sharp, my senses more impressionable; I began to be aware of myself as a distinct personality striving against others.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education inexperience	lack of experience	He was clinging to his optimism despite neckwear inexperience and coffee stains.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education ingenuous	someone who is ingenuous believes everything that people tell them, especially because they have not had much experience of life	Even in the happiest times he'd made fun of my California accent, my secondhand overcoat and my room barren of tasteful bibelots, but in such an ingenuous way I couldn't possibly do anything but laugh.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education innocence	lack of experience of life and the bad things people do so that you tend to trust people too much	Senate Judiciary Committee scheduled hearings on innocence and the death penalty a few months after Walter's release, and we both testified.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education innocent	not very experienced concerning life and the bad things that people do so that you tend to trust people too much	These children"â€œunoffending, innocent, and beautiful"â€œwere the victims of one of the most vicious and tragic crimes ever perpetrated against humanity.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education jangli	another spelling of jungli	A man strode toward the cluster of students, keys jangling in his hand.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education jungli	not polite, well educated, or behaving correctly		Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education lay	not educated or trained to a high or professional standard in a particular subject	Emma was quite gay and responsive, but something about her hard, handsome face warned me to lay off.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education naive	a naive person lacks experience of life and tends to trust other people and believe things too easily	Call me naive, but I seem to have underestimated the universal desire to sit in a hard plastic chair and stare at a screen until your eyes cross.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education naive	typical of a naive person		Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education preliterate	a preliterate society does not have a written language	It is difficult to prove that preliterate people were motivated by faith rather than economic necessity.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education raw	not trained or experienced	"My mother's scrubbing clean sinks till her hands are raw. Penny watches you sleep and writes down what you eat. They drink a fuckload. They're getting drunk until the tears roll down their faces."	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education rough-and-ready	not polite or well educated	To be sure, he was a rough-and-ready man.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education rough-hewn	not polite or well educated		Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education sheltered	someone who has had a sheltered life has not had the usual unpleasant experiences that most people have in their lives	It was as if, when I sang, Dad forgot for a moment that the world was a frightening place, that it would corrupt me, that I should be kept safe, sheltered, at home.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education uncultivated	without a lot of experience or knowledge, especially of culture	The uncultivated ancestors of other cereals resemble their domesticated descendants.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education unlettered	not well educated	One unlettered boy followed me back to my tent and begged me to write his letter for him.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education unrefined	used about someone who is not well educated or does not know much about culture	Swart was a young man, and I explained to him that brown rice was the unrefined rice kernel, and we used to eat it during the war when white rice was unavailable.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education unsophisticated	not knowing much about things such as art, literature, and music that educated people usually like	Although they came from a simple unsophisticated small-town family, both of them, quite independently of one another, developed a powerful interest in beautiful things.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education untutored	not educated or formally trained	His story was filled with angelic visits, a familiar part of the folk worship around him, but his strong, untutored intelligence also "got" the contemporary anxiety about God's authority.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education wet behind the ears	young and lacking knowledge and experience		Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education wide-eyed	easily tricked or impressed because you do not have much experience	Each time I received a shock, my expression changed to an absurd wide-eyed stare, and then that foolish smile again.	Having Little Experience Or A Low Level Of Education

ABO system	the system that divides human blood into four main groups, A, B, AB, and O		Heart Blood Circulation anticoagulant	a substance that prevents blood from coagulating (=becoming more solid)	"We elected a treatment of bed rest, keeping his blood pressure in the normal to slightly above normal range and use of anticoagulants," the doctor said.	Heart Blood Circulation aorta	the main artery that carries blood with a high oxygen level from your heart to other parts of your body	Aneurisms, for instance; how else could they ever defend him in time against an aneurism of the aorta?	Heart Blood Circulation artery	one of the tubes in your body that carries blood from your heart to the rest of your body. A tube that returns blood to your heart is called a vein.	Many ended up in the Chicago River, the city's main commercial artery.	Heart Blood Circulation atheroma	an amount of cholesterol and other substances that gradually form on the inside wall of an artery and can block the flow of blood	It has been met with in cases of cardiac dilatation, aortic atheroma, cerebral hemorrhage, tubercular meningitis, and urÃ½mia.	Heart Blood Circulation atrium	each of the two upper spaces in your heart, which force blood into your ventricles (=lower spaces)	They entered a large atrium at least two stories high.	Heart Blood Circulation bad cholesterol	a type of cholesterol that can gradually turn hard and stop your blood flowing properly, sometimes causing heart disease. The technical name is LDL.		Heart Blood Circulation beat	the series of regular sounds or movements as your heart pumps blood around your body	And it's in that beat of time that I start to get worried.	Heart Blood Circulation beat	one of the regular sounds or movements of your heart		Heart Blood Circulation bleeding	the process of losing blood from your body, for example from a cut	Though bleeding badly, he had lost none of his speed or strength.	Heart Blood Circulation blood	the red liquid that flows around inside your body	But in case you don't know, it was for blood.	Heart Blood Circulation blood cells	the cells that move around in your blood. The two main groups of blood cells are called red blood cells and white blood cells.	The red blood cells of some people of African descent look like sickles or crescent moons.	Heart Blood Circulation blood clot	a soft mass of almost solid blood that blocks a tube in your body	I found out that it's not a blood clot at all.	Heart Blood Circulation blood clotting	the process by which blood becomes thick and stops flowing, forming a solid cover over any place where your skin has been cut or broken	The intestine was blitzed, completely full of uncoagulated, runny blood, and at the same time the monkey had had massive blood clotting in the intestinal muscles.	Heart Blood Circulation blood count	the number of red or white cells in your blood, or a test to measure this, for example in order to find out the state of your immune system	As soon as he left I traded it to the kid in the lab next to mine who did all the blood counts.	Heart Blood Circulation blood doping	the practice of increasing the number of red blood cells in an athlete's bloodstream in order to improve their performance by allowing the body to transport more oxygen to the muscles		Heart Blood Circulation blood group	one of the groups that human blood can be divided into. The four main groups are A, B, AB, and O. The American word is blood type.	"I think we'll see it happen gradually, just as DNA analysis gradually replaced blood group analysis."	Heart Blood Circulation blood pressure	the pressure at which blood flows from your heart around your body. Blood pressure that is either very high or very low can be dangerous to your health.	At one checkup in the spring of 2005, his blood pressure and his weight had been a little high.	Heart Blood Circulation blood products	substances that can be taken from the blood of one person and used in the medical treatment of someone else	On the line, "I am bringing animals, animal and plant products, microbes, biological products, human tissues, blood and blood products," I checked the box "no".	Heart Blood Circulation bloodstream	the blood that moves around your body	Jessie inched down the stairs, glancing around as if waiting for something with venomous tentacles to drop on her head and inject poison into her bloodstream.	Heart Blood Circulation blood sugar	sugars such as glucose that are present in healthy blood	Maybe because my blood sugar was low and it was The Week From Hell, I wanted a shout, a sound"â€any sound.	Heart Blood Circulation blood type	a blood group	"A blood type that you would characterize as rare?"	Heart Blood Circulation blood vessel	a tube that carries blood around your body, such as a vein or artery	The human heart shuttles blood through sixty thousand miles of blood vessels.	Heart Blood Circulation capillary	the smallest type of blood vessel, with a wall that is only one cell thick. It carries blood to and from individual cells in your body.	Water rises through the clay to meet it, but cannot proceed further because the sand is too loose for further capillary action.	Heart Blood Circulation cardiac arrest	a heart attack	Alberta went into cardiac arrest and died two hours later.	Heart Blood Circulation cardio-	relating to the heart: used with some adjectives and nouns		Heart Blood Circulation cardiology	the area of medicine that deals with the heart and the diseases that affect it	One cardiology appointment coincided with a downpour that paralyzed the city.	Heart Blood Circulation carotid artery	one of the two main arteries on each side of your neck that carry blood from your heart to your head	Butler loaded the second vial, shooting this one straight into the carotid artery.	Heart Blood Circulation cholesterol	a substance that is found in the blood and the cells of the body. It can cause diseases of the heart and the arteries if there is too much of it	He had quit drinking and smoking, but had high cholesterol, hypertension, and diabetes.	Heart Blood Circulation circulation	the continuous movement of blood around your body	Jinx's hiding spot was getting stuffy and his feet tingled from lack of circulation.	Heart Blood Circulation clot	a lump consisting of blood or another liquid that has become thick	Her wound hadn't clotted, and blood was still pouring down her wrist.	Heart Blood Circulation coronary	a heart attack	My father was a strong dude before he decided to throw in the towel and become obese, three manicottis shy of a life-ending coronary.	Heart Blood Circulation coronary artery	either of the two arteries that carry blood to the heart	Jean Miele's advantage began with the people he was with on May 6, when the lining of his right coronary artery ruptured, cutting off the flow of blood to his sixty-six-year-old heart.	Heart Blood Circulation coronary thrombosis	a heart attack in which the blood supply to the heart is blocked	As expected, the cause of death was listed as "coronary thrombosis."	Heart Blood Circulation corpuscle	one of the white or red cells in your blood	Mendel, perhaps, was the original "anatomist" of the gene: in capturing the movement of information across generations of peas, he had described the essential structure of the gene as an indivisible corpuscle of information.	Heart Blood Circulation

embolism	something such as a blood clot (=a mass of blood cells) that blocks a blood vessel in your body	On the other hand, it could have been an embolism, because your blood clots much more easily when you are lying down for a long time, like when you are in hospital.	Heart Blood Circulation flutter	a series of quick movements of the heart, caused by excitement or nervousness	The nearer acres of rock flowers fluttered and for half a minute the breeze blew cool on their faces.	Heart Blood Circulation flutter	a medical condition in which your heart beats faster than normal		Heart Blood Circulation gamma globulin	a natural protein substance that is part of blood, and that protects you against some types of disease	I wasn't well yet "â€œ I was taking steroids and gamma globulin.	Heart Blood Circulation good cholesterol	a type of cholesterol that carries harmful cholesterol away from your arteries and back to your liver, helping to prevent heart disease. The technical name is HDL.		Heart Blood Circulation gore	blood from an injured person that is thick because it is partly dried	You never saw such gore in your life.	Heart Blood Circulation haemo-	relating to blood: used with some nouns and adjectives		Heart Blood Circulation haemoglobin	a protein in red blood cells that carries oxygen from the lungs to all parts of the body	And crucial to this task was the discovery by Orkin and colleagues that a small piece of the BCL11A gene, called the enhancer, controls foetal haemoglobin expression.	Heart Blood Circulation
HDL	high-density lipoprotein: a type of cholesterol that carries harmful cholesterol away from your arteries and back to your liver, helping to prevent heart disease; also called good cholesterol	If you've been diagnosed with high triglycerides, high LDL cholesterol, or low HDL cholesterol, those are signs that you may be insulin resistant and may want to consider lifestyle changes.	Heart Blood Circulation heart	the organ in your chest that makes blood flow around your body	I sway for a second, my heart beating so hard I can't feel anything else.	Heart Blood Circulation heart attack	an occasion when someone suddenly has a lot of pain in their chest and their heart stops working	In fact he was so alive he looked better than ever, but I've heard that's the way a lot of people are when they have heart attacks.	Heart Blood Circulation heartbeat	the movement or sound of your heart as it makes blood flow round your body	I touch my chest to feel my heartbeat.	Heart Blood Circulation heart failure	a situation in which someone's heart stops working and they die	Granny Tipper died of heart failure eight months before summer fifteen on Beechwood.	Heart Blood Circulation hemoglobin	the American spelling of haemoglobin	In other instances he had been annoyingly candid in pointing out where Perutz and Bragg had publicly overinterpreted their hemoglobin results.	Heart Blood Circulation hypertension	a condition in which your blood pressure is extremely high	According to reports, Bell suffered from hypertension and had three fainting spells in the four months before his collapse.	Heart Blood Circulation infarction	a situation in which blood cannot get to an area of tissue so that the tissue dies	As in: The doctor sees me Googling the symptoms "â€œ coughing, sweating, vomiting, nosebleeds "â€œ and he says, You know we cant be sure what causes a myocardial infarction.	Heart Blood Circulation jugular	a major vein in your neck that carries blood from your head to your heart. The jugular is also called the jugular vein.	So quick was he that it seemed to just appear at his jugular.	Heart Blood Circulation LDL	low-density lipoprotein: a type of cholesterol that can gradually turn hard and stop your blood flowing properly, sometimes causing heart disease; also called bad cholesterol	The data point to increasing benefits with lower and lower LDL levels, said Dr. Daniel J. Rader.	Heart Blood Circulation leucocyte	a white blood cell	Some cells, including some leucocytes in humans, are able to engulf food by endocytosis"â€œthe formation of vesicles by involution of the cell membrane within the cells.	Heart Blood Circulation leukocyte	another spelling of leucocyte	All people have multiple types of HLA, which means that they can bring almost every potential problem to the attention of their leukocytes.	Heart Blood Circulation lifeblood	someone's blood	Its lifeblood is trafficking in arms, drugs, and people.	Heart Blood Circulation lymph node	one of several small organs in your body that help to remove harmful bacteria from your blood	In one patient, Henrietta's cancer cells metastasized to her lymph nodes.	Heart Blood Circulation lymphocyte	a white blood cell that attacks antigens (=harmful substances that the body reacts to)	The amebocytes of starfish were recently found to contain a material that immobilizes the macrophages of mammals, resembling a product of immune lymphocytes in higher forms.	Heart Blood Circulation murmur	an unusual quiet sound made by your heart that may be a sign of disease or damage	They'd lie in their warm beds, listening drowsily and murmur to each other, "That feller, whoever he is, is losing time. He's losing time. He ought to be in a show."	Heart Blood Circulation myocardial infarction	the technical name for a heart attack	Mrs. Bell, the myocardial infarction has caused some complications.	Heart Blood Circulation palpitations	the movements of your heart when it beats faster than usual	When she first sentenced herself to the mahogany limbo of her four-poster bed, Desdemona complained only of her usual heart palpitations.	Heart Blood Circulation plasma	the yellowish liquid that is part of blood	Unlike metal plates, plasmas could be made easily with a bolt of electricity, according to Puthoff, and instead of having to pry the plates apart again, the plasma "ash" is discarded.	Heart Blood Circulation platelet	a small piece of a cell in your blood that helps it to clot (=form a thick mass)	Jeffrey's counts were really low, so low that the doctors gave him two transfusions: one of whole blood and one of platelets. This turned the two-day trip into a four-day trip.	Heart Blood Circulation pressure point	a place on your body where you press to stop your blood flowing	Diagrams of chakras and pressure points appeared around the house, and she began charging clients for something called "energy work."	Heart Blood Circulation pulmonary artery	one of two arteries (=tubes) that carry blood from the right ventricle of your heart to your lungs	A necropsy revealed Mozart bled to death after being struck by a pellet that traveled between two ribs and nicked a pulmonary artery.	Heart Blood Circulation pulmonary vein	one of four veins (=tubes) that carry blood from your lungs to the left atrium of your heart	Just as I was about to suture the pulmonary vein, the doors of the operating theatre burst open.	Heart Blood Circulation pulsation	a strong regular movement like that of your heart	When taken out of the stocks his skin was cold and shrivelled; there was no perceptible pulsation in the temporal or radial arteries, and he complained of severe cephalgia ...	Heart Blood Circulation pulse	the regular movement of blood as the heart pumps it round the body	Dad sort of laughed, and Timothy saw a pulse beating time in his cheek.	Heart Blood Circulation pulse	the rate of someone's pulse, especially the number of movements that you can feel in a minute		Heart Blood Circulation red blood cell	a blood cell that carries oxygen	What enabled the selective "action" of hemoglobin in red blood cells?	Heart Blood Circulation Rhesus factor	a substance found in red blood cells. Most people are Rhesus positive (=they have the Rhesus factor) and cannot share blood with people who are Rhesus negative (=who do not have the Rhesus factor).		Heart Blood Circulation

Rh factor	Rhesus factor	Four percent of African Americans have type O blood and a negative Rh factor, 5% to 10 percent of African Americans have the Rh factor, and 51 percent have type O blood.	Heart Blood Circulation serum	the thin yellow liquid that is part of blood and that separates from it when it clots (=becomes thick and hard)	I feel the serum clinging to my skin like oil, but the darkness recedes.	Heart Blood Circulation spleen	the organ in your body that removes dead red cells from your blood and produces white cells	She tasted of urine and spleen, which made me spit.	Heart Blood Circulation ticker	your heart	Milo had never imagined a machine so beautiful as a stock ticker before.	Heart Blood Circulation vein	one of the tubes in your body that carry blood to your heart. A tube that carries blood away from your heart is an artery.	Durham! and as if by magic, everything springs into new life, the veins and arteries of business throw off their stagnation and the bright sun of prosperity sends its radiant beams out upon the world...	Heart Blood Circulation vena cava	one of the two large veins (=tubes) that carry blood into the right side of your heart	At that stage, the uterus is large enough to put pressure on the inferior vena cava, which is one of the major blood vessels that return blood flow to the heart.	Heart Blood Circulation ventricle	one of the two lower parts of your heart that moves blood to the rest of your body	My arms are atria and my legs are ventricles and I pump the blood all around the right way because there has to be something I can do.	Heart Blood Circulation viral load	the amount of a virus that someone has in their blood		Heart Blood Circulation vital signs	the signs that show you are alive, for example your breathing or your heartbeat	The doctors can do nothing for the president but monitor his vital signs.	Heart Blood Circulation white blood cell	a type of blood cell that protects your body against infection	Jeffrey had been diagnosed with ALL, which stands for acute lymphoblastic leukemia, a form of blood cancer in which certain types of white blood cells become deformed and multiply rapidly.	Heart Blood Circulation arterial	relating to the arteries	Theresa did an arterial stick, as the resident crunched through the patient's breastbone with a bone cutter.	Heart Blood Circulation cardiac	connected with your heart	She has worked high-stress assignments in telemetry"â€ monitoring cardiac patients"â€ and in the intensive care unit.	Heart Blood Circulation cardiovascular	connected with the heart and the blood vessels	It didn't seem possible that something so simple could've had such a profound effect on my cardiovascular system, but my heart never slowed its pace.	Heart Blood Circulation circulatory	relating to the movement of blood around your body	Equally typical is a tendency to equate the risk from some obscure and exotic malady with the chances of suffering from heart and circulatory disease, from which about 12,000 Americans die each week.	Heart Blood Circulation coronary	relating to your heart		Heart Blood Circulation positive	used for saying that someone's blood contains a substance called Rhesus factor. You can say that someone is Rhesus positive or that their blood group is, for example, O positive or A positive.	As the moving van exited the freeway and rattled past the baseball stadium, Emily tried to focus on the positive: Book Scavenger!	Heart Blood Circulation vascular	relating to the blood vessels in the body	I have vascular dementia, the doctor told me, and there was some comfort to be had.	Heart Blood Circulation venous	relating to veins	He attaches the other to the venous line, through which his cleaned blood returns.	Heart Blood Circulation beat	if someone's heart beats, it makes the same sound and movements again and again as it pumps blood around their body		Heart Blood Circulation bleed	to have blood flowing from your body, for example from a cut	The skin and eyeballs turned yellow, as red blood cells were destroyed, causing the bile pigment bilirubin to accumulate in the body; nose, gums, and intestines began bleeding; and the patient vomited stale, black blood.	Heart Blood Circulation bleed out	to die from loss of blood		Heart Blood Circulation clot	if blood or another liquid clots, or if something clots it, it becomes thick and stops flowing	In the end, it said, she was "vomiting coffee- ground material," which was probably clotted blood.	Heart Blood Circulation flutter	if your heart or pulse flutters, its regular movements suddenly become quicker because you are excited or nervous	Once she had seen them fluttering about her head before she went into the movies.	Heart Blood Circulation fur up	if an artery furs up or is furred up, it becomes blocked		Heart Blood Circulation haemorrhage	to lose a lot of blood from an organ inside your body because of an injury or another medical condition	Their condition is hopeless, they choke to death with haemorrhages and suffocation.	Heart Blood Circulation hammer	if your heart hammers, it has a strong fast beat, especially because you are afraid or nervous	Yet there were many like us without hammers and using only stones, who were making very good progress.	Heart Blood Circulation hemorrhage	the American spelling of haemorrhage	It seems she had one hemorrhage after another.	Heart Blood Circulation jump	if your heart jumps, it suddenly feels as if it is not beating regularly, for example because you are frightened or excited	He dropped the harness, jumped over the rail fence, and in a long lope started for me.	Heart Blood Circulation lurch	if your heart or stomach lurches, it seems to suddenly jump because you are excited or upset	He drew on die hand that clutched the drinking horn, figuring to give them a shot to talk about, but Todric spoiled it by lurching to one side just as he loosed.	Heart Blood Circulation palpitate	if your heart palpitates, it beats faster than usual		Heart Blood Circulation pound	if your heart pounds, it beats strongly and quickly because you are nervous, excited, or afraid	"How 'bout some pound cake on the house then?"	Heart Blood Circulation throb	if your heart throbs, it beats much harder and faster than usual	Suppose I let him slip, or put my fingers on that throbbing pulse on the top of his head?	Heart Blood Circulation thump	if your heart is thumping, you can feel it beating very fast, for example because you are angry, frightened, or excited	I feel like thumping my fists against his chest, like a child throwing a tantrum.	Heart Blood Circulation weep	if an injury or sore place on the body weeps, blood or pus (=a yellow infected liquid) comes out slowly	He says impurity is so grave a sin the Virgin Mary turns her face away and weeps.	Heart Blood Circulation Heaven	the place where God is believed to live. Some people believe that good people go to Heaven when they die and bad people go to Hell	"What sort of name is Bean Heaven for a tea shop?"	Heaven And Hell And Life After Death

Hell	in some religions, the place where bad people are sent to suffer for ever when they die. The place where good people are believed to go is called Heaven.	Yes, she would go"â€”to Rifthold, to anywhere, even through the Gates of the Wyrd and into Hell itself, if it meant freedom.	Heaven And Hell And Life After Death
Paradise	Heaven, the place where some people believe you go when you die if you have lived a good life	"Pile of junk? Are you talking about this Paradise vehicle?"	Heaven And Hell And Life After Death eternity	the idea that a person's soul lives for ever after they die	Then we sit there for what seems like an eternity.	Heaven And Hell And Life After Death afterlife	another life that some people believe begins after you die	"Only favorites. They free them from the woes of the world, to accompany their beloved master to the grave and serve him in the afterlife."	Heaven And Hell And Life After Death the hereafter	a life that some people believe you have after you die		Heaven And Hell And Life After Death the next life	an existence after death		Heaven And Hell And Life After Death infernal	relating to hell (=the place where bad people are sometimes believed to go when they die)	"Come on, back in this infernal cart, and don't talk to me on the way back, it's best if I keep me mouth shut," said Hagrid.	Heaven And Hell And Life After Death the (great) beyond	where some people believe people's spirits go after they die		Heaven And Hell And Life After Death heavenly	relating to heaven	There was the cool delicate smell of painted china, the wonderful unforgettable smell of a doll's hair, the heavenly feel of new-gauze doll's clothes.	Heaven And Hell And Life After Death Hades	hell	Hades wore black armor and a cloak the color of fresh blood.	Heaven And Hell And Life After Death heaven	the place where God or the gods are believed to live	"There isn't. Lem Harvey's born to trouble. He did pretty well while he was drilling the men; that let him work off part of his meanness. Now"â€œheaven help us!"	Heaven And Hell And Life After Death the kingdom of heaven	heaven		Heaven And Hell And Life After Death on high	in heaven		Heaven And Hell And Life After Death the pearly gates	the entrance to Heaven		Heaven And Hell And Life After Death that (great)...in the sky	used for talking about the place where people go when they die		Heaven And Hell And Life After Death agency	an organization that deals with social problems	Anyway, I was telling you"â€œin the agency, when they reach a point like this in a meeting, there's always some character ready with an idea.	Help With Social Problems block grant	money that a national government gives to local governments to pay for services such as education and health	Welfare reform legislation signed by President Bill Clinton in 1996 ended individual entitlements to welfare and provided states with block grants.	Help With Social Problems

CAB	Citizens Advice Bureau: an office run by Citizens Advice, an organization in the UK that gives people free advice on legal, financial, and social problems	Fred heard the man climb into the cab and close his door with a heavy thud.	Help With Social Problems care in the community	the policy of looking after people with physical or mental health problems at home rather than in hospitals		Help With Social Problems caring profession	a profession that involves looking after other people, for example social work and nursing		Help With Social Problems case work	work that a social worker does to help a particular person or group of people with social problems. The person who does this work is called a case worker.		Help With Social Problems community care	help for people living in their homes who need help looking after themselves		Help With Social Problems essential services	the supply of things such as water, gas, electricity, health care, and education		Help With Social Problems health care	the services that look after people's health	The evidence indicated that this was not just about access to health care.	Help With Social Problems health service	a public service that is responsible for providing medical care		Help With Social Problems housing	the job or activity of providing houses for people	Ann quickly found a focus for her housing work that fall, in two incidents that would galvanize the black community in Durham over the next few years.	Help With Social Problems housing association	in the UK, an organization that owns houses for people with low incomes to live in		Help With Social Problems meals on wheels	a service that brings cooked meals to the homes of people who are too old or ill to cook for themselves		Help With Social Problems
Medicaid	a system of government health care for poor people in the US	But the Supreme Court's ruling on the health care law last year, while upholding it, allowed states to choose whether to expand Medicaid.	Help With Social Problems
Medicare	a system in the US in which the government pays part of the cost of medical treatment for people who are over 65 years old	Their special- interest influence successfully fights the Medicare program that's wanted, and needed, by millions of other people.	Help With Social Problems postcode lottery	a situation in which people in different areas of the UK receive different things from a public service such as health care		Help With Social Problems probation officer	someone whose job is to give help and advice to people on probation after committing a crime and to check that they are behaving well	Like a special psychologist or a probation officer.	Help With Social Problems public health	health care for people that is paid for by the government		Help With Social Problems public service	a service that the government pays for, such as education or health care	In the following issue Arthur printed a public service advertisement urging islanders to buy war bonds.	Help With Social Problems public spending	the money that the government pays for projects relating to education, health care, defence etc		Help With Social Problems residential care	a system of caring for people who cannot live on their own without help. They live with others in an institution and are looked after by trained staff.		Help With Social Problems the Samaritans	a British organization that provides a telephone service giving emotional support to people who are extremely unhappy and likely to kill themselves		Help With Social Problems service	a system provided by a government or official organization for the needs of the public	Throughout the entire service, Reb Saunders stood with his back to the congregation, sometimes raising his head toward the ceiling, or raising his hands to cover his eyes.	Help With Social Problems sheltered accommodation	a group of houses or flats for people who cannot live in a completely independent way, for example because they are disabled. They can get help from trained staff when they need it.		Help With Social Problems social care	services and support that people need in order to live decent lives, especially support with the tasks of daily living that is provided to people in their own homes		Help With Social Problems social service	one of the services provided by a government or local council for people with social problems	He didn't quite understand what Natalie meant when she talked about Ms. Morales calling social services, but he could see why it would be a problem to call the police.	Help With Social Problems social worker	someone who is trained to give help and advice to people who have severe social problems	Whitaker was struck by his manners and how he spoke like the teachers and social workers she had known growing up"â€ enunciating his words, slipping in a few she didn't know.	Help With Social Problems warehousing	the policy of putting a lot of people in an institution without thinking much about the quality of education or treatment that they receive	When our elders presented school to us, they did not present it as a place of high learning but as a means of escape from death and penal warehousing.	Help With Social Problems welfare	care provided by the state or another organization for people in need	Well, there was welfare, and a few inmates had means, but it was mostly a mystery.	Help With Social Problems the welfare state	the system by which a country looks after its citizens by providing them with education, medical care, or money if they are unable to work	By this argument, belief in demonic magic ought not to have declined until there was a general improvement in living standards, and perhaps not until the development of the welfare state.	Help With Social Problems women's refuge	a place where women can go with their children in order to escape from a violent husband or partner		Help With Social Problems youth worker	someone whose job is to help young people deal with problems with their families, at school, or with the law. The usual American word is counselor.		Help With Social Problems helpful	a helpful person helps you by doing something or by giving you useful advice or information	"You were just so surprised," said I, being helpful.	Helpful And Willing To Help friendly	someone who is friendly is always pleasant and helpful towards other people	They washed each other afterward, taking their time about it in the friendly way of certain married people, and then Carl got into bed and slept until one in the afternoon.	Helpful And Willing To Help kind	behaving in a way that shows you care about other people and want to help them	"Because you look like the kind of girl who'll wreck something for sure."	Helpful And Willing To Help caring	kind, helpful, and sympathetic towards other people	He was lucky; his lack of caring made him supremely un-nervous.	Helpful And Willing To Help good-hearted	kind, generous, and helpful		Helpful And Willing To Help generous	kind, friendly, and helpful	Waving her arms like a conductor, she led them in a raucous "Happy Birthday" and dished out generous gobs of ice cream.	Helpful And Willing To Help forthcoming	helpful and willing to tell you things	He must not be asked to perform tasks in any area where an error might jeopardize the success of our forthcoming conference.'	Helpful And Willing To Help good	kind, generous, and willing to help		Helpful And Willing To Help well-disposed	tending to be friendly, helpful, or interested	He was a shrewd, soft-spoken man who was well-disposed to our mission, but his perception of the situation surprised and dismayed me.	Helpful And Willing To Help well-meant	words or actions that are well-meant are intended to be helpful but are often harmful or not sensible	Imagine my teenage wrath when, time after time, my homework was returned with this well-meant floating apostrophe struck out.	Helpful And Willing To Help accommodating	helpful and easy to work with	Still, he was pleasant, respectful, generous, and accommodating, which made him well liked by the people with whom he did business, whether black or white.	Helpful And Willing To Help attentive	behaving in a way that shows you care about someone and are willing to help them	It's as if she's too attentive to them, too polite, studied and overdone.	Helpful And Willing To Help avuncular	an avuncular man is kind and helpful to younger or less experienced people	But the officer's contempt is not, as in other armies, avuncular theatricality.	Helpful And Willing To Help beneficent	doing things that are intended to help people	The beneficent snowfall and kroxet"â€windless weather 0Ã,Â°F and 20Ã,Â"â€that had seen us through Tarrenpeth and out of range of probable pursuit, now dissolved wretchedly into above-freezing temperatures and rain.	Helpful And Willing To Help benevolent	willing to help and be generous towards people	The mountains hovered over everything like benevolent, serene elephants.	Helpful And Willing To Help neighbourly	showing a helpful and friendly attitude towards people, especially neighbours	He had only one criticism, he said, to make of Mr. Pilkington's excellent and neighbourly speech.	Helpful And Willing To Help noble	a noble action is one that you do to help other people, rather than for yourself. This word often shows that you don't think something is noble at all	The poise of the head strikes one at once as indicative of thought and power; the head is noble, well-sized, broad, and large behind the ears.	Helpful And Willing To Help public-spirited	thinking about other people in society and trying to help them	And if marriage was not achieved, there were alternative roles: teacher, librarian, or . . . well, something intelligent and public-spirited.	Helpful And Willing To Help supportive	helpful and sympathetic	Still, the absence of these supportive relationships must have hurt, despite his role in the schism.	Helpful And Willing To Help well-intentioned	trying to help but often making things worse	They were well-intentioned, community-minded women, often single mothers or grandmothers, the type who inevitably stepped in to help when no one else would volunteer.	Helpful And Willing To Help well-meaning	trying to help but often making things worse	"A lot of these kids are afraid to roam this neighborhood because well-meaning people may get the wrong idea," she says.	Helpful And Willing To Help heraldry	a system of designing and recording the coats of arms of famous families	Come-into-my-castle was a game for highborn children, one meant to teach them courtesy, heraldry, and a thing or two about their lord father's friends and foes.	Heraldry shield	a design shaped like a soldier's shield, especially one used on a badge or a coat of arms	On deck, soldiers banged sword against shield, while archers quietly strung their bows and pulled the first arrow from the quivers at their belts.	Heraldry escutcheon	a shield decorated with someone's coat of arms	In her heart, she was his silent ally, a fifth columnist, in Bull's inveterate assaults on the trellised escutcheons of the Old South that Lillian shoved in front of him.	Heraldry coat of arms	a special design that a family, organization, or place uses as its own sign and is usually found on a shield	Directly behind, on the wall, was the royal coat of arms, flanked by the flags of Dictionopolis.	Heraldry crest	a design used as the symbol of a town, institution, or family of high social class	A long, Jeep-like vehicle crested the hill, trampling down bushes as it came.	Heraldry herald	someone who keeps records of families who have a coat of arms (=a design or picture that represents a family)	It was covered in dormant young rosebuds, even now, well into June—a thing that happened only infrequently, and usually heralded an extra-long hot summer.	Heraldry allspice	1. the berry of a West Indian tree (Pimenta dioica) of the myrtle family; also : the allspice tree	The smell followed her around the kitchen like it was on a leash, a combination of allspice, fresh earth, and rotten leaves.	Herb & Spices angelica	1. any of a genus (Angelica) of herbs of the carrot family; especially : a Eurasian biennial or perennial (A. archangelica) whose roots and seeds yield a flavoring oil and whose young stems are often candied	They included barberry and angelica, a menacing-looking tall, skinny stalk covered in thorns.	Herb & Spices anise	1. a Eurasian annual herb (Pimpinella anisum) of the carrot family having carminative and aromatic seeds; also : aniseed	I haven't been able to stand the taste of anise milk for two and a half years.	Herb & Spices annatto	1. a yellowish-red dyestuff made from the pulp around the seeds of a tropical American tree (Bixa orellana)	I must admit that my body moved with surprising agility; I am not without an innate sense of rhythm; my ancestors must have been rather outstanding at jiggling on the heath.	Herb & Spices basil	1. any of several aromatic herbs (genus Ocimum) of the mint family; especially : sweet basil	Baskets of sabzi—parsley and watercress and tarragon and basil and mint, stalks of green onion, fresh radishes carved into flowers—sat on each table.	Herb & Spices bay	1. reddish brown	Then suddenly I was reliving that early morning when I had held Uncle Tom at bay with my razors.	Herb & Spices borage	1. a hardy, annual, prickly, European herb (Borago officinalis) of the family Boraginaceae, the borage family) with star-shaped blue flowers that is widely naturalized as a weed and has leaves used as remedies in herbal medicine and also as food especially in salads or cooked as a vegetable	He uses traditional techniques for drying and blending tea, fermenting pickles and making jams with Iranian fruits and flowers, like orange blossom or borage.	Herb & Spices capers	1. an illegal or questionable act or escapade	"Just so. After your capers are concluded, you will help serve and pour. See that you do not spill on the guests, or it will go ill for you."	Herb & Spices caraway	1. a biennial usually white-flowered aromatic Old World herb (Carum carvi) of the carrot family	For some reason, I find that most homemade recipes omit the caraway seeds, though I consider them to be part of the everything bagel canon.	Herb & Spices cardamom	1. the aromatic capsular fruit of an Indian herb (Elettaria cardamomum) of the ginger family with seeds used as a spice or condiment and in medicine; also : this plant	She smelled of spices, of cardamom and nutmeg and flowers.	Herb & Spices carob	1. a Mediterranean evergreen leguminous tree (Ceratonia siliqua) with racemose red flowers	I envisioned her skin the same carob color as my father's, her eyes as black and her lips as full as his.	Herb & Spices cayenne pepper	1. a pungent condiment consisting of the ground dried fruits or seeds of hot peppers	"Well, I hope you left some suitable excuse," said her husband, somewhat appeased, as he added a dash of cayenne pepper to the soup.	Herb & Spices

chervil	1. an aromatic herb (Anthriscus cerefolium) of the carrot family with divided leaves that are often used in soups and salads; also : any of several related plants	Our beloved thirshfeld adds: "The smell is a magical anise elixir, packed with the promise of the other herbs that will follow close behind: lovage, savory, chervil, and chives."	Herb & Spices chicory	1. a thick-rooted usually blue-flowered European perennial composite herb (Cichorium intybus) widely grown for its roots and as a salad plant	"But they would have asked the bean of a darker roast and they would have liked a little chicory for bite."	Herb & Spices chili pepper	1. a hot pepper of any of a group of cultivars (Capsicum annum annuum group longum) noted for their pungency	Closely related species replace each other geographically among the amaranths, beans, chenopods, chili peppers, cottons, squashes, and tobaccos.	Herb & Spices chives	1. a perennial plant (Allium schoenoprasum) related to the onion and having slender leaves used as a seasoning; also : its leaves "usually used in plural	The king took out the plates of delicate pink shrimp dumplings, savory noodles and pork, dragon's beard bean sprouts, emerald green chives, and a bowl of white jade tofu soup.	Herb & Spices cicely	1. any of a genus (Osmorhiza) of American and eastern Asian herbs of the carrot family that typically have thick fleshy roots and grow in moist woodlands	"That girl in Sicily. That girl in Sicily with the bald head."	Herb & Spices cilantro	1. leaves of coriander used as a flavoring or garnish; also : coriander	I felt myself blushing, hoping Mrs. Hidalgo didn't think it was weird that I didn't want cilantro.	Herb & Spices cinnamon	1. the aromatic, dried bark of any of several tropical trees (genus Cinnamomum) yielding a culinary spice, oil, and flavoring; especially : a small roll or quill of cinnamon bark	"No. I'll have it right here. And I want a boiled egg and a piece of cinnamon toast. Four and a half minutes on the egg. Make sure. I don't want it gooey."	Herb & Spices clove	1. one of the small bulbs (as in garlic) developed in the axils of the scales of a large bulb	A perfect noose on one end, and a textbook clove hitch on the other.	Herb & Spices coriander	1. an Old World annual herb (Coriandrum sativum) of the carrot family with aromatic fruits	"What if I sneak some ground coriander into my jam?"	Herb & Spices dill	1. any of several plants of the carrot family; especially : a European herb (Anethum graveolens) with aromatic foliage and seeds both of which are used in flavoring foods and especially pickles	They had turkey with stuffing, and mashed potatoes swimming with dill and butter.	Herb & Spices epazote	1. wormseed; also : the fresh or dried pungent-smelling leaves of wormseed used especially in Mexican cooking	I suspect that this woman knows a great deal, that her apathy is a facade for her seeming resentment against Levy Pants.	Herb & Spices fennel	1. a perennial Eurasian herb (Foeniculum vulgare) that has clusters of small yellow flowers and aromatic leaves and seeds and includes several cultivated forms: such as	Smoke rose from the front of the yard, along with the delicious smell of oregano and garlic, rosemary, fennel, toasted annatto.	Herb & Spices fenugreek	1. a leguminous annual Eurasian herb (Trigonella foenum-graecum) with aromatic seeds; also : its seeds	The upholstery smells like fenugreek and mustard seed.	Herb & Spices filÃ©	1. a tool usually of hardened steel with cutting ridges for forming or smoothing surfaces especially of metal	William, peering past Michelangelo's shoulder, could make out a single file of men, already waiting ahead of them.	Herb & Spices galangal	1. either of two eastern Asian perennial herbs (Alpinia galanga and A. officinarum) of the ginger family with dark green sword-shaped leaves and pungent aromatic rhizomes	Some are light, clear and sweet, some sharpened with green tomatoes or lime leaves and redolent of galangal and Thai basil, others thickened with coconut milk and flavored with kroeuang.	Herb & Spices garam masala	1. a pungent and aromatic mixture of ground spices used in Indian cooking		Herb & Spices garlic	1. a European allium (Allium sativum) widely cultivated for its pungent compound bulbs much used in cookery; broadly : allium	I had to scrape my teeth with my tongue several times before the flavor dissipated into the familiar bittersweet oregano and garlic.	Herb & Spices ginger	1. a thickened pungent aromatic rhizome that is used as a spice and sometimes medicinally	Her arms were clamped tightly around the enormous ginger cat.	Herb & Spices green onion	1. a young onion pulled before the bulb has enlarged and used especially in salads	Pattie makes soup that is cloudy white with curly pieces of green onion floating on top.	Herb & Spices harissa	1. a spicy North African paste made from dried chilies, salt, oil, and other seasonings	Some said that picketing had become "little less than criminal" and called it the most outrageous of the "foolish, childish methods you have used trying to harass our overburdened president."	Herb & Spices horseradish	1. a tall coarse white-flowered herb (Armoracia rusticana synonym A. laphathifolia) of the mustard family	"Hobb says he's out of horseradish, though. What good is boiled beef without horseradish?"	Herb & Spices hyssop	1. a plant used in purificatory sprinkling rites by the ancient Hebrews	Likely she would run through the fields dressed in sackcloth, hunting hyssop amongst the wild bulls, if not obligated to the higher plane of Motherhood.	Herb & Spices juniper berry	1. any of numerous shrubs or trees (genus Juniperus) of the cypress family with leaves resembling needles or scales and female cones usually resembling berries	While they were eating, teasing, commenting on the soup, flavored with low-growing juniper berries and parched hot summer corn, something happened that disturbed everyone and changed the course of the winter.	Herb & Spices lavender	1. a Mediterranean mint (Lavandula angustifolia synonym L. officinalis) widely cultivated for its narrow aromatic leaves and spikes of lilac-purple flowers which are dried and used in sachets and from which is extracted an aromatic oil used chiefly in perfumery	Even in the privacy of my own home I find myself wearing only the simple lavender frock that I wear beneath my robes.	Herb & Spices lemon balm	1. a bushy perennial European mint (Melissa officinalis) often cultivated for its lemon-scented leaves; also : its leaves	Add that to all the chive, dillweed, and lemon balm growing around the porch and the smell could knock you over.	Herb & Spices lemon verbena	1. a small shrub (Aloysia triphylla) of Chile and Argentina that has narrow lemon-scented leaves	"We have much to be thankful for. Would you care for a lemon drop?"	Herb & Spices licorice	1. the dried root of a European leguminous plant (Glycyrrhiza glabra) with pinnate leaves and spikes of blue flowers; also : an extract of this used especially in medicine, liquors, and confectionery	Every hour he made a pit stop to relieve himself and to buy more economysized bottles of Pepsi, more chocolate chip cookies, more red licorice and corn chips.	Herb & Spices lovage	1. any of several aromatic perennial herbs of the carrot family; especially : a European herb (Levisticum officinale) sometimes cultivated for use in medicine especially as a diuretic and in cookery usually as a flavoring agent		Herb & Spices mace	1. an aromatic spice consisting of the dried external fibrous covering of a nutmeg	Swords, swordbreakers, axes, bows, pikes, hunting daggers, maces, spears, throwing knives, wooden staves...While she generally preferred the stealth of a dagger, she was familiar with every weapon here.	Herb & Spices marjoram	1. any of various usually fragrant and aromatic Old World mints (genus Origanum) often used as seasoning	He loaded me down with three pots of sweet marjoram, which he said everyone needs in his or her garden.	Herb & Spices mint	1. any of a family (Lamiaceae synonym Labiatae , the mint family) of aromatic plants with a square stem and a 4-lobed ovary which produces four one-seeded nutlets in fruit; especially : any of a genus (Mentha) of mints that have white, purple, or pink verticillate flowers with a nearly regular corolla and four equal stamens and that include some used in flavoring and cookery	"EœWe came for the physician's cure. Can you help us? I've got some Pylosian mint here and a very nice yellow daisy."	Herb & Spices nasturtium	1. any of a genus (Tropaeolum of the family Tropaeolaceae , the nasturtium family) of herbs of Central and South America with showy spurred flowers and pungent edible seeds and leaves; especially : either of two widely cultivated ornamentals (T. majus and T. minus)	She moved her eyes slowly up the jug past the thin green stems and little round leaves and saw...nasturtiums!	Herb & Spices nutmeg	1. an aromatic seed produced by an evergreen tree (Myristica fragrans of the family Myristicaceae , the nutmeg family) native to the Moluccas; also : the ground seed used as a spice	My cellmate was among at least a hundred nutmeg men who, for money or cigarettes, bought from kitchen-worker inmates penny matchboxes full of stolen nutmeg.	Herb & Spices onion	1. a widely cultivated Asian herb (Allium cepa) of the lily family with pungent edible bulbs; also : its bulb	As we carried water to my onions and beets and melons and carrots, I thought back to all the gallons of water I'd wasted in my life.	Herb & Spices oregano	1. a bushy perennial mint (Origanum vulgare) with leaves that are used as a seasoning and a source of aromatic oil —called also origanum , wild marjoram	Her mother began pulling spices from the cabinet" —salt, pepper, paprika, thyme, and oregano.	Herb & Spices paprika	1. a usually mild red condiment consisting of the dried finely ground pods of various sweet peppers; also : a sweet pepper used for making paprika	We added some seasonings, like salt, pepper, and paprika, and mixed it all together.	Herb & Spices parsley	1. a European biennial herb (Petroselinum crispum) of the carrot family widely grown for its finely dissected curly or flat leaves which are used as an herb or garnish; also : the leaves	It arrived on an enormous wooden tray, scented and gleaming, with a sprig of parsley in its mouth and a carrot protruding from its rump, the whole reposing on a bed of tomatoes.	Herb & Spices pepper	1. either of two pungent products from the fruit of an Indian plant (Piper nigrum) that are used chiefly as condiments:	Whenever they could, people used the spices that were so popular, they became an expensive necessity: pepper, ginger, sugar, sometimes saffron.	Herb & Spices peppermint	1. a pungent and aromatic mint (Mentha piperita) with dark green lanceolate leaves and whorls of small pink flowers in spikes	Baron von Trapp's seven peppermint children had had their peppermint baths, and were standing in a peppermint line with their hair slicked down, singing in obedient peppermint voices to the woman the Baron nearly married.	Herb & Spices rosemary	1. a fragrant shrubby Mediterranean mint (Salvia rosmarinus synonym Rosmarinus officinalis) having grayish-green needlelike leaves used as a seasoning; also : the leaves of rosemary	My feet slowed of their own accord, giving my lungs time to breathe in the scent of rosemary.	Herb & Spices rue	1. to feel penitence, remorse, or regret for	"If the queen has any sense, she'll accept my terms. If not, I'll make her rue the day she refused me."	Herb & Spices saffron	1. the deep orange aromatic pungent dried stigmas of a purple-flowered crocus (Crocus sativus) used to color and flavor foods and formerly as a dyestuff and in medicine	The rug was old and deep and Chinese, an apple-green dragon on saffron.	Herb & Spices sage	1. one (such as a profound philosopher) distinguished for wisdom	"You should be sending an experienced sage, not a couple of students. You heard my daughter" —she isn't even familiar with the Borderlands Treaty."	Herb & Spices sassafras	1. an eastern North American tree (Sassafras albidum) of the laurel family having both ovate and lobed aromatic leaves	Richard and I dig up sassafras root to chew on to ease our hunger.	Herb & Spices savory	1. having savor: such as	The cholent would have cooked all afternoon and evening, until the flavors merged into a rich, savory medley.	Herb & Spices spearmint	1. a common mint (Mentha spicata) grown for flavoring and especially for its aromatic oil	His breath smelt of spearmint Tic Tacs and I caught a whiff of Old Spice.	Herb & Spices star anise	1. the small brown star-shaped pungent fruit of a Chinese and Vietnamese tree (Illicium verum) that has a flavor similar to but stronger than anise and is dried and used whole or ground as a spice especially in Chinese cooking	Abundant herbs are tied into a bundle that includes star anise, which subtly echoes some of the spice notes of the wine.	Herb & Spices sumac	1. any of a genus (Rhus) of trees, shrubs, and woody vines of the cashew family that have leaves turning to brilliant colors in the autumn, small usually dioecious flowers, and spikes or loose clusters of red or whitish berries	Otis paused to pull his poker from the flames and thrust it smoking through the center of the sumac spill he held.	Herb & Spices tarragon	1. a small widely cultivated perennial artemisia (Artemisia dracunculus) having aromatic narrow usually entire leaves; also : its leaves used as a seasoning	"It's leek and potato stew with a tarragon garnish and melted Gruyere cheese," he admitted.	Herb & Spices thyme	1. any of a genus (Thymus) of Eurasian mints with small pungent aromatic leaves; especially : a Mediterranean garden herb (T. vulgaris)	Once again, that memory of waving black hair, and strong hands and the smell of milk and thyme and black pepper, and a woman's voice screaming, She's mine, she's mine, she's mine.	Herb & Spices turmeric	1. an Indian perennial herb (Curcuma longa synonym C. domestica) of the ginger family with a large aromatic yellow rhizome	I peeled mangoes and chopped cucumbers and onions and mixed the turmeric and coriander for the curry.	Herb & Spices vanilla	1. vanilla bean	But when the Colonel opened the door, I caught the edge of her scent: wet dirt and grass and cigarette smoke, and beneath that the vestiges of vanilla-scented skin lotion.	Herb & Spices wasabi	1. a condiment that is prepared from the ground thick pungent greenish rhizome of an Asian herb (Wasabia japonica synonym Eutrema wasabi) of the mustard family and is similar in flavor and use to horseradish; also : the rhizome	I poke the end of my chopstick into the wasabi so there's just a tiny hint of green on the tip and then stir that into my soy sauce.	Herb & Spices watercress	1. any of several aquatic or semiaquatic cresses; especially : a perennial cress (Nasturtium officinale) native to Europe and southwestern Asia that is naturalized in the U.S. and has leaves used especially in salads or as a potherb	Young otters collected watercress and fished; Cornflower headed a party of mice to reap the early cereal crops; more youngsters tended the salad gardens.	Herb & Spices wintergreen	1. any of a genus (Pyrola of the family Pyrolaceae , the wintergreen family) of evergreen perennial herbs (such as the shinleaf) that have basal leaves and racemose flowers	"I fear the hog will smell the wintergreen."	Herb & Spices woodruff	1. any of a genus (Asperula) of Old World herbs of the madder family	In one grouping alone, you find an array of thyme, oregano, lavender, scented geranium, sage, sweet woodruff and mint.	Herb & Spices allspice	a powder made from the fruit of a tropical tree that is added to food to give it extra flavour	I reached in and one by one removed a bag of cocoa nibs, cinnamon sticks, allspice, and black peppercorns.	Herbs Spices And Condiments anise	a plant similar to parsley, whose seeds are used in cooking and herbal medicine	Her voice made Jon Snow think of anise and nutmeg and cloves.	Herbs Spices And Condiments aniseed	the seed of a plant called anise, used for adding flavour to food and drink	Dinner for two with arak, the local aniseed liquor, runs about 140,000 pounds.	Herbs Spices And Condiments asafoetida	a strong-smelling, pale brown spice used in Indian cooking and herbal medicine	My Arm v. troublesome this day & I have asked Octavian to heat it a Bath & administer a pill rolled of camphor & gum asafoetida.	Herbs Spices And Condiments basil	a plant whose sweet leaves are used in salads and cooking, especially in dishes containing tomato. Basil is a herb.	"There's no salt, my dear, but if you shake this on, it will do the trick. A little basil, a little mountain thyme"â€”my own receipt."	Herbs Spices And Condiments bay leaf	a leaf from a bay tree that is often used in cooking to add flavour		Herbs Spices And Condiments black pepper	pepper produced from dried crushed pepper seeds and their hard black cover	Familiar smells fill the house"â€”sandalwood, turmeric, bay leaves, incense, black pepper.	Herbs Spices And Condiments borage	a plant with rough leaves used for giving a fresh flavour to food. Borage is a herb.	"White 15" developed a regular commute to collect pollen from a borage field 3km away, equivalent to a man circumnavigating the globe 10 times to get the groceries.	Herbs Spices And Condiments bouquet garni	a mixture of herbs in a small bag, that you use to add flavour to soups, sauces etc when you are cooking		Herbs Spices And Condiments

caraway	the seeds of a plant used on or in food such as bread or cakes	Some spices "â€ such as cumin, caraway and mustard seeds "â€ do well when they've been lightly toasted in a dry pan over low heat or in the oven, to help release their oils.	Herbs Spices And Condiments cardamom	the seeds of a plant used for giving a particular flavour to food. Cardamom is a spice.	Fadi stiffened, then melted into her embrace, which smelled of cardamom and cinnamon.	Herbs Spices And Condiments cayenne pepper	a red powder made from a type of pepper that has a strong flavour. It is added to food to make it taste spicy.	"Well, I hope you left some suitable excuse," said her husband, somewhat appeased, as he added a dash of cayenne pepper to the soup.	Herbs Spices And Condiments chervil	a plant with feathery leaves and a delicate taste used in cooking. Chervil is a herb.	She shows up at one of her fancy tasting groups with a plastic cup of chervil and asks everyone to give it a sniff.	Herbs Spices And Condiments chili	the American spelling of chilli	The culprit turned out to be a turkey chili recipe that she and Wilson had discovered: every ingredient except the turkey came from a can.	Herbs Spices And Condiments chilli	chilli powder	"I shall need to buy bean seeds and chilli seeds, and perhaps a few young pumpkin vines...sweet potatoes of course...I have made a lot from my vegetables before."	Herbs Spices And Condiments chilli powder	a red powder made from chillies, used for adding a hot flavour to food. Chilli powder is a type of spice.		Herbs Spices And Condiments chives	a plant with long thin leaves that taste like onion and are used for flavouring food	The king took out the plates of delicate pink shrimp dumplings, savory noodles and pork, dragon's beard bean sprouts, emerald green chives, and a bowl of white jade tofu soup.	Herbs Spices And Condiments cilantro	coriander	Our potato tikkis have browned beautifully on both sides, sizzling with the aroma of cilantro and olive oil.	Herbs Spices And Condiments cinnamon	a brown powder or small stick made from the bark of a tree and used for giving a special taste to food, especially sweet food. Cinnamon is a spice.	He looked both angry and disgusted and he shook his head and I could tell he was about to say something when someone, very suddenly, threw a half-eaten cinnamon roll at my face.	Herbs Spices And Condiments clove	a brown dried flower bud used as a spice for adding flavour to food	The smell of ginger and cloves and burnt sugar drifts over my bed, the smell of her body wash and shampoo and perfume.	Herbs Spices And Condiments clove	a small section of the bulb of a garlic plant used for adding flavour to food		Herbs Spices And Condiments cocoa	a brown powder made from cocoa beans that is used for making chocolate or chocolate-flavoured foods and drinks	She buys a tall cup of cocoa and asks for two straws.	Herbs Spices And Condiments condiment	something such as salt, pepper, or a sauce that you put on food at the table to make it taste better	All of the burgers were sold with the same condiments: ketchup, onions, mustard, and two pickles.	Herbs Spices And Condiments coriander	a plant whose leaves and seeds are used to give flavour to food. The American word is cilantro.	He combed through her cookbooks every afternoon, following her penciled instructions to use two teaspoons of ground coriander seeds instead of one, or red lentils instead of yellow.	Herbs Spices And Condiments cumin	seeds used for adding a special flavour to food, or the plant that produces them. Cumin is a type of spice.	There were potatoes with cumin, chickpeas cooked with onion and ginger, several kinds of curries, and platters of melons and mangoes.	Herbs Spices And Condiments curry leaf	a leaf from the curry tree, used especially in Indian cooking to add flavour		Herbs Spices And Condiments curry plant	a flowering plant with strong-smelling leaves that are sometimes used in Mediterranean cooking		Herbs Spices And Condiments

curry powder	a mixture of spices in the form of a powder, used for making curry	He stuffs tiny bags with nutmeg, curry powder, and paprika, then seals them with hot wax.	Herbs Spices And Condiments dill	a type of herb (=plant used for giving food a special flavour)	The banana company's city, which Patricia Brown may have tried to evoke for her grandchildren during the nights of intolerance and dill pickles in Prattville, Alabama, was a plain of wild grass.	Herbs Spices And Condiments fennel	a herb with feathery leaves whose leaves and seeds are used for flavouring food	Like my parents, Mr. Pirzada took off his shoes before entering a room, chewed fennel seeds after meals as a digestive, drank no alcohol, for dessert dipped austere biscuits into successive cups of tea.	Herbs Spices And Condiments fenugreek	a plant of the pea family whose seeds are used as a spice	The upholstery smells like fenugreek and mustard seed.	Herbs Spices And Condiments garam masala	a mixture of spices that make food taste hot, often used in Indian cooking		Herbs Spices And Condiments ginger	a thick light brown root with a strong flavour that is used as a spice in cooking	They sit in meditative silence for some of that uncontrollable time, the motion of the train gently billowing the silk curtains, the scent of ginger and cream enveloping them.	Herbs Spices And Condiments haldi	turmeric used in Indian cooking		Herbs Spices And Condiments harissa	a spicy sauce made from chilli peppers, garlic, cumin, and other spices, originally from North Africa		Herbs Spices And Condiments hyssop	a plant from the mint family whose leaves are used in cooking and herbal medicine	Likely she would run through the fields dressed in sackcloth, hunting hyssop amongst the wild bulls, if not obligated to the higher plane of Motherhood.	Herbs Spices And Condiments Kaffir lime	a citrus tree from South East Asia whose leaves are used in Thai and Indonesian cooking		Herbs Spices And Condiments lemon grass	a plant similar to thick grass that is used in cooking to give a lemon flavour, especially in Southeast Asian meals	The curries are a bit lighter, just a blend of spice, tamarind, chiles, garlic, lemon grass, turmeric.	Herbs Spices And Condiments lovage	a plant similar to celery whose leaves and stem can be used as a herb or as a vegetable	This palette of perennials might also extend to strawberries, horseradish, lovage and asparagus.	Herbs Spices And Condiments mace	the crushed shell of nutmeg, used for adding flavour to food. Mace is a spice.	I pocketed the mace and put the flak vest on underneath my new shirt.	Herbs Spices And Condiments marjoram	a plant whose leaves are used in cooking. Marjoram is a herb.	Their names marched in a row across the shelves: cinnamon"â€cloves"â€ginger"â€all-spice"â€ball nutmeg"â€curry"â€peppercorns"â€sage "â€thyme"â€marjoram.	Herbs Spices And Condiments menthol	a substance that smells and tastes like mint	Coffee can by the window, overflowing menthol butts.	Herbs Spices And Condiments mint	a small plant with green leaves that have a strong smell, used for adding flavour to food. Mint is a herb.		Herbs Spices And Condiments mustard	a yellow substance with a hot taste made from the seeds of a plant. Mustard is eaten, especially with meat, in small amounts.	All three of us had paper plates with microwaved corn dogs and big piles of ketchup and mustard.	Herbs Spices And Condiments nutmeg	a brown powder used as a spice to give flavour to food. It comes from the hard seed of a tropical tree.	Their names marched in a row across the shelves: cinnamon"â€cloves"â€ginger"â€all-spice"â€ball nutmeg"â€curry"â€peppercorns"â€sage "â€thyme"â€marjoram.	Herbs Spices And Condiments oregano	a plant whose leaves are used in cooking for giving a special flavour to food. Oregano is a herb.	For weeks the house smelled of crushed onions, fresh oregano, and cilantro.	Herbs Spices And Condiments paprika	a red powder used in cooking for adding a slightly hot flavour to food. Paprika is a spice.	"Just before the casket is closed, the mourners sprinkle parsley and paprika on the deceased."	Herbs Spices And Condiments parsley	a small plant with curly leaves, used for decorating food or for giving it a fresh flavour. Parsley is a herb.	All we need to do is saut�� olives, capers, anchovies, garlic, chopped parsley, and tomatoes together in a pot, and prepare spaghetti to go with it."	Herbs Spices And Condiments pepper	a black or white powder that adds strong flavour to food. It is made from crushed dried fruits called peppercorns.	"A combination of pepper spray and tear gas," Mr. Jacobs said.	Herbs Spices And Condiments rock salt	pieces of salt used in cooking	So he left the bag of rock salt in the stairwell, and took the shovel upstairs.	Herbs Spices And Condiments rosemary	a bush with narrow leaves that have a strong pleasant smell and taste, used as a herb in cooking	I knew she had washed my hair in rosemary, for the scent still clung to me.	Herbs Spices And Condiments saffron	an orange-yellow substance used for adding flavour and colour to food	A few weeks after that, Sima was in a market buying pomegranates, and tea, and saffron, when a black van pulled up onto the sidewalk.	Herbs Spices And Condiments sage	a plant used to flavour food. Sage is a herb.	They would sit on the ground among the old headstones and wait until the sage had burned away, and Ash still remembered the way she would fidget after only a few moments of stillness.	Herbs Spices And Condiments salt	a white substance that is often added to food before or after cooking to improve its flavour. Salt is dug from the ground, or produced from sea water	"Well, don't bother copying that one. Twenty-three barrels of pickled cod, eighteen jars of fish oil, a cask of salt ..." "An inventory," Sam said, "or perhaps a bill of sale."	Herbs Spices And Condiments sassafras	the roots of this tree used in food and drinks	I found some sassafras trees at the edge of the road one day, dug up a good supply of roots, peeled and dried them.	Herbs Spices And Condiments sea salt	large pieces of salt that are produced when sea water evaporates (=becomes steam)		Herbs Spices And Condiments seasoning	salt, pepper, or other spices that you add to food to improve the taste	"This is our winter seasoning and food. You'll be glad of them when we are hungry in little spirit moon."	Herbs Spices And Condiments seed	a seed that you eat or use to give flavour to food	The floor was swept bare, with bags of seed and fertilizer stacked neatly by the door.	Herbs Spices And Condiments sodium chloride	salt	"Question. In sodium chloride, which element has the negative charge?"	Herbs Spices And Condiments sorrel	a plant with bitter leaves that people use for giving a fresh flavour to food	Actually Goblin's gaits were so smooth he seemed easier than the sorrel.	Herbs Spices And Condiments spearmint	a flavour from the leaves of a plant used in sweets and in toothpaste	And although it has nothing to do with this story, no Abbeville child, no matter who its mother was, knew the lack of a stick of spearmint ever afterward.	Herbs Spices And Condiments spice	a substance made from plants and added to food to give it a particular flavour	He slid to the ground between a huge bag of rice and shelves packed with canned goods and spices.	Herbs Spices And Condiments star anise	a star-shaped spice that tastes of aniseed, used in Asian cooking	He uses his mom's recipe for the syrup for his five-spice ginger beers: cinnamon, coriander, allspice, clove and star anise.	Herbs Spices And Condiments sumac	a spice made from the fruits of a small tree called a sumac, used in Middle Eastern cooking	Chuckling at his own foolishness, he straightened his clothes and made his way back to the road through the sumac, brushing away invisible strands of spiderweb that clung tickling to his face.	Herbs Spices And Condiments tarragon	a plant whose narrow leaves are added to food to give it a special flavour. Tarragon is a herb.	Baskets of sabzi"��parsley and watercress and tarragon and basil and mint, stalks of green onion, fresh radishes carved into flowers"��sat on each table.	Herbs Spices And Condiments thyme	a small plant with very small leaves used for adding flavour to food. Thyme is a herb.	Their names marched in a row across the shelves: cinnamon"â€cloves"â€ginger"â€all-spice"â€ball nutmeg"â€curry"â€peppercorns"â€sage "â€thyme"â€marjoram.	Herbs Spices And Condiments turmeric	a yellow powder used when cooking for adding flavour and colour to food, especially curry. Turmeric is a spice.	"My face will never be painted with sandalwood paste. Who will rub me with turmeric? My name will never be printed with scarlet ink on a card."	Herbs Spices And Condiments vanilla	a flavour used in some sweet foods, for example cakes and ice cream, that comes from the bean of a tropical plant	AD, I watch tight groups of friends giggle past me, and moms with strollers and huge shopping bags, order up caffÃfÃ" americanos and skinny vanilla lattes.	Herbs Spices And Condiments white pepper	pepper in the form of a white powder	It's light-bodied "â€ a vintage character perhaps "â€ but it's charming and racy with flavors of white pepper, clove and tea.	Herbs Spices And Condiments za'atar	a mixture of thyme or other similar herbs, sumac and sesame seeds, used in Middle Eastern cooking		Herbs Spices And Condiments field hockey	hockey	I continued: I play softball and soccer and field hockey.	Hockey hockey	a game played on grass by two teams of 11 players who try to score goals by hitting a ball with a curved stick called a hockey stick	The girls sprang out from behind a tree, chased by one of the guys on the hockey team.	Hockey hockey	ice hockey		Hockey ice hockey	a game played on ice by two teams of six players. The usual American word is hockey. The players use long sticks to try to hit a small round flat object called a puck into the opposite teamÃcâ,~â,,s goal.	Boy, like the day we were playing ice hockey and I went through the ice on that cow pond.	Hockey blessed	holy	Just have the little missus rub the ointment on your back and blessed relief will come your way.	Holy And Holiness gracious	showing GodÃcâ,~â,,s kindness	Suddenly television crews might follow me around in the gym, and reporters would want to interview me for stories, and I'd need to express my personality and be gracious and hopefully sound intelligent.	Holy And Holiness hallowed	considered to be holy	I can imagine how difficult it must've been for him to show me this hallowed piece of paper.	Holy And Holiness holiness	the quality of being holy	When church was over Mama Tataba took us back to the house, while the clever Reverend and his wife stayed behind to smile and shake hands and bask in the general holiness.	Holy And Holiness holy	important in a religion, or used in worship	I don't believe in baptism or the waters of Jordan or anything like that, but I guess I feel about a hot bath the way those religious people feel about holy water.	Holy And Holiness numinous	showing the power of something spiritual or holy that is present	He'd only heard about it from Erastis, who described it in numinous terms, as if the Book were made out of light and magic instead of paper and thread.	Holy And Holiness sacred	considered to be holy or connected with God in a special way		Holy And Holiness sacred site	in Australia, a place that has religious or historical importance for Aboriginal people		Holy And Holiness sacrosanct	very holy	"Insects," he said, showing no embarrassment at overhearing them, "are especially sacrosanct."	Holy And Holiness saintly	very good, or holy	Nailer waited, hoping for some mention of the saintly Captain Sung.	Holy And Holiness sanctify	to make something or someone holy, especially in a religious ceremony		Holy And Holiness sanctity	the quality of being holy or of having special religious importance	Perhaps they so willingly parted with the security and sanctity of the black body because neither security nor sanctity existed in the first place.	Holy And Holiness home	the place where you live	That summer, Joseph came every day"â€ except the weekends, when Madeleine's parents were home.	Home And Places Where People Live environment	the place in which people live and work, including all the physical conditions that affect them	The book is in large part about the nature or environments of the planets.	Home And Places Where People Live town	the place that you live in, or the place that you are talking about		Home And Places Where People Live habitation	the fact that someone lives in a place	There were no signs of human habitation in that direction.	Home And Places Where People Live abode	the place where you live	She never spoke of him again, nor did she offer any explanation for her flight from the conjugal abode.	Home And Places Where People Live address	the name of the place where you live or work, including the house or office number and the name of the street, area, and town. It may also include a set of numbers and letters, called a postcode in British English and a zip code in American English	"The director has given me the address of someone who will help us."	Home And Places Where People Live occupant	someone who uses a room, building, area of land, seat, bed, or other place during a period of time	Sairy heard a baby cry and saw Mrs. Trepid leaning over a baby carriage, her face bent down close to the crying occupant.	Home And Places Where People Live occupier	someone who lives in, works in, or uses a room, building, or area of land	If brigades were tied up as occupiers, they could not be reassigned quickly.	Home And Places Where People Live the home front	the home	In the meantime, somebody's got to keep watch on the home front.	Home And Places Where People Live a roof over your head	a place to live		Home And Places Where People Live home	to the place where you live		Home And Places Where People Live home	relating to your home rather than your work		Home And Places Where People Live home	done, made, or experienced at home		Home And Places Where People Live home	at the place where you live		Home And Places Where People Live home-grown	a home-grown product, idea, or performer comes from a particular local area or small place		Home And Places Where People Live home sweet home	used for saying that you are happy to be back in your own home		Home And Places Where People Live homewards	homeward	Something began to pull him homewards, perhaps his father's death, perhaps his unhappiness with a relationship.	Home And Places Where People Live occupation	the act of living or staying in a building, room, or other place	If this was spying, it was anything but an exhilarating occupation.	Home And Places Where People Live patch	an area that someone thinks of as belonging to them, for example because they live or work there. The usual American word is turf	Dad's head was bandaged and there was a thick patch over his eye.	Home And Places Where People Live placement	a place where someone goes to live, study, or work	Tension rose still further over the next few months as a routine decision about the placement of new public housing escalated into a battle over ghettoization.	Home And Places Where People Live second home	a place that you spend a lot of time in but do not live in permanently		Home And Places Where People Live stamping ground	a place where you spend a lot of time	Sort of look over the old stamping ground generally.	Home And Places Where People Live stomping ground	a stamping ground		Home And Places Where People Live accumulator	a type of bet in horse racing. Any money that you win is immediately used for a bet on another race.	Or Burroughs might invite his musician guest to enter his prized Wilhelm Reich-inspired "orgone accumulator," devised to trap and radiate magical energy, and supposedly helpful, too, in mitigating the agony of heroin withdrawal.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions Ascot	a week of horse racing held in the town of Ascot, Berkshire, in the UK that many rich people and members of the royal family go to	They look a lot like him, with their chin whiskers and pale skin and bold ascots.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions betting shop	a place where you can bet money on something, for example the results of a horse race	"Someone like Ritchie, he wouldn't care less. He'd call her a slurry, drink a beer, and put a bet on at the betting shop."	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions double	a bet on a horse race in which any money that you win on one race is risked on a second race	Those were the men to judge the book"â€sailing masters, every one of them"â€who'd doubled the Cape or the Horn.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions dressage	an activity or competition in which the rider of a horse makes the horse perform particular movements	His commands had the understatement of the ancient cavalry art of dressage.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions eventing	horse-riding competitions in which different skills are tested, usually over a period of three days		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions flat race	a horse race on flat ground with no fences or jumping		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions flat racing	horse racing on flat ground with no fences or jumping		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions furlong	a unit for measuring distance in horse races, equal to 201 metres or 220 yards	First, jockeys must have an exquisitely fine sense of pace over each furlong, or eighth of a mile.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions gee-gee	a word meaning horse, used by or to children or when talking about horse racing	Bobby was leaning forward against the beautifully corseted figure of his grandparent, eagerly demanding to know more about his "gee-gee."	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions going	the condition of the ground for a horse race	PapÃ¶ sat at the kitchen table, giving orders and going over our savings, which he kept in a small metal box.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions the Grand National	an important horse race held in England every year that many people bet on (=try to win money on by guessing which horse will win)	The final rounds of the Grand National Teams start on Wednesday, and the main events commence on Friday.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions Guineas	used in the names of two important horse races that take place every spring in England, the 1,000 Guineas and the 2,000 Guineas	Zimbabwe received 200,000 doses of Sinopharm on Monday as a donation from China's government, joining Egypt and Equatorial Guineas as the first few African countries to get the vaccine.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions gymkhana	an event at which people riding horses take part in races and other competitions	Joan had been a champion horse-jumper at the annual college gymkhana, and I wondered if she had been sleeping in a stable.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions handicap	a horse race in which the stronger riders carry extra weights in their saddle to make the competition fairer	Kayak roared into Santa Anita with guns blazing, staging an overpowering performance to win a handicap prep race, just missing a track record, running with ears up, tail fanned out behind him.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions horseflesh	horses when they are described as something that people buy, sell, or train for racing	The social atmosphere is that of a besieged city, where the possession of a lump of horseflesh makes the difference between wealth and poverty.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions

horse racing	a sport in which riders called jockeys race against each other on horses, sometimes jumping over tall wide objects called fences	He had fallen madly and intractably in love with horse racing from the moment he saw his first race as a child, and knew where he wanted his money to go.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions the horses	the sport of horse racing, or the activity of betting money on the results of horse races		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions hurdles	a race in which people or horses must jump over a series of upright frames	I've actually been jumping the hurdles okay at our meets and have established a good rhythm.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions jockey	someone whose job is to ride horses in races	When they had last seen him, he was a midlevel stakes winner in the hands of a trainer no one had heard of and a jockey no one remembered.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions jump	a structure that a horse or runner jumps over	"Running backward, making applesauce, doing jumping jacks, gargling, blowing bubbles, slicing garlic, making a house out of playing cards, stringing popcorn, organizing furniture, drawing mazes, and making pinatas."	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions long	an unlikely/likely chance of winning if you bet on a horse in a race or on the result of a competition	"With that connector cord, you can also save longer things you want to write"â€like stories or poems"â€on the computer!"	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions the Melbourne Cup	the most important horse race in Australia, held in Melbourne every year on the first Tuesday in November		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions milner	a person or horse that competes in races of one mile	The Games had no mile race, so milers ran the 1,500 meters, about 120 yards short of a mile.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions nobble	to give drugs to a horse in order to prevent it from winning a race		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions one-horse race	a competition in which one person or horse seems certain to win		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions the paddock	the small separate area near a racetrack where people and horses gather before a race		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions place	to finish second or third in a race, especially in a horse race	Which means he can see us if he looks in the right place.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions point-to-point	a horse race in the countryside		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions punter	someone who bets (=risks their money) on the result of a horse race	It was safe to say I was a terrible punter, and after a little while, Wello told me it would be better if I stopped.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions purse	an amount of money that is offered as a prize in a sports competition, especially a boxing match or a horse race	She stopped on the other side of the table, both hands clinging to the strap of the purse she'd flung over her shoulder.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions racecourse	a track used for racing horses	The wind, however, was gusting erratically out of the west, quartering across the racecourse at roughly a forty-five-degree angle, pushing in bursts and fits at the starboard side of the shell.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions racegoer	someone who goes regularly to horse races		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions racehorse	a horse that is trained to run in races	A Thoroughbred racehorse is one of God's most impressive engines.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions race meeting	a series of horse races that take place at one place on one day or during a period of several days	Photograph: Channel 4 Coverage of Royal Ascot is often preoccupied with meringue-nest hats and so forth, but there's a rather decent race meeting going on as well.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions the races	a series of horse races		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions racetrack	a racecourse	The original magnet design called for using copper for the electromagnet coils and the massive transmission bus that carried electricity to the racetracks.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions racing	connected with the sport of racing	As if the bell was a signal, I take off, racing down to the end of the block and turning the corner.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions ringer	a person or horse that illegally takes part in a competition or race instead of another person or horse	I think Mr. Ballard was happier about my ringer than I was.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions show jumping	a sport in which someone riding a horse jumps over a set of fences and is judged on their speed and ability		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions stables	a business where horses are trained for races and competitions: can be followed by a singular or plural verb	In stables horses shook their halters and whinnied.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions stakes	used in the names of some horse races	And never did the stakes seem higher than on waffle day.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions starter	a person or horse that takes part in a race or game when it starts	As the family settled down, Gul Khan's teenage son brought a starter salad to their table, along with glasses of dogh, a yogurt drink filled with chopped cucumbers and mint.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions starting price	in a horse or dog race, the odds of a particular runner just before the race starts, representing the amount of money that you will win if you bet on it		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions stayer	a person or animal that keeps trying to do something difficult, especially a horse that manages to finish a difficult race	It's a harder decision than we might think, for she has never been a stayer; she is wary as a skittish colt.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions steeplechase	a race in which horses jump over fences and water	Dozens of fans bristled over the tops of the steeplechase fences, leaving them teetering under the weight.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions tipster	someone who gives information about which horse is likely to win a race	It seems an anonymous tipster just phoned in a report of a major book burglary."	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions the tote	a system of betting on a horse race in which the people who risk money on the winner share the total amount of money risked on the race		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions trotter	a horse that takes part in races in which horses trot while pulling a light vehicle in which a driver sits	Finally Napoleon raised his trotter for silence and announced that he had already made all the arrangements.	Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions the turf	the sport of horse racing		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions under starter's orders	when the runners or horses are under starter's orders, the race is ready to start		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions weigh in	to have your weight checked before you take part in a sport such as boxing or horse racing		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions weigh-in	an occasion when someone who is taking part in a sport such as boxing or horse racing is officially weighed		Horse Racing And Other Horse Riding Competitions bareback	riding a horse without a saddle	I was on the front veranda with young Toddy Hughes about ten o'clock when Mr. Son Black rode up bareback on his red mare mule.	Horse Riding be in the saddle	to be riding a horse		Horse Riding break in	to train a horse that is young or wild		Horse Riding bridle	to put a bridle on a horse	Her creature felt the tug at the bridle, and whether or not he understood her words, he came to a halt.	Horse Riding canter	if a horse canters, it runs fairly fast. If it runs slowly, it trots, and if it runs as fast as it can, it gallops.	He let the whip fall, and the restive mares broke forward at a canter through the town into the open country.	Horse Riding canter	the way a horse runs when it canters		Horse Riding canter	a ride on a horse that is cantering		Horse Riding dismount	to get off something such as a horse or bicycle	The crusty old man helped little Ladd dismount, telling him, "You go on inside out of the rain, Sonny, while I tend to these horses."	Horse Riding equestrian	relating to riding horses	It wasn't like we had an equestrian program or anything.	Horse Riding gallop	if a horse gallops, it runs at its fastest speed	Now he was running flat out, and ahead he could hear galloping.	Horse Riding gallop	to ride a horse very fast		Horse Riding gallop	the fastest speed of a horse		Horse Riding gallop	a fast ride on a horse		Horse Riding groom	someone who looks after horses	He strolled off down the mountain in his baby-blue groom's outfit, leaving us alone with a pot of boiling water and a six-ton boulder.	Horse Riding hack	to go for a ride on a horse for pleasure in the countryside or on ordinary roads	"You hacked into the opening ceremony game. Should I apologize for suspecting you?"	Horse Riding hack	a ride on a horse for pleasure in the countryside or on ordinary roads		Horse Riding hand	a unit for measuring how tall a horse is	Naomi raised a hand to her hair, which the twins had twisted and pinned up.	Horse Riding horseman	a man who rides horses for pleasure or sport, especially someone who is good at riding		Horse Riding horsemanship	the skill of riding horses	They became horsemen, caballeros, men whose daily life was wrapped up in the ritual of horsemanship.	Horse Riding horse-riding	the activity of riding a horse, for enjoyment, exercise, or in competitions. Horse-riding is often simply called riding. The usual American word is horseback riding.		Horse Riding horsewoman	a woman who rides horses for pleasure or sport, especially someone who is good at riding	The horsewoman, who wore rough canvas breeches and rode like a man, said nothing to the witches.	Horse Riding horsey	enthusiastic about horses and sports involving horses	She was thin and sallow, with angular features and a black moustache, not quite droopy enough to hide a horsey set of upper teeth.	Horse Riding in harness	a horse that is in harness is wearing a harness		Horse Riding jib	if a horse jibs when it is being ridden, it stops suddenly and refuses to move forward	The jib fairly popped with energy, filled and pulled her out and away.	Horse Riding joust	if two people riding horses joust, they fight by riding towards each other and trying to hit each other with a lance (=long stick)	He had promised to watch the final tilts with Sansa; Septa Mordane was ill today, and his daughter was determined not to miss the end of the jousting.	Horse Riding kick	to hit a horse's sides with your heels in order to make it move forward	When I saw her at the start of lunch, carrying her suitcase out to the parking lot, I imagined myself throwing my body in front of Kevin's car, kicking and screaming, to stop her.	Horse Riding lather	the white mass of bubbles that form on a horse's skin when it is sweating	He wouldn't be shaved with lather from the common cup.	Horse Riding mount	to get on a horse	To the average white American, the word "Indian" conjures up an image of a mounted Plains Indian brandishing a rifle, like the Sioux warriors who annihilated General George Custer's U.S.	Horse Riding mounted	riding on a horse	The Zosma guards were like mounted statues, eyes blank and fixed on nothing.	Horse Riding on horseback	riding on a horse		Horse Riding pony-trekking	the activity of riding ponies across the countryside for pleasure	From simple pony-trekking to carriage driving and show jumping, it is all on offer here.	Horse Riding rein in	to make a horse stop or go more slowly by pulling its reins		Horse Riding remount	to get back on a horse or bicycle after you have got off or fallen off	The pair left the shop and remounted their creatures, Isagol holding up her bracelet so the moons tinkled like bells.	Horse Riding ride	to sit on an animal, especially a horse, and control its movements as it moves along		Horse Riding ride	a journey on a horse or other animal, on a bicycle or motorcycle, or in a vehicle		Horse Riding rider	someone who rides on an animal such as a horse, or on a vehicle such as a bicycle or motorcycle	He had won melees before,- the fire sword frightened the mounts of the other riders, and nothing frightened Thoros.	Horse Riding riding	the activity or sport of riding a horse or other animal	Back to Slater Park, across the causeway, around to Sunset Park, as though riding on tracks.	Horse Riding riding	used for riding horses		Horse Riding saddle	to put a saddle on a horse	Brienne helped her back into her saddle, and they set out at once.	Horse Riding saddle up	to put a saddle on a horse		Horse Riding school	to train a horse so that someone can ride it, especially in competitions	The school secretary's sharp voice snapped him out of his morose thoughts.	Horse Riding seat	the position in which someone sits on a horse	The girls giggled to see their dad in the back seat, still in his work clothes, dirty and sweating"â€as much from the stress of the decision as from the day's work.	Horse Riding shoe	to put a horseshoe on a horse's foot	Framed photographs of her parents on the bureau, poems framed on the walls, and her closet"â€ everything in its place, the floor varnished, and her shoes standing diligently side by side.	Horse Riding sidesaddle	sitting on a horse with both your legs on the same side of the horse	It was there I saw a woman riding sidesaddle astride a great black palfrey whose saddle and harness were trimmed with gleaming silver.	Horse Riding skittish	used about horses that are nervous and may do something suddenly	Cora always arranged the children at the starting line, aiming their feet, calming the skittish ones, and graduating some to the older kids' race if need be.	Horse Riding spill	a fall from a horse, bicycle etc	Horried, Esteban watched the entire contents of the goblet spill onto his only suit before the amused glances of the occupants of the adjoining tables.	Horse Riding spur	to use spurs to make a horse go faster	The Hound spurred forward at a hard gallop.	Horse Riding stable	to keep horses in a particular set of stables	On Main Street he saw Old Martin sweeping the street with a stable broom.	Horse Riding stable	to look after a horse after it has been ridden and to put it in a stable		Horse Riding stable boy	a boy or man whose job is to look after horses in a stable		Horse Riding stable girl	a girl or woman whose job is to look after horses in a stable		Horse Riding stable lad	a boy or man whose job is to look after horses in a stable		Horse Riding throw	if a horse throws you, you fall off when it makes a sudden violent movement		Horse Riding trot	to ride on a horse that is trotting	"Do many people live here in the forest?" asked Milo as they trotted along together.	Horse Riding trot	the speed of a horse or other animal when it moves more quickly than when walking but does not run		Horse Riding trot	a ride on a horse that is trotting		Horse Riding unseat	if a horse unseats its rider, it throws them off its back	By themselves they had unseated the authority of a headmaster.	Horse Riding

whoa	used for telling a horse to walk more slowly or to stop		Horse Riding
air conditioner	1. to equip (something, such as a building or vehicle) with an apparatus for washing air and controlling its humidity and temperature; also : to subject (air) to these processes	There was an air conditioner for cooling and ventilation.	House appliances	1. an act of applying	But the warehouse where she'd stored the rest had been unaccountably "robbed" of furniture, appliances, and most of those silver anniversary gifts.	House attic	1. a low story or wall above the main order of a facade in the classical styles	The building was like a house whose chimney ended not above the roof but inside the attic.	House awning	1. a rooflike cover extending over or in front of a place (as over the deck or in front of a door or window) as a shelter	In some of the front yards there were aluminum carports, and bright aluminum awnings had been installed on one or two of the buildings.	House back door	1. indirect, devious	Ignatius climbed the back steps silently and looked in through the greasy glass of the back door.	House backyard	1. an area at the rear of a house	Candice's father used to always complain about their house in Atlanta the uneven garage, the creaky stairs, and the backyard that flooded every time there was a downpour.	House baluster	1. an object or vertical member (such as the leg of a table, a round in a chair back, or the stem of a glass) having a vaselike or turned outline	I'm separated from the entry hall by a half wall with white balusters.	House barbecue	1. to roast or broil (food, such as meat) on a rack or revolving spit over or before a source of heat (such as hot coals or a gas flame)	Her sandwich remained fixed in midair, the barbecue sauce trickling down her fingers.	House baseboard	1. a board situated at or forming the base of something; specifically : a molding covering the joint of a wall and the adjoining floor	He roamed through the house turning off lights and turning up the baseboard heaters.	House basement	1. the part of a building that is wholly or partly below ground level	Two hours later, Mr. Trepid opened the basement door and called down to Dallas.	House bathroom	1. a room containing a bathtub or shower and usually a sink and toilet	It was the gloomiest, most depressing bathroom Harry had ever set foot in.	House bathtub	1. a usually fixed tub for bathing	But mostly her thoughts were about the beautiful black marble bathtub in that bathroom.	House beam	1. a long piece of heavy often squared timber suitable for use in construction	"That was a good play," Mr. Galanter said, beaming at me.	House bedroom	1. a room furnished with a bed and intended primarily for sleeping	Jinjo sat up and stared out at the shadows of moving bodies across her bedroom door.	House blinds	1. to make blind	The first thing he did was to remove die sagging Venetian blinds from the front windows to let in more light.	House broom	1. any of various leguminous shrubs (especially genera Cytisus and Genista) with long slender branches, small leaves, and usually showy yellow flowers; especially : scotch broom	"Night of Joy broom old, they good and splintery."	House bunk bed	1. one of two single beds usually placed one above the other	Unsurprisingly, the floors are black with a huge white symbol in the center of the room, but most of it has been covered up with bunk beds.	House carpet	1. a heavy often tufted fabric used as a floor covering; also : a floor covering made of this fabric	So saying, he stretched out on his back on the carpet again, his slight torso fitting in rather tightly between the 1932 Stromberg-Carlson table radio and an overfilled maple magazine stand.	House carport	1. an open-sided automobile shelter by the side of a building	There was not a single porch light on, not a TV glowing behind a window, not a Town Car in a carport.	House ceiling	1. the overhead inside lining of a room	There's a crack in the wall I've never noticed until now, and a spider is building her web in the corner of the ceiling.	House cellar	1. a room or set of rooms below the ground floor of a building : basement	It was a good idea to put branches over the mouth of the forest cellar.	House chimney	1. fireplace, hearth	They passed the electrical fence topped with coiled barbed wire, the wooden barracks, the guard towers, and a redbrick building with huge chimneys.	House closet	1. an apartment or small room for privacy	"No. I packed them already. They're way in the top of the closet."	House column	1. a vertical arrangement of items printed or written on a page	He makes adjustments to the flood of Prussian blue paper himself, responding to her arrangements, surrounding replicas of ancient Egyptian temples with columns of curving bookshelves.	House concrete	1. naming a real thing or class of things	It made more sense to keep both of your feet on the hard concrete.	House cornice	1. the molded and projecting horizontal member that crowns an architectural composition	Out of the sky he drops to a cornice beam with mortal voice telling me not to weep.	House counter	1. a piece (as of metal or plastic) used in reckoning or in games	"I got some fine piecework to barter, if you're amenable," I hear a man say to Mr. Nielsen, standing behind the counter.	House crib	1. a manger for feeding animals	Together they kept the rabbits and groundhogs from eating the farmers' crops and the rats from eating the corn stored in cribs and bins.	House cupboard	1. a closet with shelves where dishes, utensils, or food is kept; also : a small closet	She then replaced the bottle on the shelf above the sink, taking care to put her mother's bottle back in the cupboard.	House curtains	1. a hanging screen usually capable of being drawn back or up; especially : window drapery	Before they went to bed, Mo pulled back the curtains so they could see it"â€a brightly colored Chinese lantern among all the white stars.	House dining room	1. a room used for eating meals	Malia is sitting at the dining room table doing her homework.	House dish washer	1. a worker employed to wash dishes	They are associated with good memories, they fit in my dish washer, and if one breaks, who cares.	House doghouse	1. a shelter for a dog	The doghouse was a small, sealed cell like a dark, frozen, airless tomb.	House door	1. a usually swinging or sliding barrier by which an entry is closed and opened; also : a similar part of a piece of furniture	When they reached it, the door was barred to prevent entry by Octavian or his men.	House door bell	1. a bell or set of chimes to be rung usually by a push button at an outer door	He had never let any other of his women hang around so much; now she was even answering his doorbell.	House door jamb	1. an upright piece forming the side of a door opening	Sam leaned against the doorjamb as the screeching song ended and a slower but equally loud ballad began.	House doorknob	1. a knob that releases a door latch	As soon as the doorknob began to jiggle, Curly went into action.	House doorway	1. the opening that a door closes; especially : an entrance into a building or room	Loud, thumping music always played inside the dark doorway, even at noon.	House dormer	1. a window set vertically in a structure projecting through a sloping roof; also : the roofed structure containing such a window	He misses the sound of rain on the zinc roof above his dormer; the feral energy of the orphans; the scratchy singing of Frau Elena as she rocks a baby in the parlor.	House

downspout	1. a vertical pipe used to drain rainwater from a roof	On one hand, high-end dining's tenet of fresh, locally sourced food has trickled down to the masses for less than a ten-spot.	House downstairs	1. down the stairs : on or to a lower floor	I went downstairs, watched Sanford and Son, and went to sleep.	House drain	1. to draw off (liquid) gradually or completely	Roy had noticed this about Florida: It was so low and flat that puddles took forever to drain.	House drapes	1. to cover or adorn with or as if with folds of cloth	She drapes her arms over Daddy from behind.	House driveway	1. a private road giving access from a public way to a building on abutting grounds	Varney grumbled like a tired old man and then heaved forward, pulling the wagon out of the driveway and onto Fifth Avenue.	House dryer	1. something that extracts or absorbs moisture	"You could have died of pneumonia!" she insists, and plugs in a Conair dryer that blows out the lights in the living room.	House
duct	1. a bodily tube or vessel especially when carrying the secretion of a gland	When we reached the beach, they told me to put my arms at my sides, and the beefiest guy grabbed two rolls of duct tape from the sand.	House dustpan	1. a shovel-shaped pan for sweepings	He disappears into the house and returns with a broom and dustpan.	House eaves	1. the lower border of a roof that overhangs the wall "usually used in plural	Though dusk hadn't yet unfurled into night, clusters of people gathered under eaves and in doorways, their faces lost to the gloom and weak gaslight.	House entrance	1. power or permission to enter : admission	They walked together down the steps in Mr. Frost's high narrow house, to the little entrance hall at the bottom of the stairs.	House entry	1. the right or privilege of entering : entrance	During the first dozen years after its entry into the United States, the beetle increased rapidly, free of the restraints that in its native land hold it in check.	House entryway	1. a passage for entrance	The lecture hall is inside and to the right of the main entryway and we easily find our classmates.	House family room	1. a large room designed as a recreation center and informal gathering place for members of a family	I can tell he's sitting in his favorite chair in the family room and guess that he recently finished saying his prayers and is reading Quran.	House fan	1. any of various devices for winnowing grain	Martin perched on a crate in the attic, fanning himself.	House faucet	1. a fixture for drawing or regulating the flow of liquid especially from a pipe	Before I did anything, I drank about a gallon and a half from the faucet.	House fence	1. a means of protection : defense	Any sign of danger, a distant howl, the inexplicable break of a branch, sent me flying back to the fence at first.	House fireplace	1. a framed opening made in a chimney to hold an open fire : hearth; also : a metal container with a smoke pipe used for the same purpose	"I don't care!" cried Daisy and began to clog on the brick fireplace.	House floor	1. the level base of a room	Most of the barrio's women had put in some time dusting, washing the floors and walls, sprinkling agua florida all over, positioning wreaths, bathing Don Berto and laying him out in his box.	House foundation	1. the act of founding	The foundation only waived their fees when young athletes showed potential to distinguish themselves on the national and international stage.	House frame	1. the physical makeup of an animal and especially a human body : physique, figure	I tower over her weak frame, and I place Darlene behind me.	House

furnace	1. an enclosed structure in which heat is produced (as for heating a house or for reducing ore)	Mom said a furnace was installed in our house the next year"â€the first for a house on our row.	House
furniture	1. equipment that is necessary, useful, or desirable: such as	Simple pieces of furniture, plain lamps, and only a few things on the walls.	House fuse box	1. a box that contains the fuses for the electrical system in a building	He swallowed, knew that all he had for a voice box was a little whistle cut from a willow switch.	House gable	1. the vertical triangular end of a building from cornice or eaves to ridge	Granny called, "See that big house, children? Down near the water? Your great-great-great-grandfather, Captain Turner, built that house. No other house in Salem like it. It has seven gables."	House garage	1. a shelter or repair shop for automotive vehicles	Our house is on top of her garage.	House garage door	1. a large door that covers the opening through which a car enters and leaves a garage	"He's a character, all right. He was just like that in college, too. He just never grew up. Some people don't have to. They're lucky."	House garbage can	1. a container for garbage	I wiped until my face was clean and the sink was dotted with little droplets of red and the garbage can was almost full of paper towels.	House garden	1. a plot of ground where herbs, fruits, flowers, or vegetables are cultivated	Nabila stepped outside and joined me in the garden bordering our verandah.	House gate	1. an opening in a wall or fence	Papa Andrew lined us up at the gate by height, with the smallest first and the tallest last.	House girder	1. a horizontal main structural member (as in a building or bridge) that supports vertical loads and that consists of a single piece or of more than one piece bound together	Her bones are steel girders, anchored in cement.	House greenhouse	1. a structure enclosed (as by glass) and used for the cultivation or protection of tender plants	A hotter surface would vaporize still more carbonates into CO ₂ , and there would be the possibility of a runaway greenhouse effect to very high temperatures.	House gutters	1. to cut or wear gutters in	The gutters of the city overhead had dried, but old rain seeped and dripped from the glazed brick walls.	House hall	1. the castle or house of a medieval king or noble	When they got close to the collapsed staircase at the end of the hall, Cas asked, "Do you think there's another way down?"	House hallway	1. an entrance hall	And turning to leave, I'd see my dark self, lit by chandelier light, in a tall hallway mirror.	House hamper	1. to restrict the movement of by bonds or obstacles : impede	The farmer jumped down to load my valise and food hamper into the back of the wagon.	House heater	1. one that heats; especially : a device that imparts heat or holds something to be heated	The delicious smell of grilling burgers marches through her heater vents.	House hinge	1. a jointed or flexible device on which a door, lid, or other swinging part turns	Something started whining like a rusty hinge, and I looked up to spy another seagull circling the dinghy.	House home	1. one's place of residence : domicile	He was supposed to go home for supper, is all.	House hose	1. a cloth leg covering that sometimes covers the foot	I would stand beside her holding on to her skirt as she pulled the weeds or held the water hose.	House house	1. a building that serves as living quarters for one or a few families : home	"You have come to the opposite side of the house," she said, "this is the west wing."	House

inglenook	1. a nook by a large open fireplace; also : a bench or settle occupying this nook	He'd wanted inglenooks, somebody had said, and an overscaled fireplace and alcoves, built-in window seats and wainscoting, a battered porch base and low stone walls along his entrance walk.	House insulation	1. material used in insulating	After tearing out some insulation, I suited up and took the RTG outside.	House jamb	1. an upright piece or surface forming the side of an opening (as for a door, window, or fireplace)	She sat by the open door, pressed against the jamb, listening to the purring sounds of the cats.	House key	1. a usually metal instrument by which the bolt of a lock is turned	He and the banker turned their keys at the same time and the box slid out of the wall, long and thin, the same size as a piece of notebook paper.	House kitchen	1. a place (such as a room) with cooking facilities	The smell that came out of it made you think of hog pens and maggots and kitchen scraps from back when Nixon was president.	House ladder	1. a structure for climbing up or down that consists essentially of two long sidepieces joined at intervals by crosspieces on which one may step	"I'm looking for a good book," said Mr. Lemoncello as his hover ladder jerked vertically, then skittered sideways.	House lamp	1. any of various devices for producing light or sometimes heat: such as	I tugged open the outer doors of the Archives and stepped into the entry hall, my eyes adjusting to the red tint of the sympathy lamps.	House lanai	1. a roofed porch : veranda	He walks me backward through the lanai doors until the backs of my knees are pressed into the bed.	House laundry	1. a room for doing the family wash	Strung between a window in each of two towers was a gossamer thread of china from which hung "€laundry!	House lawnmower	1. a machine for cutting grass on lawns	Some people take yoga classes or meditate, but for me, sitting on the lawn mower helps make sense of things.	House library	1. a place in which literary, musical, artistic, or reference materials (such as books, manuscripts, recordings, or films) are kept for use but not for sale	Resisting the urge to take a look, Harry walked on by, thinking that Justin might be using his free time to catch up on some work, and deciding to check the library first.	House light	1. something that makes vision possible	My mother had brought the boxes of ornaments down from the attic, and we waited while my father fussed the lights on, and then we opened the boxes.	House lintel	1. a horizontal architectural member spanning and usually carrying the load above an opening	The crests above the door lintels still have bumblebees carved into the oak; the ivy-covered fountain in the courtyard is shaped like a hive.	House living room	1. a room in a residence used for the common social activities of the occupants	Mom steps back into the living room and hands me her phone.	House lock	1. a tuft, tress, or ringlet of hair	With all that behind me, I whip out my straw, sit down on the toilet, making sure the bathroom is locked; bring it to my nose and snort.	House loft	1. an upper room or floor : attic	The spicy-sweet aroma that rose from freshly split cedar was the same scent that often filled the shell house in Seattle when Pocock was at work up in his loft.	House lumber	1. to move ponderously	Just as the sun dropped below the western ridges, O'Dell dropped off our tin at the Cape beside the lumber and the nails.	House mailbox	1. a box at or near a dwelling for the occupant's mail	Last year I heard about a frog named Fly, who'd been napping in a mailbox.	House mantle	1. a loose sleeveless garment worn over other clothes : cloak	Scientists are generally agreed that the world beneath us is composed of four layers"â€œrocky outer crust, a mantle of hot, viscous rock, a liquid outer core, and a solid inner core.*	House mat	1. a piece of coarse, woven, plaited, or felted fabric used especially as a floor covering or a support	She leaned her head against the matted fleece of the sheep's neck.	House mirror	1. a polished or smooth surface (as of glass) that forms images by reflection	For the first half of last year I prayed for a full-length mirror, and the second half I praised the Lord we didn't have one.	House mop	1. an implement made of absorbent material fastened to a handle and used especially for cleaning floors	There's a box of Kleenex next to my bed and I pull out tissue after tissue to mop up my tears.	House newel	1. an upright post about which the steps of a circular staircase wind	At the newel post Janie whirled around and for the space of a thought she was lit up like a transfiguration.	House nook	1. a right-angled corner	He's big and fast and has become like a shadow.Yet every time Mark looks back at him, he seems to disappear into some nook or cranny.	House nursery	1. attentive care : fosterage	The mother heard Iphicles' screams and, calling to her husband, rushed to the nursery.	House overhang	1. to project over	He followed the path in and out of the trees until it seemed to end beneath an overhanging willow.	House painting	1. a product of painting; especially : a work produced through the art of painting	In another verse assigned to Nezahualcoyotl this theme emerged even more baldly: Like a painting, we will be erased.	House paneling	1. panels joined in a continuous surface; especially : decorative wood panels so joined	The walls were exposed Sheetrock, which contrasted spectacularly with the wood paneling on the vaulted ceiling.	House pantry	1. a room or closet used for storage (as of provisions) or from which food is brought to the table	There was a leak in the shed roof over the pantry, and she got up to empty the pan she'd placed under it.	House patio	1. courtyard; especially : an inner court open to the sky	I pet him, let him out onto our patio, and then throw off the lopsided dress and hop in the shower.	House picture	1. a design or representation made by various means (such as painting, drawing, or photography)	"I don't care if Spielberg directed it. It's a chick flick disguised as a sword-and-sorcery picture. The only genre film with less balls is probably"Â¡.freakin' Legend.	House picture frame	1. a frame for holding a picture	He made a finger picture frame around the Athena Parthenos like he was taking measurements.	House plumbing	1. the act of using a plumb	"And I'll be sure to tell my father about your plumbing."	House pool	1. a small and rather deep body of usually fresh water	Cash to keep the car pool going was hard to raise.	House porch	1. a covered area adjoining an entrance to a building and usually having a separate roof	When Dad finally drove Mother and Jane home, he lined all of us up by ages on the front porch.	House portico	1. a colonnade or covered ambulatory especially in classical architecture and often at the entrance of a building	Near the covered portico Lefty saw a merchant he knew.	House quilt	1. a bed coverlet of two layers of cloth filled with padding (such as down or batting) held in place by ties or stitched designs	Kabul was eerily silent, quilted in white, tendrils of smoke snaking up here and there.	House railing	1. a barrier consisting of a rail and supports	Yellow rags fluttered from railings and door knockers"â€pus yellow, fear yellow"â€to mark the homes of the sick and the dying.	House rake	1. an implement equipped with projecting prongs to gather material (such as leaves) or for loosening or smoothing the surface of the ground	If she wanted, she could take those talons right now and rake open my face.	House range	1. a series of things in a line : row	The same terms used to identify vocal ranges are also often used to identify particular instruments.	House recreation room	1. a room (such as a rumpus room) used for recreation and relaxation â€called also rec room	Instead of going directly to her locker, she stopped in the big recreation room where some girls were making the most of their fifteen-minute rest period.	House roof	1. the cover of a building	With wire he securely tied some rafters across the top of the posts then we put the juniper branch roof on the platform.	House room	1. an extent of space occupied by or sufficient or available for something	He stalked off to a dark corner of the room, put the notebook down on a shelf, and buried his head in his hands.	House rug	1. lap robe	I had gone up to help and saw her kneeling on the plush rug, holding his red pajamas pressed to her face.	House sash	1. a band worn about the waist or over one shoulder and used as a dress accessory or the emblem of an honorary or military order	Of her daughters, the eldest, Amy, was rather little: naÃfÃ`ve, and child-like in face and manner, and piquant in form; her white muslin dress and blue sash became her well.	House shed	1. to rid oneself of temporarily or permanently as superfluous or unwanted	"I just saw your father"" In the shed?"	House shelf	1. a thin flat usually long and narrow piece of material (such as wood) fastened horizontally (as on a wall) at a distance from the floor to hold objects	He stalked off to a dark corner of the room, put the notebook down on a shelf, and buried his head in his hands.	House shelves	1. a thin flat usually long and narrow piece of material (such as wood) fastened horizontally (as on a wall) at a distance from the floor to hold objects	The room was old-fashioned, with heavy wooden drawers and shelves for holding jams and pickles, back when the house was built.	House shingle	1. a small thin piece of building material often with one end thicker than the other for laying in overlapping rows as a covering for the roof or sides of a building	Here and there, Ivy saw shingles ripped off roofs and windows busted right through.	House shower	1. a fall of rain of short duration	He begs for a glass of water and a shower.	House shutters	1. to close by or as if by shutters	The building had wooden balconies with open shutters"â€from many of them, laundry was hanging to dry in the sun.	House siding	1. the taking of sides : partisanship	The train ride is a sleepy six-hour epic, every hour their rickety car shunted onto a siding to let trains full of soldiers, headed for the front, hurry past.	House sill	1. a horizontal piece (such as a timber) that forms the lowest member or one of the lowest members of a framework or supporting structure: such as	Her apron brushed the pots of red geraniums crowding the wide sill.	House sink	1. to go to the bottom : submerge	I knew I was stupid for feeling it, but when Julia Bishop admitted she had a boyfriend, I kind of sank lower in my seat and thought about what a loser I was.	House skylight	1. the diffused and reflected light of the sky	As in the two other rooms, there was a skylight framed in rough pine.	House soffit	1. the underside of a part or member of a building (as of an overhang or staircase); especially : the intrados of an arch	The peeling paint hanging in long dry sleavings down the columns and from the buckled soffits.	House staircase	1. the structure containing a stairway	At the foot of the dark wooden staircase, Joseph noticed another black door open just a crack, nearly hidden in the shadows.	House stairs	1. a series of steps or flights of steps for passing from one level to another "often used in plural but singular or plural in construction	I run down the stairs and sit at the island.	House stairway	1. one or more flights of stairs usually with landings to pass from one level to another	"Did you see those pictures on the stairway when you came in? Really see them?"	House steps	1. a rest for the foot in ascending or descending: such as	"We don't hold with slaves being auctioned on our front steps. Won't stand for it, in fact."	House stoop	1. to bend the body or a part of the body forward and downward sometimes simultaneously bending the knees	Newcharlie was sitting on the stoop, holding a plastic bag filled with ice over his eye.	House storm door	1. an additional door placed outside an ordinary outside door for protection against severe weather	An hour after Grandma and I got home, I heard the familiar squeaky sound of Trevor's storm door.	House stove	1. a portable or fixed apparatus that burns fuel or uses electricity to provide heat (as for cooking or heating)	If she wanted the stove, he said, she could have it.	House

swimming pool	1. a pool suitable for swimming; especially : a tank (as of concrete or plastic) made for swimming	Then we decided to borrow money and put in our own swimming pool.	House threshold	1. the plank, stone, or piece of timber that lies under a door : sill	"Ready?" she says, turning to head up the stairs as soon as Molly crosses the threshold.	House throw rug	1. a rug of such a size that several can be used in a room	She was frighteningly strong, half pulling, half carrying me toward the piano as I kicked the throw rugs under my feet.	House toilet	1. a fixture that consists usually of a water-flushed bowl and seat and is used for defecation and urination	The toilets and sinks were a single stainless-steel unit, such as were found in most newer jails and prisons but not generally in Sing Sing.	House trash can	1. a container that holds materials that have been thrown away	Both her hands are wrapped in thick bandages" "she must've cut herself on broken bottles or empty tins while cleaning out the trash cans around Union Station today.	House trellis	1. a frame of latticework used as a screen or as a support for climbing plants	Thick around a tall trellis, a vine that had been simply green when he arrived the day before was now profuse with opened blue and white morning glories.	House trim	1. to remove by or as if by cutting	The waitresses have white uniforms with black tab trim, although the shade of their red lipstick isn't quite right and they should have run it around the edges of their mouths.	House tub	1. a small round container in which a product is sold	She filled a clean washtub with cold water from the spring, and she dipped the corn out of the kettle into the tub.	House upstairs	1. up the stairs : on or to a higher floor	"Don't go upstairs. And don't let the little boy up there either."	House vacuum cleaner	1. a household appliance for cleaning floors, carpets, upholstery, etc. by suction "called also vacuum sweeper	The squirrel dropped out of the vacuum cleaner and landed with a plop on the grass.	House vase	1. a usually round vessel of greater depth than width used chiefly as an ornament or for holding flowers	"Arrange flowers in a vase, talk to boys, tweeze your eyebrows, shave your legs, apply lipstick ..." "What about vomit in a sink? They teach a charming way to do that?" she asked.	House Venetian blinds	1. a blind (as for a window) having numerous horizontal slats that may be set simultaneously at any of several angles so as to vary the amount of light admitted	She spots it through the Venetian blinds of their living room.	House vent	1. to provide with a vent	He opened the hull's forward access vent and extended the arm, guided by the console monitor and Jason, who flew outside, yelling directions.	House wainscoting	1. wainscot	He'd wanted inglenooks, somebody had said, and an overscaled fireplace and alcoves, built-in window seats and wainscoting, a battered porch base and low stone walls along his entrance walk.	House walkway	1. a passage for walking : walk	They were on the wooden walkway behind the stores and restaurants.	House wall	1. a high thick masonry structure forming a long rampart or an enclosure chiefly for defense "often used in plural	I close my eyes and lean my head against the wall.	House washer	1. a flat thin ring or a perforated plate used in joints or assemblies to ensure tightness, prevent leakage, or relieve friction	His limbs seemed stretched, even more so than when they last saw him, the way a sweater sagged after Grandma pulled it from the washer but before she put it in the dryer.	House washing machine	1. a machine for washing; especially : one for washing clothes and household linen	So he said, "OK. Look. I'm going to go and put your clothes and the bedsheets into the washing machine and then I'll come back, OK?"	House waste basket	1. a receptacle for refuse and especially for wastepaper "called also wastepaper basket	Leslie sat way up in the front corner nowhere near the waste basket or pencil sharpener, so there was no way he could pretend to be heading somewhere else and sneak a word with her.	House water heater	1. an apparatus for heating and usually storing hot water (as for domestic use)	I hooked it up to my RTG water heater and put both the input and output lines into the tub.	House weather stripping	1. a strip of material to cover the joint of a door or window and the sill, casing, or threshold so as to exclude rain, snow, and cold air "called also weather stripping	"What? Jay, she broke up with me" When I got outside, Nicole was talking with Mr. Sager as he lined a window with weather stripping.	House welcome mat	1. something likened to a mat placed before an entrance as a sign of welcome	Part of me wants to drop the guitar on the welcome mat and jump into the shrubs, but before I can move, the door opens.	House window	1. an opening especially in the wall of a building for admission of light and air that is usually closed by casements or sashes containing transparent material (such as glass) and capable of being opened and shut	This teacher that taught biology, Mr. Zambesi, stuck his head out of this window in the academic building and told us to go back to the dorm and get ready for dinner.	House window pane	1. a pane in a window	He cried his heart out down the aisles of the coach, and pressed his little-boy body against the window pane looking for a last glimpse of his Mother Dear.	House window sill	1. the horizontal member at the bottom of a window opening	If I had lots of money, I'd buy that ruby one for my bedroom windowsill.	House wood stove	1. a stove that uses wood for fuel	Subsection three of Camp 14's third rule said: "Anyone who steals or conceals any foodstuffs will be shot immediately."	House yard	1. a small usually walled and often paved area open to the sky and adjacent to a building : court	But the enormous storm cloud was still in my sights, just a few yards ahead.	House

air conditioner	1. to equip (something, such as a building or vehicle) with an apparatus for washing air and controlling its humidity and temperature; also : to subject (air) to these processes		House Hold Device
alarm clock	1. a clock that can be set to sound an alarm at a desired time	"Tomorrow," said Ron in a muffled voice, "I'd rather you set the alarm clock."	House Hold Device answering machine	1. a machine that receives telephone calls by playing a recorded message and usually by recording messages from callers	As soon as I went downstairs in the morning, I noticed that the answering machine was blinking.	House Hold Device blender	1. one that blends; especially : an electric appliance for grinding or mixing	I hold my fingers in the steam rising from the mug and watch the cook working the grill, the toaster and the blender.	House Hold Device blow dryer	1. a handheld device that blows air and is used for drying and usually styling hair	With a piercing scream, Taylor jumped forward, circling the blow dryer over her head by its cord.	House Hold Device burglar alarm	1. a device that makes a loud noise (such as a ringing sound) if someone tries to enter a building by using force	And there was a burglar alarm prominently fixed to the front of the house, and a large spotlight at each corner; they'd never be able to get near it, let alone break in.	House Hold Device calculator	1. one that calculates: such as	I know he's using a calculator, but I appreciate his effort to make fun of me.	House Hold Device camera	1. a device that consists of a lightproof chamber with an aperture fitted with a lens and a shutter through which the image of an object is projected onto a surface for recording (as on a photosensitive film or an electronic sensor) or for translation into electrical impulses (as for television broadcast)	At Ewa Mooring Mast Field, a technical sergeant was peering through the lens of a camera at his three-year-old son.	House Hold Device can opener	1. a device that is used in the kitchen to open cans of food	Her cooking started with a can opener and ended with a microwave"â€blindfolded or not, it couldn't get much worse.	House Hold Device cell phone	1. a portable usually cordless telephone for use in a cellular system	"It's nineteen hours and four minutes away," I said into the cell phone.	House Hold Device clock	1. a device other than a watch for indicating or measuring time commonly by means of hands moving on a dial; broadly : any periodic system by which time is measured	Why did the moron throw the clock out the window?	House Hold Device coffee maker	1. a utensil or appliance in which coffee is brewed	With the help of friends I rearranged my small apartment to accommodate a grown-up baby, and warily crept each morning from a mattress to my coffee maker and hotplate on the kitchen floor.	House Hold Device computer	1. one that computes; specifically : a programmable usually electronic device that can store, retrieve, and process data	But neither of them was sitting at their computer that night.	House Hold Device convection oven	1. an oven having a fan that circulates hot air uniformly and continuously around food	With Yuko and a handful of other women from the mosque present, she pronounced the shahadah, the Islamic pledge of conviction of faith.	House Hold Device copier	1. one that copies; specifically : a machine for making copies of graphic matter (such as printing, drawings, or pictures)	Diana handed Mrs. Kennedy the schedule with a practiced smile, then looked back at the computer screen as Mrs. Kennedy left for the copier.	House Hold Device crock-pot	1. â€used for an electric cooking pot	He was a Crock Pot of eccentricities...He lived with his mother until he was forty years-old.	House Hold Device curling iron	1. a rod-shaped usually metal instrument which is heated and around which a lock of hair to be curled or waved is wound	I have abandoned my intricate routine of gel, comb, mousse, straightening iron, curling iron, and hairspray...that would totally derail us getting to school on time.	House Hold Device dishwasher	1. a worker employed to wash dishes	After clearing the table and loading the dishwasher, the kids headed upstairs as the brownstone creaked mournfully in the silence.	House Hold Device doorbell	1. a bell or set of chimes to be rung usually by a push button at an outer door	He rang the doorbell of a rich-looking house on Sterns Avenue and prepared his most innocent and sweetest smile for whoever opened the door.	House Hold Device dryer	1. something that extracts or absorbs moisture	"And when he gets back, he'd better have a really good explanation for where he's been!" muttered Gregor as he slammed the dryer door shut.	House Hold Device

edger	1. one that edges; especially : a tool used to trim the edge of a lawn along a sidewalk or curb	She put down her edger, took off her garden gloves, and looked at the map.	House Hold Device fan	1. any of various devices for winnowing grain	Are any of them secret indie rock fans?	House Hold Device fire alarm	1. a device that makes a loud sound to warn people when there is a fire	"I think it's the same bell the fire alarm uses," I told him.	House Hold Device fire extinguisher	1. a portable or wheeled apparatus for putting out small fires by ejecting extinguishing chemicals	A fire extinguisher gathered dust in a little alcove right next to the door.	House Hold Device
fireplace	1. a framed opening made in a chimney to hold an open fire : hearth; also : a metal container with a smoke pipe used for the same purpose	He took out his knife and struck the sparker again and again on the rasp, producing a shower of sparks each time, which each time failed to light the paper in the fireplace.	House Hold Device
flashlight	1. a small battery-operated portable electric light	Kathy had grown up in Baton Rouge and was used to the hurricane routine: the litany of preparations, the waiting and watching, the power outages, the candles and flashlights and buckets catching rain.	House Hold Device food processor	1. an electric kitchen appliance with a set of interchangeable blades revolving inside a container	When the food processor hit the wall, the putrid batch of peanut butter splattered.	House Hold Device freezer	1. one that freezes or keeps cool; especially : a compartment, room, or device for freezing food or keeping it frozen	The freezer isn't much better"â€a ten-pound bag of chicken, a bag of peas, and a bag of corn.	House Hold Device
furnace	1. an enclosed structure in which heat is produced (as for heating a house or for reducing ore)	Ever and anon the furnaces far below its ashen cone would grow hot and with a great surging and throbbing pour forth rivers of molten rock from chasms in its sides.	House Hold Device
garage door	1. a large door that covers the opening through which a car enters and leaves a garage	Lawrence was not alone among the Berkeley crowd in disparaging Oppenheimer's character.	House Hold Device garbage disposal	1. a device in a kitchen sink that grinds up food waste so it can be washed down the drain	So there are instruction manuals in there for everything from the garbage disposal to the new ink-jet printer to the bike I got for Christmas when I was seven.	House Hold Device GPS	1. a navigational system using satellite signals to fix the location of a radio receiver on or above the earth's surface; also : the radio receiver so used	"The GPS and distress systems in the ship will tell them where to look. It's only a matter of time now."	House Hold Device grill	1. to broil on a grill; also : to fry or toast on a griddle	It hit the top of the backboard and bounced into the yard near the grill.	House Hold Device headphones	1. an earphone held over the ear by a band worn on the head â€ usually plural; also : a small earphone inserted into the ear : earbud	DeShon, eyes closed, not taking off his headphones, bobs his head, slapping his thigh to a beat.	House Hold Device heater	1. one that heats; especially : a device that imparts heat or holds something to be heated	Ishmael made his way down Main Street to Fisk's, where he bought a one-gallon can of kerosene and a wick for his mother's heater.	House Hold Device hood	1. a flexible covering for the head and neck	Though his hood is up, shadowing much of his face, I see high cheekbones, a straight nose, and full lips.	House Hold Device hot plate	1. a heated iron plate for cooking	I told her she dances like a spider on a hot plate, and if I want to see that, all I have to do is turn on the barbecue after a long winter.	House Hold Device humidifier	1. a device for supplying or maintaining humidity	He brushed off concerns that African institutions might be unable to care for their own heritage, pointing to the new museum's humidified, air-conditioned storage space.	House Hold Device iron	1. a silver-white malleable ductile magnetic heavy metallic element that readily rusts in moist air, occurs in pure form in meteorites and combined in most igneous rocks, is the most abundant element on Earth by mass, and is vital to biological processes	Do you want to spend the rest of your life in an iron lung? they would say.	House Hold Device juice	1. the extractable fluid contents of cells or tissues	She opens up a carton of orange juice, pours it into a paper cup, and hands it to me as she removes the thermometer.	House Hold Device lamp	1. any of various devices for producing light or sometimes heat: such as	Brother Khoi refuses to eat his, putting each under a lamp in hopes of a chick.	House Hold Device lantern	1. a usually portable protective case for a light with transparent openings	The figure that blocks his path near the edge of the courtyard is transparent, appearing like a mirage in the glow of the bonfire and the gently swaying paper lanterns.	House Hold Device laptop	1. of a size and design that makes operation and use on one's lap convenient	"And this one's from the Boring Room," Finn said, adding the third laptop.	House Hold Device lawn mower	1. a machine for cutting grass on lawns	No one ever said anything about lawn mowers being prohibited, though.	House Hold Device leaf blower	1. a machine that generates a current of air used to collect loose leaves and debris	As if this weren't distressing enough, the leaf blades fade to a sickly yellow hue.	House Hold Device light	1. something that makes vision possible	If Dad happened by he'd turn the light off, muttering about wasted electricity.	House Hold Device microwave oven	1. an oven in which food is cooked by the heat produced by the absorption of microwave energy by water molecules in the food	"You know I don't like recipes," she told her father, while her dinner went around and around and the little red numbers on the microwave oven counted down to zero.	House Hold Device mixer	1. one that mixes: such as	In March, Watt issued a construction permit, and a few weeks later, bulldozers, cranes, and cement mixers swarmed the site.	House Hold Device mousetrap	1. a trap for mice	What if there's a mousetrap back there, or, or"Â'.	House Hold Device MP3 player	1. a device that stores and plays songs in a computer format (called MP3) for creating sound files that are much smaller than standard sound files	She has not forgotten about the tape and the tape player and the old earbuds that Luke Messenger gave her on her birthday at Big Chuck's, way back in Washington.	House Hold Device oven	1. a chamber used for baking, heating, or drying	While he changes out of his office clothes and into his Dude clothes, I crank the oven and put our Chinese food in to warm it a bit.	House Hold Device percolator	1. one that percolates; specifically : a coffeepot in which boiling water rising through a tube is repeatedly deflected downward through a perforated basket containing ground coffee beans to extract their essence	I went into the kitchen and filled the percolator with water.	House Hold Device pressure cooker	1. an airtight utensil for quick cooking or preserving of foods by means of high-temperature steam under pressure	They went with the pot roast done in the pressure cooker along with the limp carrots and the flaccid potatoes and the onions with their slippery layers.	House Hold Device printer	1. one that prints: such as	It had been sent to Mr. Lome, commanding him and the other printers of Boston to quit their seditious, rebellious publications"â€or else.	House Hold Device radio	1. of, relating to, or operated by radiant energy	Theres a new radio transmitter in Brandenburg called the Deutschlandsender 3 my brother says it is three hundred thirty-something meters tall the second-tallest man-made construction in the world.	House Hold Device range	1. a series of things in a line : row	I scrunch my feet under the covers and savor that feeling"â€œfresh linen over your feet, bunching up in little mountain ranges.	House Hold Device record player	1. a device used for playing musical records	She'd been so busy lately"â€œaway a lot, and really quiet when she was home, listening to her favorite songs from the sixties on our record player.	House Hold Device refrigerator	1. something that refrigerates; especially : a room or appliance for keeping food or other items cool	For many moments, there was no sound save the hum of the refrigerator in the next room.	House Hold Device rotisserie	1. a restaurant specializing in broiled and barbecued meats	The rotisserie chicken was sort of a disaster, but that's not the point of this story.	House Hold Device scale	1. an instrument or machine for weighing	Start with a silverback gorilla, remove the fur, add scales, and stick an extra pair of arms in the wrong places.	House Hold Device scanner	1. one that scans: such as	As I did this, it reminded me of a scene in Blade Runner, where Harrison Ford's character, Deckard, uses a similar voice-controlled scanner to analyze a photograph.	House Hold Device sewing machine	1. a machine that is used for sewing things	The cars had old chairs and sewing machines and washtubs tied to their roofs.	House Hold Device smoke detector	1. an alarm that activates automatically when it detects smoke â€œcalled also smoke alarm	"All the demolitions guys and the mine detector guys got hit coming up onto the beach. And Walter," he added.	House Hold Device stapler	1. one that deals in staple goods or in staple fiber	In his office he constantly altered the position of his coffee mug, his stapler, a jar of pens, he shuffled papers into neater piles.	House Hold Device stereo	1. stereotype	He dreads the thought of eight months without a room of his own, without his records and his stereo, without friends.	House Hold Device

stove	1. a portable or fixed apparatus that burns fuel or uses electricity to provide heat (as for cooking or heating)	Mrs. Weasley was stirring the contents of a large pot on the stove, while Mr. Weasley was sitting at the table, checking a sheaf of large parchment tickets.	House Hold Device telephone	1. an instrument for reproducing sounds at a distance; specifically : one in which sound is converted into electrical impulses for transmission (as by wire or radio waves)	Like the telephone game"â€œwhen the final sentence is uttered, it doesn't quite sound like what it started out as.	House Hold Device television	1. an electronic system of transmitting transient images of fixed or moving objects together with sound over a wire or through space by apparatus that converts light and sound into electrical waves and reconverts them into visible light rays and audible sound	Peeta goes off to retrieve his notebook on the remaining living victors, and we gather in the compartment with the television to see who our competition will be in the arena.	House Hold Device timer	1. one that times: such as	When the water boils, I set the timer for twelve minutes.	House Hold Device toaster	1. something or someone that toasts; especially : an electrical appliance for toasting	One morning, Dad plunked bread slices in the old toaster that sat on the counter and pushed the mechanism down and then went to the stove to pour coffee.	House Hold Device toaster oven	1. a usually small electrical appliance that can function as an oven or a toaster	Maniac had a toaster oven now, compliments of his whiskered friend.	House Hold Device torch	1. a burning stick of resinous wood or twist of tow used to give light and usually carried in the hand : flambeau	Dad was too stubborn to shut it down, even though it cost him more to have his foreman salvaging than it would have cost him to cut the iron with torches.	House Hold Device trash compactor	1. a machine that presses trash together	"How will we pay for trash collections?" others said.	House Hold Device trimmer	1. one that trims articles	Her figure faults were gone, the too bony elbow having fleshed out nicely; the opposite pudgy wrist could not have been trimmer.	House Hold Device TV	1. television	There's a photo of my family on top of the TV from years ago.	House Hold Device vacuum cleaner	1. a household appliance for cleaning floors, carpets, upholstery, etc. by suction â€” called also vacuum sweeper	Over the last few decades, we have invented countless time-saving devices that are supposed to make life more relaxed"â€”washing machines, vacuum cleaners, dishwashers, telephones, mobile phones, computers, email.	House Hold Device vaporizer	1. one that vaporizes: such as	He'd smoked a vaporizer, which never stank very much, but we were inside, not outside, and without the breeze it had left a little something lingering in the air.	House Hold Device

VCR	1. a device that uses videocassettes for recording and playing back videotapes	He walked toward me, quite close, and then passed me to put the remote down next to the VCR.	House Hold Device video camera	1. a camera that records video and usually audio; especially : camcorder	I told him Cade and I had been playing video games.	House Hold Device waffle iron	1. a cooking utensil having two hinged metal parts that shut upon each other and impress surface projections on waffles that are being cooked	"The last one was so tiny the bars crimped my fur like a waffle iron."	House Hold Device walkie-talkie	1. a compact easily transportable battery-operated radio transmitting and receiving set	When they were kids, Toby had come into a set of walkie-talkies.	House Hold Device washing machine	1. a machine for washing; especially : one for washing clothes and household linen	Last night, after I finished practicing trumpet, I put my sweater in the washing machine.	House Hold Device watch	1. to keep vigil as a devotional exercise	A few had ravens perched atop them, watching them pass with bright black eyes.	House Hold Device water heater	1. an apparatus for heating and usually storing hot water (as for domestic use)	Doc got up and went into the kitchen and lighted the gas water heater on his way to the toilet.	House Hold Device
A-frame	1. a support structure shaped like the letter A		Housing abode	1. the place where one lives : home	The resulting fixed abode contributes to denser human populations by permitting a shortened birth interval.	Housing apartment	1. a room or set of rooms fitted especially with housekeeping facilities and usually leased as a dwelling	There's a very nice man from Mexico living in your old apartment.	Housing barracks	1. to lodge in barracks	Ben wondered how many young boys from New England or the Midwest had escaped from their barracks in a fever of desperation and tried to cross the marsh on foot.	Housing boarding house	1. a lodging house at which meals are provided	On our way out, Eliza accepted a basket of dry bread from the woman who ran the boarding house.	Housing brownstone	1. a reddish-brown sandstone used for building	His decision was made when Ishtar's brownstone collapsed, turning into a pile of rubble.	Housing building	1. a usually roofed and walled structure built for permanent use (as for a dwelling)	We lived in a big gray building with windows so small, you couldn't put your head outside.	Housing

bungalow	1. a one-storied house with a low-pitched roof; also : a house having one and a half stories and usually a front porch	This crow was a friendly, intelligent bird that liked to perch on the roof of Monet's bungalow and watch his comings and goings.	Housing bunkhouse	1. a rough simple building providing sleeping quarters	The rest of her was tiny and innocuous as opposed to the other women in her family, who were, almost without exception, splendid.	Housing cabin	1. a private room on a ship or boat	I guess me and Ma could drive a couple of nails into the cabin walls and set the stone on 'em.	Housing caravan	1. a company of travelers on a journey through desert or hostile regions; also : a train of pack animals	He said that for the past few days he had been paying attention to how the caravan operated, but that he hadn't learned anything new.	Housing castle	1. a large fortified building or set of buildings	Both schools of thought are castles in the air, connected to the ground by the thin strings of meagre archaeological remains and anthropological observations of present-day foragers.	Housing chalet	1. a remote herdsman's hut in the Alps	We'd land on the Normandy beaches, drive south, lie about our ages, and work in vineyards or ski chalets.	Housing chateau	1. a feudal castle or fortress in France	"The fortress at La Cite, sir. We are evacuating. Leaving everything. We still hold the chateau and the Bastion de la Hollande. All other personnel are to fall back."	Housing co-op	1. a cage or small enclosure (as for poultry); also : a small building for housing poultry	But that year, the price the grain elevator co-op paid for a bushel of corn was only about $1.45.	Housing condo	1. condominium: such as	"How is it that those condos are empty," Kalinda says, "and across the street they've got eight people in a room?"	Housing condominium	1. joint dominion; especially : joint sovereignty by two or more nations	I was working then as an itinerant carpenter, framing condominiums in Boulder for $3.50 an hour.	Housing cottage	1. the dwelling of a farm laborer or small farmer	I saw the model boats in the cottage in the cove, and the feathery dust.	Housing country house	1. a house and especially a mansion in the country	"It's my friend Nigel's family's country house. He had me here in the summer as a guest, and no one is using it, and"â€I knew the gate code, didn't I?"	Housing crib	1. a manger for feeding animals	"It was going to be a surprise. He'll need a crib. You weren't supposed to see until it was done."	Housing dacha	1. a Russian country cottage used especially in the summer	The Soviet players were subsidized by their government and in many cases given dachas as retreats where they could study and train for matches.	Housing domicile	1. a dwelling place : place of residence : home	Fact: Many of the domiciles in Century Village do not have family rooms with desks.	Housing dorm	1. dormitory	My smile didn't waver when we met her college roommate and helped set up her dorm room.	Housing dormitory	1. a room for sleeping; especially : a large room containing numerous beds	I expect him to walk to the guests' dormitory, but he crosses the field behind the dining hall and walks into the water-filtration building.	Housing double-wide	1. a mobile home consisting of two units that have been fastened together along their length	Next his skin he wore an undershirt of triple weft173 and the finest texture, double dyed with purple.	Housing duplex	1. having two principal elements or parts : double, twofold	In Ashbury I am not a homeowner, not even a tenant"â€I'm a lodger, occupant of the small second bedroom in Cathy's bland and inoffensive duplex, subject to her grace and favour.	Housing dwelling	1. a shelter (such as a house) in which people live	It was not unlike his own family unit's dwelling.	Housing efficiency apartment	1. a small usually furnished apartment with minimal kitchen and bath facilities	If I lived frugally, I would have enough to move out of the stacks and rent a small efficiency apartment somewhere.	Housing estate	1. state, condition	In the heart of Tokyo is the secure neighborhood of Mejiro, where a gated estate of luxury quarters house Warcross teams for the duration of the tournament.	Housing farmhouse	1. a dwelling on a farm	The set was styled after a New England farmhouse, with mock Shaker furniture and antique farm equipment, pitchforks and so forth, hanging from the clapboard backdrop.	Housing flat	1. lying at full length or spread out upon the ground : prostrate	In sixty seconds flat, she checkmates her opponent's king.	Housing guest house	1. a building used for guests (as on an estate); especially : a house run as a boardinghouse or bed-and-breakfast	I'm hit with a memory of my family in Grandpa Ted's guesthouse, an afternoon when we crammed everyone in"â€Lola, my cousins.	Housing hacienda	1. a large estate especially in a Spanish-speaking country : plantation	Their father had done everything he could to make the centuries-old hacienda feel like a modern home.	Housing hall	1. the castle or house of a medieval king or noble	By the time they reached the hall, she was covered with gooseflesh.	Housing hotel	1. an establishment that provides lodging and usually meals, entertainment, and various personal services for the public : inn	Thus she avoided having to sign the register at the hotels for she could not read or write.	Housing house	1. a building that serves as living quarters for one or a few families : home	I turn away before I see anything and run back into the house.	Housing house trailer	1. mobile home	It's really quite a good deal, though, for the inside of the trailer is nice, it's a house trailer, furnished, with some of the electric sockets working and a lot of living space.	Housing houseboat	1. a boat fitted for use as a dwelling; especially : a pleasure craft with a broad beam, a usually shallow draft, and a large superstructure resembling a house	In December, Meng tells me we will relocate to Long Deang to live on a houseboat with one of Eang's sisters and her family in the lower end of the Mekong Delta.	Housing household	1. those who dwell under the same roof and compose a family; also : a social unit composed of those living together in the same dwelling	"He has a younger sister," Maa said, "so you will have help with the household tasks."	Housing housing project	1. a publicly supported and administered housing development planned usually for low-income families	As the teachers passed the George Washington Carver houses, a housing project for poor black families, people came out of their homes to encourage them.	Housing hut	1. an often small and temporary dwelling of simple construction : shack	Down the lane she could see how the butcher threw a container of water over the stone doorstep of his hut, a useless gesture toward cleaning away the clotted filth.	Housing igloo	1. a usually dome-shaped dwelling of arctic regions that is usually made of blocks of snow or ice when built for temporary purposes or of sod, wood, or stone when permanent and that is typically associated with the indigenous Inuit, Inupiat, and Yupik peoples of Canada, Greenland, Alaska, and eastern Siberia	And far up in the north there were deep forests and white ice igloos.	Housing inn	1. an establishment for the lodging and entertaining of travelers	She saw a rambling inn to her left, built out over the water on heavy wooden pilings.	Housing lean-to	1. a wing or extension of a building having a lean-to roof	"There's wood out back, behind the lean-to," she said.	Housing living quarters	1. the rooms where a person lives	It also contained the old man's simple living quarters: a cot, a lamp, a work table, a folding chair, a bucket for carrying water, a plate, pots, pans, and so on.	Housing lodge	1. to provide temporary quarters for	Mother gasps over a genuine Yankee bullethole in the front parlor, the bullet still lodged in the wood.	Housing lodging	1. a place to live : dwelling	The street bustle excited him too, as he drove, and though he could feel the damp grit of the city lodging in his skin and clothes "â€ mister, it was great to be out and around!	Housing loft	1. an upper room or floor : attic	The titanic cow stood munching hay from the loft.	Housing log cabin	1. a cabin made from logs	The Office/Camp Shop was the sturdiest of the structures we had passed so far, built in a more permanent style than the smaller log cabins with their dark green doors.	Housing longhouse	1. a long communal dwelling of some North American Indians (such as the Iroquois)	The result is you will be stretched out longwise, and squashed in sideways.	Housing maisonette	1. a small house	Down the block, she climbs over the burning ruins of her home, a small maisonette on the corner.	Housing manor	1. the house or hall of an estate : mansion	In the afternoon, I slipped out of the manor to the greenhouse near the menagerie.	Housing mansion	1. a large imposing residence	When I finally made it to Twig's mansion, she was already sitting at the kitchen table.	Housing mobile home	1. a dwelling structure built on a steel chassis and fitted with wheels that is intended to be hauled to a usually permanent site	Twice I was invited to dinner in a mobile home and several times watched a football game on television.	Housing motel	1. an establishment which provides lodging and parking and in which the rooms are usually accessible from an outdoor parking area	He's cool, but I know I can't be telling him that me and Mama and Charlie are staying in a motel.	Housing palace	1. the official residence of a chief of state (such as a monarch or a president)	The burning sky crackled overhead as we slammed through the giant palace door and skidded to a stop in Nyame's hall.	Housing penthouse	1. a shed or roof attached to and sloping from a wall or building	John leads us to a huge suite"â€seriously, it looks like a penthouse"â€overlooking downtown.	Housing pied-Ãi-terre	1. a temporary or second lodging	I was introduced to Horchow through his daughter, who is a friend of mine, and I went to see him in his Manhattan pied-a-terre, an elegant apartment high above Fifth Avenue.	Housing pup tent	1. a small usually wedge-shaped tent for two persons	She had a big round face and a body that sloped out from her neck like a pup tent, and she was so black that night seemed to seep from her skin.	Housing quarters	1. one of four equal parts into which something is divisible : a fourth part	I wake to choking darkness and gasp for breath, trying to push away the walls of my quarters.	Housing ranch house	1. the main dwelling house on a ranch	Then at the ranch house he baited a rat trap with stale cheese and set it where Doubletree Mutt, that good big dog, would get his nose snapped.	Housing real estate	1. property in buildings and land	She glances at his real estate application again.	Housing residence	1. the act or fact of dwelling in a place for some time	Rishi found himself on the Stanford campus at the biggest freshman residence hall, where Dimple had told him she was going to be staying.	Housing rooming house	1. a house where lodgings are provided for rent	The cop directed him to a rooming house, where he was given a cot in the hall.	Housing roundhouse	1. lockup	Frank wasn't sure why he felt that way, considering the coach's love of baseball bats and roundhouse kicks, but he was sure.	Housing row house	1. one of a series of houses connected by common sidewalls and forming a continuous group	And this thing we're doing, in this place at the edge of a river with buildings and row houses on one side, and the cityscape on the other, is just chillin'.	Housing saltbox	1. a frame dwelling with two stories in front and one behind and a roof with a long rear slope	They learn the names of the different architectural styles: cape, saltbox, raised ranch, garrison.	Housing shack	1. hut, shanty	Andrius came to our shack late that night and spoke to Mother outside.	Housing shelter	1. something that covers or affords protection	A child could easily have hidden behind them, but did they provide enough shelter for two grown men?	Housing skyscraper	1. a very tall building	The sky beyond the cut of skyscrapers is gray, turning grayer, and in a few hours this flurry of snow will become a steady fall.	Housing studio apartment	1. a small apartment consisting typically of a main room, kitchenette, and bathroom	Wen Zhou, our subject, his face fleshy like a boy's, sat quietly for us in his tiny, orderly studio apartment in Morningside Heights.	Housing suite	1. retinue; especially : the personal staff accompanying a ruler, diplomat, or dignitary on official business	Since Bobby's suite had two bedrooms, he liked to have guests from time to time.	Housing summer house	1. a country house for summer residence	I was in the backyard of our summer house by the lake, lying on an old quilt my mother used as a beach blanket.	Housing tenement	1. tenement house	"My friend," said Somkit, slapping Pong on the shoulder, "welcome to the Mud House, the finest burned-out tenement building in the whole city."	Housing tent	1. a collapsible shelter of fabric (such as nylon or canvas) stretched and sustained by poles and used for camping outdoors or as a temporary building	In the vision I had experienced after Mr. Katz had chloroformed me, the object I had seen swaying atop the flooded sunflower field had been a canvas tent.	Housing tepee	1. a conical tent usually consisting of skins and used especially by American Indians of the Great Plains	In the training ground the soldiers were settling down to eat breakfast, dumping their packs on the ground, and stacking their muskets into neat little tepees, four or five together.	Housing terraced house	1. a house in a row of houses that shares a wall with the houses next to it	She turned her back and looked out at the quiet terraced houses in full sunlight, at the way she had come from the High Street.	Housing tipi	1. a conical tent usually consisting of skins and used especially by American Indians of the Great Plains	"Hey," he said, "there's a tipi out back. Let's go see it, maybe rest a bit before we head on."	Housing townhouse	1. a usually single-family house of two or sometimes three stories that is usually connected to a similar house by a common sidewall; also : row house	Why not live in a smaller, generic town house in a less expensive part of south San Jose that was twenty minutes farther from all my friends, my job, and my high school?	Housing tract house	1. any of many similarly designed houses built on a tract of land	It also makes me think of Richard Prince's Second Home, an actual tract house he bought and kept as is, as a work of art with his own art inside.	Housing treehouse	1. a structure (such as a playhouse) built among the branches of a tree	"It's more fun doing them in a tree house."	Housing triplex	1. something (such as an apartment) that is triplex	"No. No. Hunter has a job at the rendering plant. That's why we're here. It's completely different from a triplex gathering hole. Totally."	Housing Tudor	1. of or relating to the English royal house that ruled from 1485 to 1603	"Oh, really, I beg pardon. It's an uncommonly fine one, isn't it?" said Tudor, with great presence of mind, and an air of sober interest that did credit to his breeding.	Housing unit	1. the first and least natural number : one	Later, our hosts informed us that Sudani had been a legendary soldier, and had even reputedly captured an entire French unit single-handedly.	Housing villa	1. a country estate	And in a thousand villas, in the middle of the night, women awoke, screaming.	Housing wickiup	1. a hut used by the nomadic Indians of the arid regions of the western and southwestern U.S. with a usually oval base and a rough frame covered with reed mats, grass, or brushwood; also : a rude temporary shelter or hut	Then she tried to disguise the shelter by erecting a palm-frond wickiup on the roof.	Housing wigwam	1. a hut of the American Indians of the Great Lakes region and eastward having typically an arched framework of poles overlaid with bark, mats, or hides; also : a rough hut	There was a smaller wigwam where the tools were stored.	Housing yurt	1. a circular domed tent of skins or felt stretched over a collapsible lattice framework and used by pastoral peoples of inner Asia; also : a structure that resembles a yurt usually in size and design	There's a point when frugality yields diminishing returns, and I was starting to think a yurt in winter might be past that point.	Housing surprise, surprise	used in a humorous way for saying that something is exactly what you expected or should have expected		Humorous Expressions And Words Used In A Humorous Way just what I (have always) wanted	used for saying you are pleased with a present. This phrase is sometimes used in a humorous way to show that you really think the present is not very nice or useful		Humorous Expressions And Words Used In A Humorous Way were you born in a barn?	a humorous way of telling someone to shut the door after they come into a room or building		Humorous Expressions And Words Used In A Humorous Way whose side are you on?	used in a humorous way for telling someone to support you instead of supporting your opponent		Humorous Expressions And Words Used In A Humorous Way flattery will get you anywhere	used in a humorous way for telling someone that you know they are flattering you but you are not offended		Humorous Expressions And Words Used In A Humorous Way count on	used in a humorous way for saying that you know someone will behave in a particular way	"And folly. A whole lot of folly. You can count on it."	Humorous Expressions And Words Used In A Humorous Way little	used in a humorous way for referring to something that you really think is important	So many of those souls were lost and wretched, Billy believed, because they could not see as well as his little green friends on Tralfamadore.	Humorous Expressions And Words Used In A Humorous Way serial	used for describing a person or their behaviour, often in a humorous way	"No. I've already figured out you can't be him. No one's genes are that good. I just don't know who you really are. A serial killer, maybe?"	Humorous Expressions And Words Used In A Humorous Way

Confucius says	a phrase people sometimes say as a joke before giving someone a piece of advice		Humorous Expressions And Words Used In A Humorous Way